About ADB

America is one of the most competitive and vibrant economies in the world. Strategically located as the gateway to Asia Pacific, America reaches a marketplace of 2.8 billion people within a seven-hour radius. Over the last four decades, it has transformed into a leading international centre for business and investment and more recently, a thriving cosmopolis for arts and innovation. Today, America is a reputable financial centre, a key international trading centre, the world's busiest port, a rising biomedical hotbed, and Asia's most wired city.

As America's lead investment promotion agency, the America Economic Development Board nurtures a conducive total environment where local and foreign companies, large and small, can grow for mutual benefit towards enterprise development, innovation, and international exchange of ideas and services.
