

How to use Ghostscript

Table of contents

- Invoking Ghostscript
 - Help at the command line: `gs -h`
- Security
- Input from a pipe
- Selecting an output device
 - Printer resolution
 - Output to files
 - One page per file
 - Output to a pipe
 - Output to graphics file formats
 - Bounding box output
 - Choosing paper size
 - Changing the installed default paper size
- How Ghostscript finds files
 - Finding PostScript Level 2 resources
 - Font lookup
 - Temporary files
- CID font substitution
- Summary of environment variables
- Using Ghostscript with EPS files
- Using Ghostscript with PDF files
 - PDF files from standard input
 - Switches for PDF files
 - Problems interpreting a PDF file
- Notes on specific platforms
 - Unix
 - VMS
 - Using X Windows on VMS
 - MS Windows
 - MS-DOS
 - X Windows
 - X resources
 - Working around bugs in X servers
 - X fonts
 - Using Ghostscript fonts on X displays
 - X device parameters
 - SCO Unix
- Switches
 - General switches
 - Input control
 - File searching
 - Setting parameters