

Shark's Love!

Sitting in a 3.8-metre sea
kayak and watching
a four-metre great
white approach you is
a fairly tense experience

LOVE STORY

The French Magazine "Le magazine des voyages de pêche" in its 56th edition, brought up an amazing news: An astonishing love story.

"Arnold Pointer a professional fisherman from south of Australia set free from a certain death a big female White Shark that was caught in his fishing nets. Now the fisherman has a problem: He says: "It's been 2 years and she doesn't leave me alone. She follows me everywhere I go and her presence scares all the fishes. I don't know what to do anymore."

It is hard to get rid of an almost 17 feet long shark since the White Sharks are protected by the wildlife conservation, but a mutual affection established between Arnold and "Cindy". Arnold Says: "Once I stop the boat she comes to me, she turns on her back and let me pet her belly and neck, she grunts, turn her eyes, and move her fins up and down hitting the water happily..."

AMAZING!!!

Sitting in a 9 metre sea kayak and watching a four-metre great white approach you is a fairly tense experience

© Michael Scholl Copyright

A Shark,
A Man,
And a thankful heart for saving MY LIFE!

Humanity still has a lot to learn About Animals and Nature!

Have a great day!

Sitting in a 3.8-metre sea
kayak and watching
a four-metre great
white approach you is
a fairly tense experience

Sitting in a 3.8-metre sea
kayak and watching
a four-metre great
white approach you is
a fairly tense experience