

motto. I have often thought that if I were a slave, I should put a good face on it, and strut among my tobacco-hills with a show of goodwill." So you keep up your cheer, said I, even in the worst weather? *' Why not? I am learning a good lesson. ¶

Insert manual page brake here.

Fifteen years have I worked without losmg a month by sickness, or a day by dissipation. I have seen others resting but I have scarcely ever rested. The repose which they got by driblets I motto. I have often thought that if I were a slave, I should put a good face on it, and strut among ! broken!

Inserting the manual page break as shown in the image above results in the mess below: the eight words following "strut among" are deleted and replaced by the highlighted characters in the second image below.

b ¶

So you keep up your cheer, said I, even in the worst weather? *' Why not? I am learning a good lesson. ¶

Fifteen years have I worked without losmg a month by sickness, or a day by dissipation. I have seen others resting but I have scarcely ever rested. The repose which they got by driblets I