The screenshot shows a LibreOffice Writer document window. On the left, the 'Outline' sidebar lists various bookmarks and sections, such as 'Koppen', 'Tabellen', 'Tekstframes', 'Afbeeldingen', 'OLE-objecten', and 'Bladwijzers'. Under 'Bladwijzers', items like 'AA', 'BB', and several 'BM_X' entries are listed. A context menu is open over the 'BM_A' entry, showing options like 'BM_A', 'BM_B', 'BX', etc. A green callout bubble labeled 'Sorted alphabetical' points to this list. Another green callout bubble labeled 'Sorted by order in document' points to a second list of bookmarks on the right side of the screen, which includes entries like 'BM_A Started here → xx' and 'BM_B Started here → yy', followed by various numbered copies and bookmarks. The LibreOffice interface includes a toolbar at the top, a ribbon menu, and a status bar at the bottom.
