Week of January 30: Emergency Call to Stop the Muslim Ban and More Indivisible Actions

There's no denying that Donald Trump's first week in office was dark. But what we also witnessed last week was an immense demonstration of resistance, from the hundreds of local groups that led a Day of Action against Trump's Cabinet nominees, to the thousands of people who appeared at spontaneous protests at airports from New York to San Francisco to reject hatred and division. You stood indivisible, and we were proud to stand with you. Here's how you can keep it up this week:

RSVP FOR TONIGHT: PLANNING CALL TO STAND AGAINST THE MUSLIM AND REFUGEE BANS

Last week, Trump signed an Executive Order halting all refugee admissions and barring people from many predominantly Muslim countries from entering the United States. This vicious, hateful Executive Order undermines everything that America stands for. But remember, Trump's agenda doesn't depend on Trump—it depends on YOUR Members of Congress rubber-stamping it. And you can stop that.

To explain how you can resist, we're hosting a big planning call with several of the leading national organizations in this space TONIGHT (Monday) at 9pm (ET) / 6pm (PT).

YOU HAVE TO RSVP HERE TO JOIN.

Indivisible is co-hosting this call along with:

- Asian Americans Advancing Justice (AAAJ)
- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)
- International Refugee Assistance Project (IRAP)
