

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

To the Management of MSC Trustgate.com Sdn. Bhd.

We have examined the assertion by the management of MSC Trustgate.com Sdn. Bhd. ("MSCTG") that in providing its Certification Authority ("CA") services known as Trustgate CA, has:

- Disclosed its key and certification life cycle management business and information privacy practices in its Certification Practice Statement - Version 3.8.8 with effective date on 1st July 2012, and provided such services in accordance with its disclosed practices, and
- Maintained effective controls to provide reasonable assurance that:
 - Subscriber information was properly authenticated (for the registration activities performed by Trustgate CA);
 - Integrity of keys and certificates it managed was established and protected throughout their life cycles;
 - Subscriber and relying party information was restricted to authorised individuals and protected from users not specified in the CA's business practices disclosure;
 - Continuity of key and certificate life cycle management operations was maintained; and
 - CA systems development, maintenance and operations were properly authorised and performed to maintain the CA systems integrity based on the CPA Canada WebTrust Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities – Version 2.0

MSCTG's management is responsible for its assertion. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by Chartered Professional Accountants Canada ("CPA Canada") WebTrust Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities - Version 2.0, and accordingly, included (1) obtaining an understanding of MSCTG CA's key and certification life cycle management business and information privacy practices and its controls over key and certificate integrity, over the authenticity and privacy of subscriber and relying party information, over the continuity of key and certificate life cycle management operations, and over development, maintenance and operation of systems integrity; (2) selectively testing transactions executed in accordance with disclosed key and certificate life cycle management business and information privacy practices; (3) testing and evaluating the operating effectiveness on the controls; and (4) performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Because of inherent limitations in controls, errors or fraud may occur and not to be detected. Furthermore, the projection of any conclusions, based on our findings, to future periods is subject to the risk that the validity of such conclusions may be altered because of changes made to the systems or controls, or deterioration in the degree of effectiveness of the controls.

In our opinion, for the period from 1 August 2016 through 31 August 2017, MSCTG CA's management assertion, as set forth in the first paragraph, is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the CPA Canada WebTrust Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities – Version 2.0

The WebTrust seal of assurance for the Certification on MSCTG's website constitutes a symbolic representation of the contents of this report and it is not intended, nor should it be construed, to update this report or provide any additional assurance.

The relative effectiveness and significance of specific controls at MSCTG and their effect on assessments of control risk for subscribers and relying parties are dependent on their interaction with the controls, and other factors present at individual subscriber and relying party locations. We have performed no procedures to evaluate the effectiveness of controls at individual subscriber and relying party locations.

This report does not include any representation as to the quality of MSCTG's CA services beyond those covered by CPA Canada WebTrust Principles and Criteria for Certification Authorities – Version 2.0, nor the suitability of any of MSCTG's services for any customer's intended purposes.
