There is a way to protect your privacy. Join Firefox. Learn more.

Home   Breaches   Security Tips

Security tips to protect yourself from hackers

Understand how hackers work
Protect your passwords from cyber criminals, since that's what they care about most.

How to create strong passwords
Make your passwords strong, secure, and hard to guess.

5 myths about password managers
Learn how to avoid bad password habits that make a hacker's work easy.

What to do after a data breach:
Lock down your accounts to keep your information out of the wrong hands.

Steps to take to protect your online identity
Understand the most common threats and know what to look out for.

Take further steps to protect your identity
Find out how to mitigate the risks of identity theft to prevent financial loss.

Data breaches are becoming more common. Finding out you were part of one usually includes a laundry list compromised information, such as your password,