BYOB account verification email (suggested copy)

Subject line: Thanks for registering with Mozilla's Build Your Own Browser!

Hi [name]. Thanks for registering for Mozilla's Build Your Own Browser (BYOB) application!

You're just a few clicks away from building your very own, customized version of a Firefox browser. With BYOB, create a browser with your choice of bookmarks, add-ons, personas, and localization of choice. Plus, you'll get a browser built with Firefox's world-class speed and security.

Before you get started, please remember that by using and distributing a customized version of Firefox, you agree to the program terms and conditions. You can review the terms and conditions here: <http://xxx.xxxxx.xxx> [DR NOTE: add a link to the T&C's here instead of putting a long laundry list which they already saw in the final step in the web app to generate this email]

BYOB is licensed under the Mozilla Public License (MPL), and their contents are subject to the restrictions outlined in the Mozilla Trademark Policy.

BYOB account verification email (current text for reference)

Subject line: Thanks for registering with Mozilla's Build Your Own Browser!

Greetings,

This is an automatically generated email from Mozilla's Build Your Own Browser (BYOB) application. The originating account is not monitored, so please direct enquires about this email to the BYOB contact page at <https://byob.mozilla.com/contact/>.

Someone (possibly you) has registered an account using this email address with the BYOB application. The account's login name is "drolnitzky". If you are that someone, you will need to follow the link below to verify your email address and complete the account activation process. We'd also like you to be aware of some conditions regarding the use of BYOB, and distribution of the browsers it creates.

BYOB generates installer files for a lightly customized version of Firefox that can be publicly distributed. These customized versions of Firefox are licensed under the Mozilla Public License (MPL), and the installer files and their contents are subject to the restrictions outlined in the Mozilla Trademark Policy (links to both documents are below), By using BYOB and/or distributing the installers generated by BYOB, you understand and agree to this.

Mozilla Public License

<http://www.mozilla.org/MPL/>

Mozilla Trademark Policy

<http://www.mozilla.org/foundation/trademarks/policy.html>

There are a few rules governing distribution of the installers, and breaking any of the rules automatically revokes your (or your organization's) authorization to distribute them. The rules, which are further outlined in the Mozilla Public License and the Mozilla Trademark Policy are:

- The program installers generated by BYOB and/or their contents may not be modified in any way
- Any installer distributed must be signed with a digital certificate issued by Mozilla
- The installers must be distributed at no cost to the end-user
- The installers must be distributed as-is as a stand-alone file, and may not be incorporated with a meta-installer or pre-installed
- When referring to the product name, the installer must be referred to using the title generated by BYOB to differentiate it from the default release of Firefox.

If you have any questions regarding these conditions, or need clarification on any of the items mentioned here, please contact us through the link below. If you agree to adhere to these conditions, then you can verify your email using the link below and get started with BYOB.

https://byob.mozilla.com/verifyemail?email_verification_token=c90f267f2081e2a89ae59b7054de27e5

Please click on the link above to complete the e-mail verification process and login to BYOB. If you believe this email was sent in error, please contact us through <https://byob.mozilla.com/contact/>.

Welcome aboard, and thanks for registering.
