

The screenshot shows the Mozilla Firefox Sync landing page. At the top is the Mozilla navigation bar with links to Products, Add-ons, Support, Community, and About. The main heading is "Stay in Sync with Your Firefox" with a circular arrow icon. Below this is the text "Access your history, passwords, bookmarks and even open tabs across all your devices." A green button labeled "Get Firefox Sync Free Download" is present, with a yellow speech bubble icon above it. To the right, a sidebar lists "Products / Firefox" with links to Features, Under the Hood, Security, Customization, 100% Organic Software, Tips & Tricks, Videos, and Connect. Below the main heading, there are three sections: "Why Sync Up?", "Getting Started", and "Get Up and Go". The "Why Sync Up?" section has three sub-sections: "Pick Up Where You Left Off", "Back up Your Info", and "Stay Secure". The "Getting Started" section has a "Watch this short instructional video." link and a "Both intro" label. The "Get Up and Go" section has a "Link to Firefox Mobile." label and a "Link to Firefox Sync FAQs on SUMO." label. A "Link to Firefox Mobile." label points to the "Get Up and Go" section. A "Link to Firefox Sync FAQs on SUMO." label points to the "frequently asked questions." link. A "Both intro" label points to the "Getting Started" section. A "Link to Firefox Mobile." label points to the "Get Up and Go" section. A "Link to Firefox Sync FAQs on SUMO." label points to the "frequently asked questions." link. A "Link to Firefox Mobile." label points to the "Get Up and Go" section. A "Link to Firefox Sync FAQs on SUMO." label points to the "frequently asked questions." link.

Why Sync Up?

Pick Up Where You Left Off

Doing online research from the office, only to see it's time to head home? Now you can go back to your opened tabs and search history in an instant from any PC. Your Firefox is as you left it, no matter where you log in.

Back up Your Info

All your settings, passwords, bookmarks, and other customizations are saved in a more universal way, not tethered to a single machine. If you replace a device, you don't lose your Firefox.

Stay Secure

Your information is encrypted so only you can access it when you enter a secret phrase. Firefox puts security as a top priority and syncing is no exception.

Get Up and Go

Have an iPhone or Firefox Mobile? You can take your Firefox with you wherever you go. Surf the Web on your PC, get up and go, and have everything waiting for you on your phone: your history, bookmarks, open tabs - just as you had left it.
