

A circular logo with a red-to-orange gradient background and a subtle geometric pattern. In the center is a smartphone displaying the Firefox logo (a blue globe with a yellow and orange fox) on its screen. The phone's status bar at the top shows signal strength, Wi-Fi, battery, and the time 2:36 AM. A blue ribbon banner with white text is draped across the middle. At the bottom, the green Android robot is partially visible.
