How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. CIBC has rated this fund's risk as High.

For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this fund does not provide any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this fund for?Investors who:

- are seeking specific exposure to potential future growth in Latin America; and
- are investing for the long term.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP) or a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA).

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered plan, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive them in cash or reinvest them.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own, and redeem Class A units of the fund.

1. SALES CHARGES

There are currently no sales charges payable when you buy, switch, or redeem units of the fund through CIBC Securities Inc. or CIBC Investor Services Inc.

2. FUND EXPENSES

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

As at December 31, 2012, the expenses for Class A units of the fund were 3.27% of its value. This equals $33 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual rate (as a % of the fund's value)
Management expense ratio (MER)
This is the total of the management fee and operating expenses for Class A units of the fund. CIBC waived some of the fund's expenses. Had it not done so, the MER would have been higher.	3.10%
Trading expense ratio (TER)
These are the fund's trading costs.	0.17%

Trailing commission

CIBC pays your dealer a trailing commission for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice your dealer provides to you. Dealers may pay part of the trailing commission to their representatives.

For Class A units, a trailing commission of up to 1.25% of the value of your investment each year (up to $13 for every $1,000 invested) is paid out of the management fee.

3. OTHER FEES

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, redeem, switch, or convert units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term or excessive trading fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or switch within 30 days of buying them. This fee goes to the fund.
Switch fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you switch through a dealer other than CIBC Securities Inc. or CIBC Investor Services Inc. This fee goes to your dealer.
Conversion fee	Up to 2% of the value of units you convert through a dealer other than CIBC Securities Inc. or CIBC Investor Services Inc. This fee goes to your dealer.
Withdrawal fee	$10.00 per account plus applicable taxes on RRSP and RESP accounts held with or administered by CIBC Securities Inc. unless the account is transferred to CIBC Investor Services Inc., CIBC Trust Corporation, or CIBC World Markets Inc. In the case of an RESP account, the withdrawal fee is not charged when satisfactory evidence that the proceeds are for educational purposes is presented.
Account closing fee	$40.00 per account plus applicable taxes to close registered plans accounts held or administered by CIBC Securities Inc. unless the account is transferred to CIBC Investor Services Inc., CIBC Trust Corporation, or CIBC World Markets Inc.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
