● Redesigned and led the rebuilding of the firm network from peer-to-peer to client-server network to support the firm operation much more effectively. ● Planned and led the migration from MS servers to more effective, secure, and dependable Linux server and free open source software; deployed various Internet and Intranet services in-house. ● Managed administration of the system resources; assisted and educated the users to use the system more efficiently and securely. ● Monitored and maintained the stability and security of the system. ● Headed the technical aspect of providing IT solutions for customers, including web applications and databases development - system analysis, architecture design, implementation, delivery, and support - contributing directly to the firm revenue.

♠☎☑☒✈♥⊆⊇↑↓↔⇒⇔→|&+