

ariadne

Ariadne was a spinner who fell in love with Theseus. As one version of her legend goes, when he went to slay the Minotaur in the Labyrinth, she gave him a sword and the red fleece thread that she was spinning; they helped him prevail, leading him back out safely.

Materials

- US 2.5/3mm set of 5 dpns or circular sufficient for magic loop (or size needed to obtain gauge)
- Buffalo Gold Earth (#3) Sport, 1 skein
- 4 or more stitch markers
- cable needle
- waste yarn for holding thumb sts

Gauge & Sizing

- Cable pattern width, relaxed (don't pull on them): 1.75" wide (charted sts 5-20)
- Chart repeat, relaxed (green box): 1.5" long
- Stockinette St: 11 sts x 19 rounds = 2"
- Finished dimensions: circumference at knuckles & relaxed approximately 6.5"(6", 7.25") aka regular(small, large)
- Length option: as written 6.75" or optional chart repeat for 8.25" long version adds length to wrist, not fingers

© Jonquil Mom Designs

2010