Introduction

This document contains the extendedPDF Open Edition macro, license details and installation instructions. For configuration, running and troubleshooting instructions please see the extendedPDF User Guide, available on our website.

About JDiSoftware Limited

JDiSoftware specialise in document processing software, but have experience in many other fields, from industrial automation to computer games. If you think that we might be able to help you, please contact us:

Before Installing

Before installing check and agree to the license conditions (the GPL version 2) reproduced at the end of this document. In particular, be aware of terms 11 and 12 - you use this software at your own risk.

There are separate instructions for Windows and UNIX/Linux users. Please follow the instructions appropriate for your platform.

Windows Users

PostScript Printer Driver

You will need a PostScript Printer Driver. We recommend the extendedPDF Printer Driver, available from <http://www.jdisoftware.co.uk/pages/psp-home.php>. This produces good-quality PDF when used in conjunction with OpenOffice.org and Ghostscript. This driver is available for Windows 2000 and Windows XP. Users on other operating systems will need to use another driver. One suggestion is the Apple Color LW 12/660 PS supplied with the Windows installation CD, although this driver can result in page size problems.

Instructions for the installation of the JDiSoftware PostScript Printer Driver can be found in Appendix 2.

Ghostscript

You will need to install Ghostscript. This can be obtained from a number of sources. However, for ease of installation we recommend the version available from JDiSoftware at <http://www.jdisoftware.co.uk/pages/gsi-home.php>.

Adobe Acrobat Reader / Adobe Acrobat

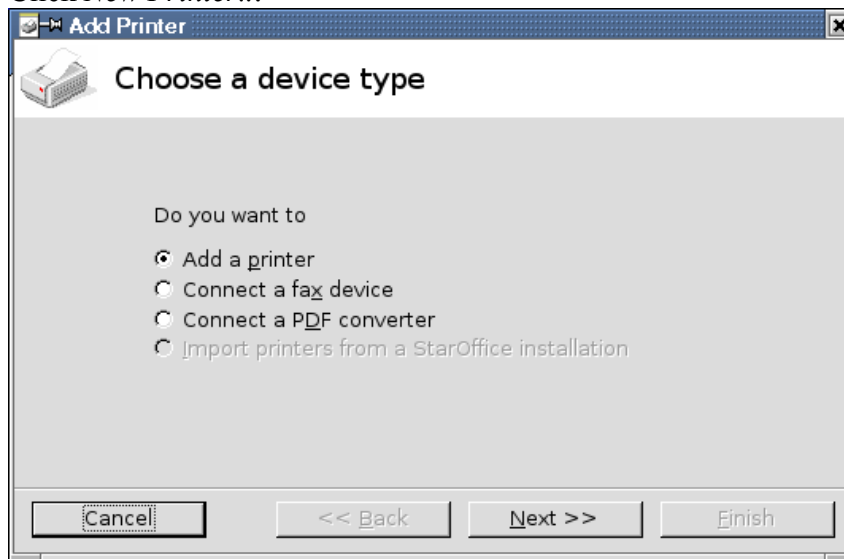

You will need a means of viewing the PDF files produced by extendedPDF. The best options are Adobe Acrobat Reader or Adobe Acrobat. Adobe Acrobat Reader is a free download from <http://www.adobe.com>.

UNIX/Linux Users

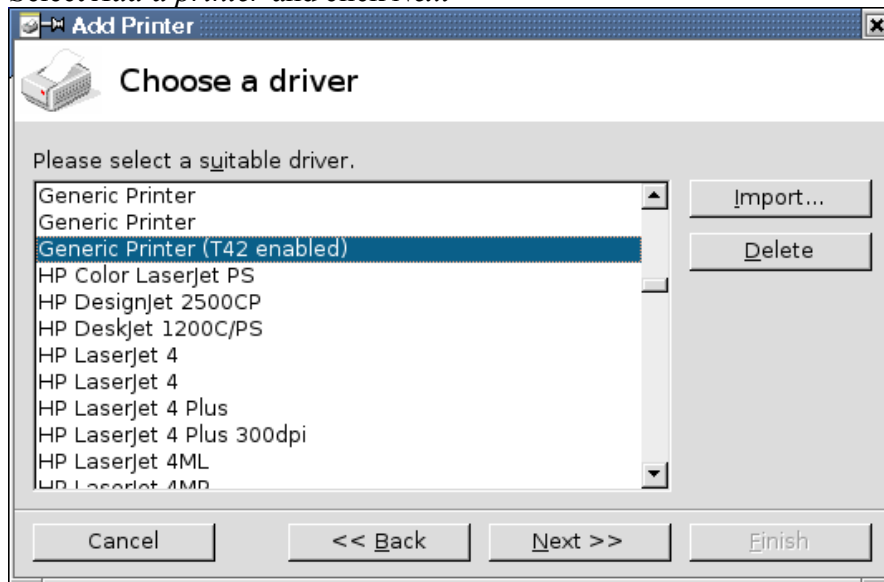

PostScript Printer Driver

Use the spadmin utility provided with StarOffice or OpenOffice.org to add a printer for extendedPDF to use.

1. Run spadmin from the command line to start the OpenOffice.org printer administration tool.
2. Click New Printer...

3. Select Add a printer and click Next >>

4. Select the driver called Generic Printer (T42 enabled) and click Next >>

5. The command line will not be used as this printer driver will always be printing to file. A safe command line to use is cat. Click Next >>.

6. You will be asked for a name for the printer. The name does not matter, as long as you can enter it accurately into the configuration dialog for extendedPDF. Here, we've used extendedPDF. Other alternatives might be ePDF or PDF. Once you've entered the printer's name click Finish.

You have now created the printer. You may wish to change some of the printer settings to improve the quality of your PDF files.

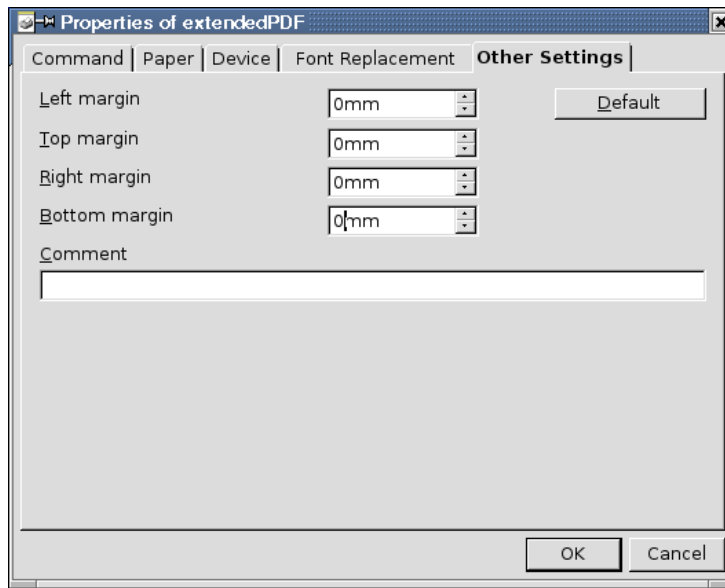

1. Select your newly installed printer from the list, then click Properties... from the Printer Administration dialog box.
2. Select the Device tab and increase the resolution to at least 600dpi. Change the Color setting to “Color”.

3. Select the Font tab and disable font replacement.

4. Select the Other Settings tab and make sure that all the margins are zero.

5. Now click OK to close the printer settings and click Close to close the Printer Administration dialog box.

Ghostscript

Almost all GNU/Linux systems have Ghostscript installed by default. If this is not the case you should be able to install the Ghostscript package from your distribution.

Ghostscript is also available from the following URLs:

- <http://www.ghostscript.com>,
- <http://www.cs.wisc.edu/~ghost/>
- http://sourceforge.net/project/showfiles.php?group_id=1897.

XPDF / Acrobat Reader

You will need an application to view the PDF files produced. extendedPDF will work with both Xpdf (provided as a package for most GNU/Linux distributions) or Acrobat Reader.

Xpdf is available from <http://www.foolabs.com/xpdf/>.

Acrobat Reader is available from <http://www.adobe.com>.

Installation

To install on both Windows and UNIX please follow the instructions overleaf.
The macro installation instructions based on the “Macro Libraries HOWTO” at <http://www.oocomacros.org>.

Configuration

See the extendedPDF User Guide, available on our website, for details of configuring and running extendedPDF.

Comments? Problems?

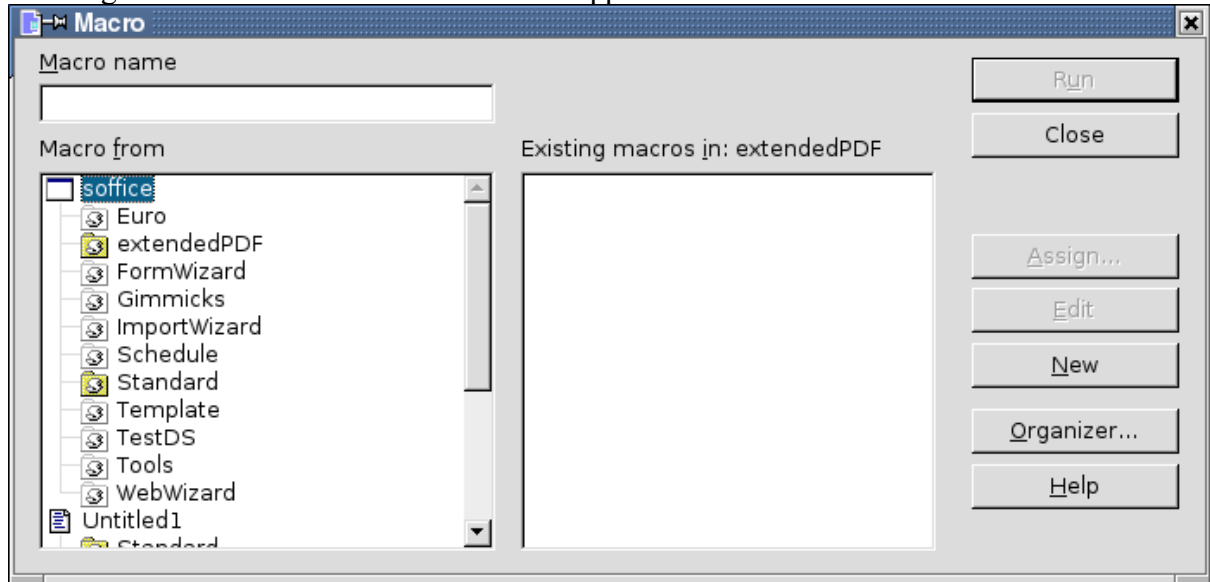

Please report problems or bugs to support@jdisoftware.co.uk.

Installation Instructions

To install the library from this document, carry out the following steps:

From the Tools menu, select Macros. From the sub-menu that appears, select Macro...

A dialogue box similar to the one below will appear:

Click on the Organizer... button, and a new dialogue box will appear.

In this new dialogue box, select the Libraries tab, and you will see something similar to the dialogue box below:

Make sure that "soffice" is selected in the Application/Document drop-down list, then click on the Append... button.

A standard file-selection box will appear. Select the file that contains the library you wish to import (extendedPDF.sxw), then click on OK.

A dialogue box will be displayed, showing the libraries in the document you just selected, as in the screenshot below:

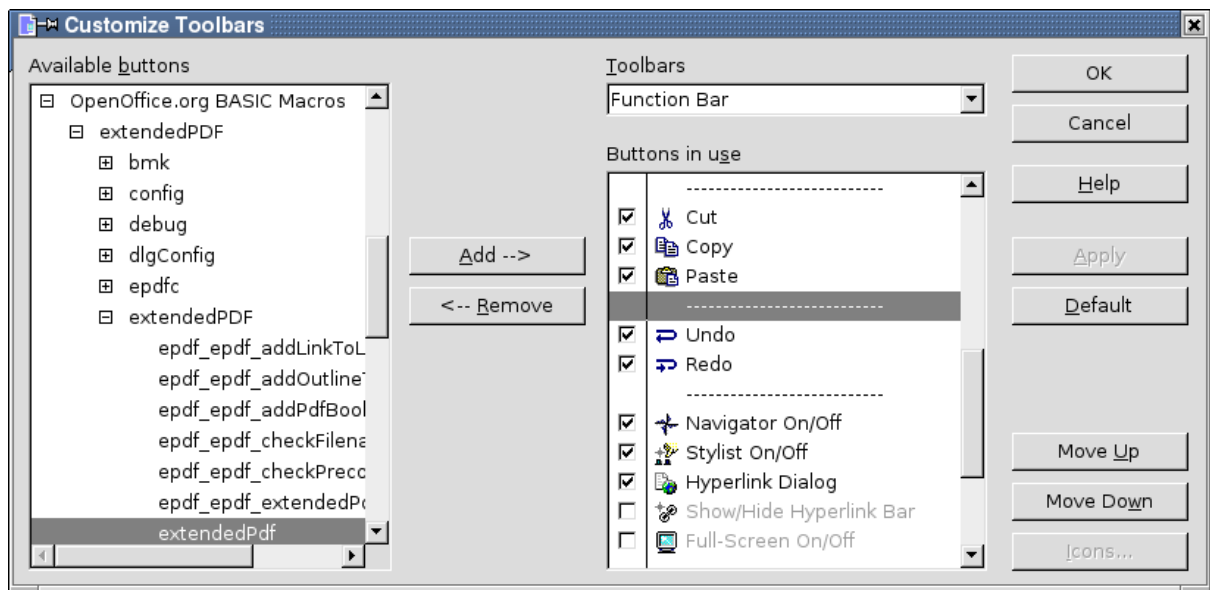

Make sure that only the libraries that you want to import are selected (in this case, you should only import "extendedPDF"), then click OK. If you have an existing version of extendedPDF then ensure that "Replace existing libraries" is selected.

Close the Macro Organizer dialogue box by clicking Close, then close the Macro dialogue box by clicking Close.

The library is now imported in OpenOffice.org and can be accessed from any OpenOffice.org module.

Assigning the "extendedPDF" macro to a toolbar button

To do this, right-click with the mouse over one of the toolbars and select Customize...
A dialogue box similar to the one below will be shown:

Make sure that Function Bar is selected in the Toolbars drop-down list, as above.
In the left-hand box (Available buttons), click on the + sign next to OpenOffice.org BASIC Macros to expand the list, then expand extendedPDF & extendedPDF
Select the extendedPDF macro and click on Add -->

The extendedPDF macro will now appear in the right-hand box (Buttons in use)
The buttons with ticks in the boxes are visible, those without ticks are not visible. Make sure extendedPDF has a tick, and use the Move Up and Move Down buttons to position it.
Clicking on the Icons... button will bring up a dialogue box from which an icon can be selected.

If you want to see how the new button looks, click on Apply to apply your changes. When you are done, click on OK to close the dialogue box.

Now, when you click on the new button, the "extendedPDF" macro will run and attempt to produce a PDF.

To remove the button, click on the <-- Remove button on the Customize Toolbars dialogue box. This will not remove the library or the macro, it will simply remove the button from the toolbar.

Removing a Library

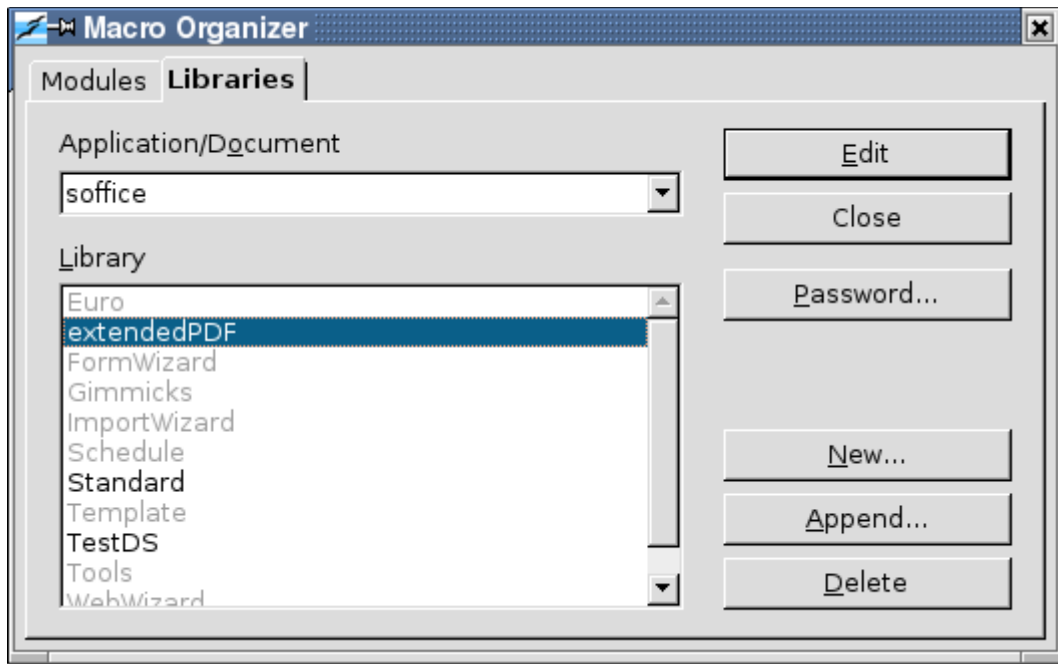

To remove the library, carry out the following steps:

From the Tools menu, select Macros. From the sub-menu that appears, select Macro...
Click on the Organizer... button, and a new dialogue box will appear.

In this new dialogue box, select the Libraries tab.

Make sure that "soffice" is selected in the Application/Document drop-down list.

Select the library that you wish to remove (in this case, extendedPDF) and click Delete

A dialogue box will appear, asking if you wish to delete this library. Click Yes
Close the Macro Organizer dialogue box by clicking Close, then close the Macro dialogue box by clicking Close.
The library has now been removed.

GNU GENERAL PUBLIC LICENSE

Version 2, June 1991

Copyright (C) 1989, 1991 Free Software Foundation, Inc.
59 Temple Place - Suite 330, Boston, MA 02111-1307, USA

Everyone is permitted to copy and distribute verbatim copies of this license document, but changing it is not allowed.

Preamble

The licenses for most software are designed to take away your freedom to share and change it. By contrast, the GNU General Public License is intended to guarantee your freedom to share and change free software--to make sure the software is free for all its users. This General Public License applies to most of the Free Software Foundation's software and to any other program whose authors commit to using it. (Some other Free Software Foundation software is covered by the GNU Library General Public License instead.) You can apply it to your programs, too.

When we speak of free software, we are referring to freedom, not price. Our General Public Licenses are designed to make sure that you have the freedom to distribute copies of free software (and charge for this service if you wish), that you receive source code or can get it if you want it, that you can change the software or use pieces of it in new free programs; and that you know you can do these things.

To protect your rights, we need to make restrictions that forbid anyone to deny you these rights or to ask you to surrender the rights. These restrictions translate to certain responsibilities for you if you distribute copies of the software, or if you modify it.

For example, if you distribute copies of such a program, whether gratis or for a fee, you must give the recipients all the rights that you have. You must make sure that they, too, receive or can get the source code. And you must show them these terms so they know their rights.

We protect your rights with two steps: (1) copyright the software, and (2) offer you this license which gives you legal permission to copy, distribute and/or modify the software.

Also, for each author's protection and ours, we want to make certain that everyone understands that there is no warranty for this free software. If the software is modified by someone else and passed on, we want its recipients to know that what they have is not the original, so that any problems introduced by others will not reflect on the original authors' reputations.

Finally, any free program is threatened constantly by software patents. We wish to avoid the danger that redistributors of a free program will individually obtain patent licenses, in effect making the program proprietary. To prevent this, we have made it clear that any patent must be licensed for everyone's free use or not licensed at all.

The precise terms and conditions for copying, distribution and modification follow.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR COPYING, DISTRIBUTION AND MODIFICATION

0. This License applies to any program or other work which contains a notice placed by the copyright holder saying it may be distributed under the terms of this General Public License. The "Program", below, refers to any such program or work, and a "work based on the Program" means either the Program or any derivative work under copyright law: that is to say, a work containing the Program or a portion of it, either verbatim or with modifications and/or translated into another language. (Hereinafter, translation is included without limitation in the term "modification".) Each licensee is addressed as "you".

Activities other than copying, distribution and modification are not covered by this License; they are outside its scope. The act of running the Program is not restricted, and the output from the Program is covered only if its contents constitute a work based on the Program (independent of having been made by running the Program). Whether that is true depends on what the Program does.

1. You may copy and distribute verbatim copies of the Program's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you conspicuously and appropriately publish on each copy an appropriate copyright notice and disclaimer of warranty; keep intact all the notices that refer to this License and to the absence of any warranty; and give any other recipients of the Program a copy of this License along with the Program.

You may charge a fee for the physical act of transferring a copy, and you may at your option offer warranty protection in exchange for a fee.

2. You may modify your copy or copies of the Program or any portion of it, thus forming a work based on the Program, and copy and distribute such modifications or work under the terms of Section 1 above, provided that you also meet all of these conditions:

- a) You must cause the modified files to carry prominent notices stating that you changed the files and the date of any change.
- b) You must cause any work that you distribute or publish, that in whole or in part contains or is derived from the Program or any part thereof, to be licensed as a whole at no charge to all third parties under the terms of this License.
- c) If the modified program normally reads commands interactively when run, you must cause it, when started running for such interactive use in the most ordinary way, to print or display an announcement including an appropriate copyright notice and a notice that there is no warranty (or else, saying that you provide a warranty) and that users may redistribute the program under these conditions, and telling the user how to view a copy of this License. (Exception: if the Program itself is interactive but does not normally print such an announcement, your work based on the Program is not required to print an announcement.)

These requirements apply to the modified work as a whole. If identifiable sections of that work are not derived from the Program, and can be reasonably considered independent and separate works in themselves, then this License, and its terms, do not apply to those sections when you distribute them as separate works. But when you distribute the same sections as part of a whole which is a work based on the Program, the distribution of the whole must be on the terms of this License, whose permissions for other licensees extend to the entire whole, and thus to each and every part regardless of who wrote it.

Thus, it is not the intent of this section to claim rights or contest your rights to work written entirely by you; rather, the intent is to exercise the right to control the distribution of derivative or collective works based on the Program.

In addition, mere aggregation of another work not based on the Program with the Program (or with a work based on the Program) on a volume of a storage or distribution medium does not bring the other work under the scope of this License.

3. You may copy and distribute the Program (or a work based on it, under Section 2) in object code or executable form under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above provided that you also do one of the following:

- a) Accompany it with the complete corresponding machine-readable source code, which must be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,

- b) Accompany it with a written offer, valid for at least three years, to give any third party, for a charge no more than your cost of physically performing source distribution, a complete machine-readable copy of the corresponding source code, to be distributed under the terms of Sections 1 and 2 above on a medium customarily used for software interchange; or,
- c) Accompany it with the information you received as to the offer to distribute corresponding source code. (This alternative is allowed only for noncommercial distribution and only if you received the program in object code or executable form with such an offer, in accord with Subsection b above.)

The source code for a work means the preferred form of the work for making modifications to it. For an executable work, complete source code means all the source code for all modules it contains, plus any associated interface definition files, plus the scripts used to control compilation and installation of the executable. However, as a special exception, the source code distributed need not include anything that is normally distributed (in either source or binary form) with the major components (compiler, kernel, and so on) of the operating system on which the executable runs, unless that component itself accompanies the executable.

If distribution of executable or object code is made by offering access to copy from a designated place, then offering equivalent access to copy the source code from the same place counts as distribution of the source code, even though third parties are not compelled to copy the source along with the object code.

4. You may not copy, modify, sublicense, or distribute the Program except as expressly provided under this License. Any attempt otherwise to copy, modify, sublicense or distribute the Program is void, and will automatically terminate your rights under this License. However, parties who have received copies, or rights, from you under this License will not have their licenses terminated so long as such parties remain in full compliance.

5. You are not required to accept this License, since you have not signed it. However, nothing else grants you permission to modify or distribute the Program or its derivative works. These actions are prohibited by law if you do not accept this License. Therefore, by modifying or distributing the Program (or any work based on the Program), you indicate your acceptance of this License to do so, and all its terms and conditions for copying, distributing or modifying the Program or works based on it.

6. Each time you redistribute the Program (or any work based on the Program), the recipient automatically receives a license from the original licensor to copy, distribute or modify the Program subject to these terms and conditions. You may not impose any further restrictions on the recipients' exercise of the rights granted herein. You are not responsible for enforcing compliance by third parties to this License.

7. If, as a consequence of a court judgment or allegation of patent infringement or for any other reason (not limited to patent issues), conditions are imposed on you (whether by court order, agreement or otherwise) that contradict the conditions of this License, they do not excuse you from the conditions of this License. If you cannot distribute so as to satisfy simultaneously your obligations under this License and any other pertinent obligations, then as a consequence you may not distribute the Program at all. For example, if a patent license would not permit royalty-free redistribution of the Program by all those who receive copies directly or indirectly through you, then the only way you could satisfy both it and this License would be to refrain entirely from distribution of the Program.

If any portion of this section is held invalid or unenforceable under any particular circumstance, the balance of the section is intended to apply and the section as a whole is intended to apply in other circumstances.

It is not the purpose of this section to induce you to infringe any patents or other property right claims or to contest validity of any such claims; this section has the sole purpose of protecting the integrity of the free software distribution system, which is implemented by public license practices. Many people have made generous contributions to the wide range of software distributed through that system in reliance on consistent application of that system; it is up to the author/donor to decide if he or she is willing to distribute software through any other system and a licensee cannot impose that choice.

This section is intended to make thoroughly clear what is believed to be a consequence of the rest of this License.

8. If the distribution and/or use of the Program is restricted in certain countries either by patents or by copyrighted interfaces, the original copyright holder who places the Program under this License may add an explicit geographical distribution limitation excluding those countries, so that distribution is permitted only in or among countries not thus excluded. In such case, this License incorporates the limitation as if written in the body of this License.

9. The Free Software Foundation may publish revised and/or new versions of the General Public License from time to time. Such new versions will be similar in spirit to the present version, but may differ in detail to address new problems or concerns.

Each version is given a distinguishing version number. If the Program specifies a version number of this License which applies to it and "any later version", you have the option of following the terms and conditions either of that version or of any later version published by the Free Software Foundation. If the Program does not specify a version number of this License, you may choose any version ever published by the Free Software Foundation.

10. If you wish to incorporate parts of the Program into other free programs whose distribution conditions are different, write to the author to ask for permission. For software which is copyrighted by the Free Software Foundation, write to the Free Software Foundation; we sometimes make exceptions for this. Our decision will be guided by the two goals of preserving the free status of all derivatives of our free software and of promoting the sharing and reuse of software generally.

NO WARRANTY

11. BECAUSE THE PROGRAM IS LICENSED FREE OF CHARGE, THERE IS NO WARRANTY FOR THE PROGRAM, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW. EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE STATED IN WRITING THE COPYRIGHT HOLDERS AND/OR OTHER PARTIES PROVIDE THE PROGRAM "AS IS" WITHOUT WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. THE ENTIRE RISK AS TO THE QUALITY AND PERFORMANCE OF THE PROGRAM IS WITH YOU. SHOULD THE PROGRAM PROVE DEFECTIVE, YOU ASSUME THE COST OF ALL NECESSARY SERVICING, REPAIR OR CORRECTION.

12. IN NO EVENT UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING WILL ANY COPYRIGHT HOLDER, OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO MAY MODIFY AND/OR REDISTRIBUTE THE PROGRAM AS PERMITTED ABOVE, BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR DAMAGES, INCLUDING ANY GENERAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF THE USE OR INABILITY TO USE THE PROGRAM (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF DATA OR DATA BEING RENDERED INACCURATE OR LOSSES SUSTAINED BY

YOU OR THIRD PARTIES OR A FAILURE OF THE PROGRAM TO OPERATE WITH ANY OTHER PROGRAMS), EVEN IF SUCH HOLDER OR OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.
