

James L. Gorham Sr

June 4, 1931 - May 10, 2020

JAMES LESLIE GORHAM, SR. was born to the late Jack and Emma Gorham on June 4, 1931 in Farmville, North Carolina. After a good fought fight, James departed this life on My 10, 2020.

James, Sr. a native of Farmville, North Carolina was the fifth child of 16 siblings. He received his formal education in the public schools of North Carolina. He served in the United Sate Army where he ended his tenure with an honorable discharge. He settled in Maryland where he met and married the late Anna Gorham. From this 49-year union they had one son.

James, Sr. was a hard worker and determined to excel in life. He became a Fireman Pump Operator for the Baltimore City Fire Department House #21 where he served for 35 years before retirement. After his retirement from his service as a fireman, James, Sr. became employed by Sears, Roebuck and Company as a mechanic and retired after 32 years of employment. Amongst his professions James, Sr. still had time for real estate.

James, Sr. was a God-fearing man and was a member of Wayland Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Hoffman F. Brown, III.

When time permitted from the hard works of life, James, Sr. enjoyed spending time with family and friends caring and sharing in any way that he could. Because of his adventurous side, he obtained his boating license and purchased his boat "Happy Wanderer" where he enjoyed the relaxation of fishing and cruising life on the bay.

His father, mother, wife, nine brothers, three sisters, preceded him in death.

James, Sr. leaves to cherish his memory, one son, James, Jr.; two grandsons, Antione and Elijah; one granddaughter, Lashawnda; three great-grandsons, Jerell, Jaylen and Adonis; one great-granddaughter Ariree; one brother, Richard; three sisters, Ruby, Jean and Joeann and a congregation of relatives and friends.
