

I thank you fpr the opportunity to respond.I'm fifty nine years old and it think that pilots can be trusted and should be used , fire arms are just another tool that they have a choice to use if needed.I think that just the KNOWING that pilots are armed is a great determent.I'm all for it and I know that there will training .So please let them have and carry fire arm.