Daily Quote...

"After six months of presidential speeches, town meetings and maneuvering over White House plans to overhaul Social Security, Republicans are coming to grips with an unpleasant reality: The central pillars of President Bush's proposal have crumbled on Capitol Hill. . . . 'I had hoped there would be, after four months, a firestorm of support for accounts, especially among young people,' said Senate Finance Committee Chairman Charles E. Grassley (R-Iowa). 'It's not there. I'm very disappointed.'"
