EVENING AT FORSYTHE

7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. - Wednesday, April 2, 2008

Edwin B. Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge
800 Great Creek Road, Oceanville

“Take a Walk on the Wild Side”

Spring Peepers signal the end of a long winter hibernation and the coming of Spring. Join Wildlife Biologist Vinny Turner for an evening walk through the refuge. We'll listen to identify various species of frogs and toads, and mating calls of the American Woodcock and Whip-por-will.

The program is presented by the Friends of Forsythe on the first Wednesday of each month. The programs are free and open to the public. For additional information, please call Ed Jones at 609-748-1535.
