§ 1228.120 Authority.

The Archivist of the United States will issue regulations governing the transfer of records from the custody of one executive agency to another (44 U.S.C. 2908).

§ 1228.122 Approval.

No records shall be transferred from the custody of one executive agency to another without the prior written approval of the National Archives and Records Administration except as provided in § 1228.136.

§ 1228.124 Agency request.

The head of any executive agency may request the transfer of records to or from his or her agency. Approval shall be requested by letter addressed to the NARA (NWML), in which are included:

(a) A concise description of the records to be transferred, including the volume in cubic feet;

(b) A statement of the restrictions imposed on the use of records;

(c) A statement of the agencies and persons using the records and the purpose of this use;

(d) A statement of the current and proposed physical and organizational locations of the records; and

(e) A justification for the transfer including an explanation of why it is in the best interests of the Government.
