I am responding both as a health care professional and as an individual. I was recently shocked to find out that my recent level III dental work was denied by my insurance due to a benefit waiting period of 12 months. I was particularly frustrated by this as I have had consecutive dental coverage for more than 10 years but had to change plans recently due to a job change. This is a fundamental problem with health benefited tied to one's job. Even though I have been paying for dental benefits for many years I am now stuck with what I expect will be a $1000 bill. I am curious to understand what the HIPAA implications are. Thank you for looking into this matter.
