

I support the proposed merger between xm and sirius. I am concerned if the merger doesn't happen there is risk we could lose both companies and they currently offer an unequaled, vast and rich variety of programs that mirrors all aspects of our society. Secondly, in a rural area we are limited to our choices to cell phones, ipods or regular terrestrial radio and satellite radio expands our options.