

Ohatchee vicinity. FORT STROTHER SITE, On the Coosa River, 0.5 mi. SE of H. Neely Henry Dam, 1813-1815. No visible remains of most important of several forts and depots built in upstate AL by Gen. Andrew Jackson during the Creek Wars of 1813-1814. Served as base for several of the victorious battles, including the battle of Horseshoe Bend, which broke the power of the Creek Nation and opened up large areas of GA and AL for settlement. Private.
