

Atlanta. EMORY UNIVERSITY DISTRICT, N. Decatur Rd., 1915. University complex including classroom, library, and administration buildings of primarily reinforced concrete faced with multicolor marble slabs and terra cotta decoration; notable are the law school and theology buildings designed by Henry Hornbostel the Candler Library designed by Edward Tilton and Glenn Memorial Church and Little Chapel designed by the firm of Hentz-Adler-Shutze. Neo-Classical Revival elements. Quadrangle and ground plan designed by Henry Hornbostel; initially established to promote Christian education by Asa Griggs Candler with an endowment from his Coca-Cola fortune. Private.