

Tate vicinity. TATE HOUSE (PINK PALACE), E of Tate on Hwy. 53, 1923, Walker and Weeks, architects. Pink and white marble, 2 stories, rectangular, hipped roof, 2 interior chimneys, pedimented tetrastyle front entrance portico, slightly projecting rear pedimented section with 1-story portico, NE 5-sided enclosed porch with fanlights and French doors, simple treatment of lintels and entablature; interior features excellent mural wallpaper and parquet marble floors. Neo-Classical Revival. Built for Samuel Tate from marble supplied by his successful Georgia Marble Co. Private.