

Glenn Research Center

Space Station Fluids and Combustion Facility

FCF Electrical Power Control Unit Hybrid Switch Technology

Hybrid switches developed by FCF with Sundstrand are next generation current limiting power switches that solve many issues relating to Space Station, Satellite, Aircraft, and other aerospace power switching applications. They are being considered for TransHab, Russian equipment, and other aerospace applications besides FCF.