DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of September, 2002.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or sub-division have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-41,477; Volex, Inc., Dartmouth, MA

TA-W-41,571; FCI USA, Inc., Communications, Data and Consumer Div (CDC), Fiber Optics Group, A Member of The Areva Group, Etters, PA

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a), Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the months of September, 2002.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of Section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) That imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increased imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) That there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

ADC Telecommunications, Minnetonka, MN; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on August 19, 2002 in response to a worker petition, which was filed on behalf of workers at ADC Telecommunications, Minnetonka, Minnesota.

An active certification covering the petitioning group of workers remains in effect (TA-W-40,300). Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 17th day of September, 2002.

Ansewn Footwear, Bangor, ME; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 27, 2002, applicable to workers of Ansewn Footwear, Bangor, Maine. The notice will be published soon in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce footwear and leather belts.

New findings show that there was a previous certification, TA-W-36,066, issued on June 17, 1999, for workers of Ansewn Footwear, Bangor, Maine who were engaged in employment related to the production of footwear and leather belts. That certification expired June 17, 2001. To avoid an overlap in worker group coverage, the certification is being amended to change the impact date from February 4, 2001 to June 18, 2001, for workers of the subject firm.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-41,068 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Ansewn Footwear, Bangor, Maine, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 18, 2001, through August 27, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 10th day of September, 2002.

The Boeing Company; Boeing Defense and Space Group; Commercial Airplane Group, Corinth, TX; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 18, 2002, applicable to workers of The Boeing Company, Commercial Airplane Group, Corinth, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 29, 2002 (67 FR 49039-49040).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of large commercial aircraft and the components thereof.

New information shows that workers of the Corinth, Texas location of the Commercial Airplane Group of The Boeing Company, are part of the Boeing Defense and Space Group of The Boeing Company. Information also shows that workers at the Corinth, Texas location that were separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account for The Boeing Company, Boeing Defense and Space Group, Commercial Airplane Group.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of The Boeing Company, Boeing Defense and Space Group, Commercial Airplane Group who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-40,525E is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of The Boeing Company, Boeing Defense and Space Group, Commercial Airplane Group, Corinth, Texas (TA-W-40,525E) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 18, 2000, through March 18, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
