

SABIT GROUP PROGRAM

DAIRY PROCESSING AND PACKAGING FOR WESTERN EURASIA AND THE CAUCASUS AUGUST 20 – SEPTEMBER 17, 2005

PROGRAM TOPICS

Dairy Topics

New Processing Methods
 Canning and Solid Container Technology
 Packaging and Packaging Materials
 Labeling (Packaging Production, Equipment and Promotion)
 Aseptic and New Packaging Methods/Advances
 Raw Materials Supply, Scheduling, Handling and Storage
 Sanitary Plant and Product Provisions, Product Preservation
 Dairy Product Testing
 Lab procedures, Plant Based Research Methods
 Processing Equipment Types, Use and Acquisition, Spare Parts Supply
 Water and Energy Usage
 Technical Issues of Sewage and Environmental Protection
 Plant Labor, Process Planning, Daily Management, Safety and Health Provisions
 Final Product Handling, Cooling, Storage and Shipping Methods
 Dairy Cooperatives, Associations and their Role
 Children's Dairy Products
 Medicinal and Dietetic Products
 Specialty Dairy Products
 Dairy Farms
 Milk Parlors
 Milk Drying
 Animal Husbandry

Business Topics

Human Resource Management
 Distributor and Wholesale Network
 Retail Outlets and Direct Sales Methods
 Sales, Advertising and Marketing Methods
 Quality Assurance and Guarantees
 Consumer Habits, Shopping Behavior/Responses/Demands
 Co-Pack Agreements
 Project Management
 Vendor Cooperation

Regulatory Topics

FDA/USDA/EPA Regulations, Food Safety Auditing
 HACCP
 Licensing
 Standards in Dairy Processing
 Legal Responsibilities
 Lobbying
 Coding, Labeling, Marking, Product Expiration Dating

Host companies are invited to discuss these and other topics related to dairy packaging and processing

For more details on specific interests, or to learn how you can participate, please contact:

Erin Crouch

(202) 482- 6435

Erin_Crouch@ita.doc.gov

