

I would support an increase in the part 103 weight limit for ultralight vehicles. As a trike pilot, I find that use of a radio greatly increases safety. The weight of a radio, antenna, cables, battery, etc. adds up. Also, I use a GPS to compare air speed to ground speed to determine wind direction and strength. These add weight. A small increase in the weight allowance would greatly benefit the safety of operation.