

Good, solid preaching is hard to come by these days. The last thing Christians need is forced compromise of Biblical principles and fundamentals. Attend a fundamental baptist church service for yourselves to see outstandingly high moral values in action. Reconsider your proposals for your posterity as well.