RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

U.S. SECURITIES AND

EXCHANGE COMMISSION
ADOPTION OF RULE 12g-1 AND RULE AMENDMENTS

The Commission has announced the adoption of a new rule and rule amendments which exempt a class of smaller issuers from the registration and reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Under new Rule 12g-1, a company will not have to register under Section 12(g) until it has total assets of $3 million or more and 500 or more record holders of its equity securities. Under amendments to Rules 12g-4 and 15d-6, a company may terminate or suspend its reporting obligations under the Exchange Act if it has less than $3 million in total assets for each of its last three fiscal years and fewer than 500 shareholders. The new provision suspending the reporting obligation under Section 15(d) is not available to an issuer for any year in which it has a registration statement become effective or in the two succeeding years. The rule and amendments became effective April 15. Rule 12g-1 is effective for issuers whose fiscal years ended on or after December 20, 1981. (Rel. 34-18647)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

JOHN P. HUBERTY BARRED

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the imposition of remedial sanctions against John P. Huberty of Minnetonka, Minnesota. Huberty was formerly a registered representative with a registered broker-dealer, located in Minneapolis, Minnesota from October 1978 to June 1980.

The Commission accepted an offer of settlement, submitted by Huberty in anticipation of these proceedings, by which he consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to findings and remedial sanctions. The Commission found that Huberty wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws during the period from in or about October 1978 to in or about June 1980 in that he engaged in a fraudulent scheme by which he obtained and converted to his own use approximately $1,200,000 in customer funds and about $100,000 of customer bearer bonds and made untrue statements of and omitted to state material facts concerning the purported purchase of securities. The Commission also found that Huberty was permanently enjoined on June 4, 1981 in SEC v. John P. Huberty, Civil Action No. 4-80-330 (D. Minn., filed June 13, 1980) from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Simultaneously with the institution of these proceedings, the Commission barred Huberty from association with any broker-dealer, investment adviser, or investment company or affiliate thereof. (Rel. 34-18622)
