- Complete set of BDU's with cap and boots (Balloon cadets may wish to bring additional uniforms as this is their uniform of the day)
- Athletic shoes
- Civilian clothes for free time activities
- EIU will provide 2 sheets, towels, pillow and a blanket. You may want to bring a washcloth.
- Bring your own soap, shampoo and toiletries
- Alarm Clock. Cadets will be expected to get up time without the assistance of staff
- Notebook and Pen/Pencil
- Canteen (Required)
- Sunglasses (Highly recommended)
- Pilot/Student logbook
- Some spending money (i.e. for movie night)
- SUN BLOCK SPF 15 or higher (Required)
- Please use common sense when packing. Weather can range from the low 50's to the high 90's.
- Encampment T-Shirts, shorts, and hat will be issued to each cadet and will be the uniform of the week (encampment uniform) for power and glider cadets. Cadets will not wear flight suites or jump suites at Johnson Flight Encampment. Balloon cadets will wear BDU's. The encampment uniform will be worn with gym shoes.

Power Encampment

- Cadets will wear the Encampment Uniform
- IF YOU PLAN TO SOLO YOU MUST BRING A CURRENT FAA THIRD CLASS MEDICAL/STUDENT PILOT CERTIFICATE. If you do not plan to solo then this item is not necessary. A FAA medical certificate may only be obtained by a FAA Aviation Medical Examiner. Make sure you receive the yellow Student Pilot Certificate. If you do not know where to find the nearest FAA medical examiner, ask your local flight school at the local airport. The FAA FSDO will issue a student pilot certificate at no cost (you will need an appointment a head of time so be sure and call a head).

Glider Encampment

- Cadets will wear the Encampment Uniform
- IF YOU PLAN TO SOLO YOU MUST BRING A STUDENT PILOT CERTIFICATE. This can be obtained at the FAA FSDO, any designated pilot examiner and some medical examiners. This only applies to Advanced Glider.

Balloon Encampment

- BDU Uniform with long sleeves (Mandatory!)
- One pair of leather work gloves
- Though not required, you may bring a current FAA Third Class Medical/Student Pilot Certificate if in your possession

Note: All CAP Grooming Standards will be enforced. Cadets and Seniors (wearing military style uniforms) who do not conform to CAP Grooming Standards will be sent home.
