

Upcoming German-American

Events

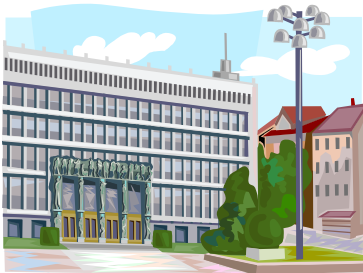

For expatriates who are new to our Consular District, or for anyone interested in meeting us away from the Consulate and getting some helpful information on our services in a relaxed environment, there are several opportunities coming up this quarter.

Düsseldorf's Newcomers Festival, Sunday, November 4, 2007, from 1200 – 1700. The Festival will be held at Rheinterrasse, on the banks of the Rhein River near the old city. Like the Frankfurt event, exhibitors will be on hand to help you with settling in to Germany and understanding the lifestyle. We'll be there, too. The Düsseldorf's Festival web site can be found here.

Saarbrücken German-American Day, Friday, October 5, 2007, the Deutsch-Amerikanisches Institut in Saarbrücken is holding its annual German-American day with several events planned. For more information, click here.

Consulate General Frankfurt American Citizen Information Night

Thursday, November 15, 2007, from 1700-1900. The American Citizen Services Unit is hosting an information night for all American citizens at the Consulate. If you have questions concerning passport renewal, how to document your child's birth abroad, or obtain a U.S. immigrant visa for your foreign-born spouse, this is the event to attend. We can also help you register to vote or request an absentee ballot, provide information concerning English-speaking physicians and attorneys, etc. If you're in the area that evening, please plan to stop by to meet fellow Americans and the Consulate staff who serve you.

Consulate General Frankfurt Information and Resources

Internet Information Kiosks have been installed in our Atrium. They're connected to the internet, and you can access any ".gov" website, and print out the documents you need. For example – you can fill out and print your passport application, register your presence in Germany at www.travel.state.gov, review possible travel warnings for the countries you're planning to visit, request an absentee ballot, etc.

Consulate "Closed" Dates: The Consulate is closed on all German and American holidays, and closed for customer service on the last Thursday of each month. Upcoming dates include:
