Dear FCC:

To Whom it may concern,

As a consumer I hope that there is no hang up in the ongoing FCC investigation to the XM-Sirius merger. As a paying consumer I would love to enjoy all the programming under one umbrella and one company. If this continues to go without an end, then only the consumers pay for it by having to purchase two radios and two subscriptions. Please help us out by putting an end to this and getting these two companies together so that the consumers can get their money worth.

Sincerely,

Phillip Skeens
