Dear FCC:

Hi. My name is Richard Halpern, an avid Sirius listener. I 100% support the merger between Sirius and XM. I believe that:

1) It will give me better programming options for a lesser amount of money
2) There is plenty of competition in the audio market place (ipods, terrestrial radio, cds, internet radio, etc), to see that this merger does not constitute a monopoly. 3) These companies are losing money. I cannot see how there can be a monopoly if someone is losing money. 4) The fact that the NAB is so against this merger, tells me, that the merger will compete with them. So, this will make the airwaves a more fair marketplace for the consumer.

Please, I implore you to accept this merger. I really would like to save money and have more choices, when listening to satellite radio.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Richard Halpern
