COMMITTEE FOR THE STUDY OF WAR DOCUMENTS

GUIDES TO GERMAN RECORDS MICROFILMED AT ALEXANDRIA, VA.

This is part of a series of guides prepared by the American Historical Association listing records microfilmed at Alexandria, Va., by the American Historical Association Microfilming Project.

An American Committee for the Study of War Documents was established in 1955 as a private group of scholars interested in documentary research and especially in the microfilming of records of foreign origin kept in American depositories. In 1956, the American Committee became a committee of the American Historical Association. Its present chairman is Professor Oron J. Hale, University of Virginia, who was preceded by Dean Reginald H. Phelps, Harvard University, and Professor Lynn M. Case, The University of Pennsylvania. An initial Ford Foundation grant and additional funds provided by the Old Dominion Foundation, the Lilly Endowment and the Avalon Foundation enabled the Committee to undertake the cataloguing and microfilming of declassified German records in the custody of the World War II Records Division of the National Archives (previously TAGO, Departmental Records Branch), at Alexandria, Virginia.

The plans for screening and microfilming these materials were prepared by a Subcommittee on Microfilming under the chairmanship to the end of 1956 of Professor E. Malcolm Carroll, Duke University, and his successor, Dr. Fritz T. Epstein, The Library of Congress. The microfilming team in Alexandria, Virginia, was under the direction of Professor Gerhard L. Weinberg of the University of Michigan in 1956/57, of Dr. Dagmar Horna Perman from 1957 to September 1959, of Mr. James G. McDowell from September 1959 to August 1960, and is now under the supervision of Dr. Willard Allen Fletcher of the University of Colorado.

The American Historical Association expresses its appreciation for the cooperation given to its Committee for the Study of War Documents by the staff of the National Archives, especially its World War II Records Division, and by the U.S. Department of the Army.

This Guide is one of a series of finding aids describing those declassified seized German records deposited at the World War II Records Division, National Archives, which have been microfilmed by the Microfilming Project of the Committee for the Study of War Documents of the American Historical Association. This Guide contains the text of data sheets identifying records filmed. A copy of the data sheets has been filmed as a target sheet at the beginning of each roll of film.

This Guide covers 83 rolls of film on which are reproduced part of the records known as the Miscellaneous German Records Collection. Among them are highly interesting files of private papers and diaries of leading personalities in the Third Reich, to wit, Goebbels, Blomberg, Halder, Jodl, Rommel and others. The Project also filmed the Hitler Manuscript discovered in Alexandria and recently published by the Institut für Zeitgeschichte in Munich as Hitlers Zweites Buch. The researcher's attention is also drawn to the Groscurth Papers, a very significant source for the history of the opposition. Additional memoranda and correspondence pertain to such events as the Kapp Putsch, Gröner's resignation and the political events of 1932, the July Plot, the surrender of the German Armed Forces and the activities of the Dönitz government in Flensburg. However, the bulk of the files deals with matters of war production, economic warfare, industrial resources, slave labor, public health, sterilization, medical experiments, military legal affairs, isolated events in military campaigns, fortifications, and other topics.

The terms "Serial" and "Roll" in this Guide refer to the sequence of the film. The "Item" number is the identification symbol on the original folder within the captured records collection. "Provenance" indicates, where ascertainable, the archival origins of the documents whose description follows. The symbol "FT" means that the folder has been filmed throughout, the symbol "FS" denotes that the folder has been filmed selectively. "1st frame" gives the frame number of the first page of the folder. Every exposure has been given a frame number consecutively throughout the filming operation. German file numbers, whenever ascertainable, have also been included. The "Notes" provide a general idea of the nature of the materials but should not be taken as exhaustive descriptions. The researcher is urged to check the entire Guide.

The original records have been restituted to the Federal Republic of West Germany. The microfilms are deposited in the National Archives, Washington 25, D.C., as microcopy T-84, rolls RL49-192 and 229-267, and should be requested by adding "T-84" to the rolls desired. The descriptions were prepared by Dr. Gerhard Weinberg, Dr. Bernice Carroll, Mr. Robert Wolfe, Dr. Willard Allen Fletcher and Dr. Miriam Haskett.

205	188	Oberst von Tempelhoff	EAP 21-c-12/5e	FT	no frames	This folder is made up of a variety of odds and ends of differing provenances. A few items apparently come from the files of the Generalmajor Tempelhoff whose papers are in EAP 21-c-12/5a-d. Then there are some blowups from microfilms of German foreign ministry documents pertaining to Auslandspropaganda about German total war measures in 1943. There are some items about World War I. Most of the documents apparently are from the files of another von Tempelhoff, a German general staff officer of World War II who rose to the rank of Oberst i. G. and was for a time Ia (G-3) of Heeresgruppe B. These papers include some extremely interesting items on the fighting on the Eastern Front, including the Stalingrad campaign, the fighting and command problems in Italy in 1943-44, the disaster of the German Army Group Center in the East in July 1944, and other materials. This file was filmed by the World War II Records Division, there are no frame numbers.

Some of the sheets in this folder have headings like "Einzelpunkte für Führervortrag." The whole collection would seem to be well worth deciphering. It is clearly complementary to the "Diary." In some respects it may have provided the raw material for it. It has much more detail, particularly military detail. On the other hand, the diary has items missing here, quite apart from the few short chronological gaps of this folder (whose chronological order is not consistently perfect). Entries for the last few days before Halder's dismissal (and the end of these notes) are typed and have handwritten marginalia in long- and shorthand. There is also a penciled message from Keitel to Chef Generalstab des Heeres (May 5, 1942). This folder was filmed by the World War II Records Division; there are no frame numbers.

246	229	Groscurth, Obstlt.i.G., O Qu IV Abt.z.b.V.		FT	no frames	The Groscurth Papers, consisting of three files, were brought together by Oberstleutnant Groscurth, a member of the German General Staff who was active in those military circles which attempted the overthrow of the Nazi Regime in 1944. Groscurth was chief of the section for special tasks in Oberquartiermeister IV, Generalstab des Heeres. He was a close associate of Beck, Oster and Canaris until his death in Russian captivity after the battle of Stalingrad. The papers are thus of limited value as far as the history of the July attempt is concerned. The descriptions below offer a general survey of the collection. The three folders have been filmed by the World War II Records Division, National Archives, on one roll of microfilm, original number MR 2091.

246	229	Groscurth, Obstlt.i.G., O Qu IV Abt. z.b.V.	EAP 21-x-15/1	FT	no frames	This folder contains a variety of items for the period from October 1939 to January 1940. The items are copies of letters, memoranda, reports on matters pertaining to political affairs, military operations, foreign affairs, etc. Each item is preceded by a typewritten analysis in English. Among the more interesting materials are: "Aktenvermerk: über die Besprechung im Führerzug am 12.9.1939 in Illnau," attended by Hitler, Ribbentrop, Keitel and Canaris, and dealing with the future of the Polish state; report of an eye-witness to the death of Col. Gen. Fritsch; summaries of the talks carried on between Göring and a Swedish middleman relative to peace with England; digest of Hitler's speech before German generals on 23 November 1939; reports on SS brutalities in the Warthegau of 2 December 1939; report on conversation between Helldorf, Groscurth, and Oster dealing with the growing influence of the SS and public opinion in the Berlin area; correspondence between the Evangelical Church Council and the OKH in which the church authorities ask the military to intercede with the political authorities in order to end the latter's hostile attitude toward the Church; list of clergymen imprisoned or otherwise persecuted; handwritten diaries followed by typed transcripts of the Verb. Gruppe OKW Ausl. Abw. zu OKH, for the period 1 September 1939-1 February 1940.
			EAP 21-x-15/2	FT		This folder contains a collection of copies of unsigned memoranda from the hand of members of the group involved in the 20 July plot. The first seven were composed by Ludwig Beck: "Zur Kriegslage nach Abschluss des polnischen Feldzuges," "Das deutsche Friedensangebot vom 6.10.39 und der mögliche weitere Kriegsverlauf," "Zwischenpause nach dem Misserfolg des deutschen Friedensangebotes," "Eine Wendung im bisherigen Krieg?," "Die russische Frage für Deutschland, eine Skizze," "Die Bedeutung des russisch-finnischen Zusammenstosses für die gegenwärtige Lage Deutschlands," "Betrachtung über die deutsche Lage um die Jahreswende 1939/40." Of interest is a memorandum, entitled "Das drohende Unheil," composed by Dr. Hasso von Etzdorf with the assistance of Dr. Erich Kordt, who were Vortragende Legationsräte in the Foreign Office. Von Etzdorf was on liason duty to Groscurth's office. Peace efforts of the conspirators via the Vatican are chronicled to a degree in a report of Dr. Joseph Mueller on his activities in this matter in Rom between 6-12 Nov. 1939.

Ullman appear as intercessors for, and Karl Wolff as antagonist to, Schaefer, and in which Himmler personally participated. At the outbreak of war in Sep 1939, Himmler apprised Schaefer of a plan to organize under the latter's command an expedition to Tibet as the base for fomenting rebellion in northern India, and ordered Schaefer and others to SS-Stab "Der Führer" in Prag for military training. Schaefer approached Admiral Canaris with the complaint that these training orders imposed unnecessary delay in his mission. Canaris in turn informed Himmler, who sharply reprimanded Schaefer for security and military discipline. The present work may be considered an extension of that commentary and, in his own words, a "Beweisführung für die Richtigkeit unserer nat. soz. aussenpolitischen Auffassung." In view of the fact that he considered an alliance with Italy a sine qua non of German foreign policy, Hitler was highly critical of all agitation aimed at the recovery of South Tyrol. For details concerning the decision not to publish the manuscript, and the subsequent odyssey of this work, see the introduction by Dr. Gerhard Weinberg in the forthcoming publication by the Institut für Zeitgeschichte.
