Dear FCC:

I just want to express my complete and utter disgust over the fact that the merger of two satellite radio companies is taking up more time in Congress than the Iraq war. What is this country coming to? It sickens me that oil companies can merge and Rupert Murdoch can buy anything he can get his hands on, but two satellite radio stations cannot merge?? Is this issue so vital that millions of dollars need to be spent debating the issue?? As an US citizen, I am embarrassed by the fact that money is being paid to halt this merger, and homeless people are dying on our streets. Wake up Washington, and end this travesty already. Approve the merger, and move on to more important issues that WILL impact the lives of all Americans!

Sincerely,

Anmoreen Monaghan Ems
