

Journal of

POLICE & SOCIETY

An Interdisciplinary Israeli Journal of Law Enforcement & Criminology

SPECIAL ISSUE:
“Policing a Multicultural Society”

Published by the Community & Civil Guard Department,
Israel National Police

With the Assistance of:

The National Security Studies Center - University of Haifa

With special thanks to Professor James O. Finckenauer, School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers University, and past Director, International Center, National Institute of Justice (NIJ) for co-chairing the workshop in Israel, on “Policing a Multicultural Society”, which led to this special issue; to Alissa Huntoon, Daniel Tompkins, and Marvene O'Rourke of NIJ for editorial and coordination assistance; and to the National Institute of Justice for its support for the workshop and publication of this special issue.

Issue No. 7
April 2003

Guest Editors:

Edna Erez, Department of Justice Studies, Kent State University
James O. Finckenauer, School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers University.
Peter R. Ibarra, Department of Justice Studies, Kent State University

Editors:

Pinhas Yehezkeally, National Defense College, I.D.F.
Orit Shalev, Lee Center Of Criminology, University of Pennsylvania

Editorial Board:

Menachem Amir, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Giora Rahav, Tel Aviv University
David Weisburd, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Moshe Adad, Bar Ilan University

Advisory Board:

Israel Barak, Ministry of Public Security
Ester Dominisini, Community and Civil Guard Dept. Israel Police
Edna Erez, Kent State University
Gideon Fishman, University of Haifa
Shlomo Gal, Anti-Drug Authority (retired)
Arie Ratner, University of Haifa
Jacob Raz, Traffic Department, Israel Police
Joseph Sedbon, Tel Aviv District, Israel Police
Moshe Talgam, Israeli Society of Criminology

Linguistic Editing: Anat Bashan

Cover: Omer Resisi

CONTENTS

Edna Erez, James O. Finckenauer, and Peter R. Ibarra	Introduction to the Special Issue on “Policing a Multicultural Society”	5
Philip C. Stenning	CANADA: Policing the Cultural Kaleidoscope: Recent Canadian Experience	13
Simon Holdaway	ENGLAND: Police Race Relations in England and Wales: Theory, Policy, and Practice	49
Lorraine Mazerolle, Elena Marchetti and Andrew Lindsay	AUSTRALIA: Policing the Plight of Indigenous Australians: Past Conflicts and Present Challenges	75
Madelaine Adelman, Edna Erez and Nadera Shalhoub-Kevorkian	ISRAEL: Policing Violence Against Minority Women in Multicultural Societies: “Community” and the Politics of Exclusion	103
Peter R. Ibarra	USA: Contacts with the Police: Patterns and Meanings in a Multicultural Realm	133
Uwe Ewald and Thomas Feltes	GERMANY: Multicultural Context, Crime and Policing in Germany: Challenges After Unification	165
Fran Buntman and Rika Snyman	SOUTH AFRICA: Policing in a Diverse and Multicultural Society: The South African Case	197
William F. McDonald	USA: The Emerging Paradigm for Policing Multiethnic Societies: Glimpses from the American Experience	231