Pesticides; Guidance for Pesticide Registrants on Submitting Requests for Threshold of Regulation (TOR) Decisions and Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) for Making TOR Decisions

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Agency is announcing the availability of Pesticide Registration Notice 2002-2 (PR-Notice) Entitled "Guidance for Submitting Requests for Threshold of Regulation (TOR) Decisions." The Office of Pesticide Programs (OPP) issues PR-Notices to inform pesticide registrants and other interested persons about important policies, procedures and registration-related decisions and to provide guidance to pesticide registrants and OPP personnel. PR-Notice 2002-2 provides guidance concerning procedures to use when a registrant or other person wants the Agency to determine whether a use of a pesticide in a manner that has the possibility of resulting in residues in food qualifies under the Agency's October 27, 1999 "Threshold of Regulation" policy. If EPA concludes a use is below the threshold of regulation, no tolerance or tolerance exemption would be required. The accompanying SOP explains how the Agency will process TOR requests.

II. Background

In the Federal Register of October 27, 1999 (64 FR 57881), the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) announced the availability of a document entitled "Threshold of Regulation Policy — Deciding Whether a Pesticide with a Food Use Pattern Needs a Tolerance." The Threshold of Regulation (TOR) policy listed criteria and procedures for considering whether a tolerance is required for the use of a pesticide. A use may qualify as a TOR use if: (a) Using a reliable and appropriately sensitive analytical method to measure residues in the commodity, no residues are detected in the commodity under the expected conditions of use; and (b) using reasonably protective criteria, the estimated potential risk of any theoretically possible residues in food is not of concern.

In the Federal Register of October 5, 2001 (55 FR 51040), the Agency announced the availability of, and asked for comments on, a draft PR- Notice entitled "Guidance for Submitting Requests for Threshold of Regulation (TOR) Decisions." The draft PR-Notice would provide guidance on how to submit a request for a TOR decision and would explain how EPA will make TOR decisions in the course of pesticide
