

This Earth Day, how lightly will YOU step?

Keep Atlanta Beautiful invites you to join us over two weekends for a carbon-neutral Earth Day festival with music, art and dance, locally grown and organic food, volunteerism and educational games all designed around "Stepping Lightly in Atlanta."

Zoo Atlanta
April 19, 2008
9:30 am - 5:30 pm

light

Recycle your old cell-phone at Zoo Atlanta to receive $5 off general admission and access to the Earth Day Celebration on April 19.

Glenwood Park
April 26, 2008
10:30 am - 6 pm

lighter

Throughout the month of April, organize a community clean-up in your neighborhood. Register your project today at www.KeepAtlantaBeautiful.org.

lightest

Tell everyone you know to bring in their old electronics to Turner Field for an eWaste Drive with Atlanta City Councilmember, Carla Smith on April 26.

Greener Atlanta Benefactor

Greener Atlanta Family
Glenwood Park Merchants
Allied Waste Industries, Inc.

Greener Atlanta Patron

For more information visit
www.KeepAtlantaBeautiful.org

See what's growing for Earth Day...

City-wide Clean-up April 1-30, 2008

community cleanups

Neighborhood associations, civic groups and other community organizations will organize clean-ups, tire round-ups and recycling drives throughout Atlanta. You can volunteer with an existing project or register your neighborhood's project today at www.KeepAtlantaBeautiful.org.

Zoo Atlanta Festival April 19, 2008 9:30 am - 5:30 pm

Cell-phone Drive

9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Recycle your old cell-phone at Zoo Atlanta to receive $5 off general admission and access to the Earth Day Celebration on April 19.

Kids ECO-Zone

9:30 am - 5:30 pm

Kids of all ages will have so much fun with the hands-on arts and crafts and field games in the ECO-Zone, they won't even realize they've learned something!

World MusicFest

9:30 am - 5:30 pm

Earth Day is a showcase for musical and dance performances with global appeal with an eclectic mix from jazz, blues, R&B, rock & roll, to dance troupes and youth choirs.

Glenwood Park Festival April 26, 2008 10:30 am - 6 pm

eWaste Drive at Turner Field

9-1 in the Gold Parking Lot

Join Councilmember Carla Smith at Turner Field on Saturday, April 26 for Keep Atlanta Beautiful's annual eWaste drive.

Stepping Lightly in Atlanta

Awards Competition Ceremony

12 noon with Mayor Shirley Franklin

Join Mayor Franklin and Anthony Pratt at Glenwood Park to award the winners of the 2008 Stepping Lightly in Atlanta Awards Contest, a competition that rewards kids who are finding unique ways to reduce their ecological footprints. The Stepping Lightly in Atlanta Awards Ceremony is generously sponsored by Pratt Industries.

Organic and Local Taste of Atlanta

10:30 am - 6 pm

Showcasing Atlanta's leaders in green food initiatives, chefs and grocers will offer delicious samples with organic and local ingredients.

World MusicFest

10:30 am - 6 pm

Kids ECO-Zone

10:30 am - 6 pm

Greener Atlanta Benefactor

Greener Atlanta Family

Glenwood Park Merchants
Allied Waste Industries, Inc.

Greener Atlanta Patron

