Slavery By Another Name....

"A powerful and eye-opening account of a crucial but unremembered chapter of American history. Blackmon's magnificent research paints a devastating picture of the ugly & outrageous practices that kept tens of thousands of Black Americans enslaved until the onset of WWII." – David J. Garrow, historian

"This groundbreaking book illuminates black Americans' lingering suspicions of the criminal justice system. Blackmon's exhaustive reportage should put an end to the oft-repeated slander that Black Americans tend toward lawlessness." – Cynthia Tucker, Atlanta Journal-Constitution
