

Marlborough and vicinity. MARLBOROUGH HISTORIC DISTRICT, James Rd., 1903. Concrete storage building and ruins of cement company complex mark site of town built serve plant's employees, and which contained houses, opera house, and inn. Represents experimental stage of state's cement industry; deserted, and factory dynamited after company failed due to high production costs and an inferior product. Private.