

Dear FCC-

I am a taxpayer, and a contribution to society. I have never been arrested, nor even received a speeding ticket. I don't march in protests against homosexuality, and I try to get along with everyone, even those who do not share my political or religious beliefs.

Yet, here I am, while people like Howard Stern with their vile filthy degenerative language and behavior, are allowed to roam all over the airwaves and into the hearts and minds of our future, our children, having to "fight" for my basic constitutional rights...

I have but one question for you, since I, and every other taxpaying citizen of this great country of ours, "employ you..." Why do you think you have the right to limit and or take away our right to listen to music that brings a positive, clean, uplifting message into our homes? Do we force anyone to listen to it that objects? NO!!! If they don't like it, change the station!

Therefore, may I suggest that you spend your time, and my money on more important issues, as I, and most other Christians, are growing tired of having to fight to protect our first amendment rights while watching them be taken away a little at a time, with out own money!

Sincerely,

Sue Barbour
