

I am rather outraged at the fact that this country would even consider allowing such a disgraceful thing to take place. This is what is known as freedom of speech. People have the option to watch whatever show or station they want to. No one is being forced to watch christian television or listen to christian radio if they don't want to. I can write a book of reasons as to why this is just plain dumb.