

Fright Night

at the National Library of Medicine
Bethesda, Maryland
Friday, October 27, 2006

You are cordially invited to Fright Night at the National Library of Medicine (NLM) on the evening of Friday, October 27, 2006. You may come as yourself, come in costume, come with your friends, and/or come with your family. Come and enjoy Fright Night featuring:

Spooky tour of the Visible Proofs: Forensic Views of the Body

Trick-or-Treat refreshments

Horror flick The Bride of Frankenstein

When, what and where: Friday, October 27, 2006

5:00-6:00 PM Tour of Visible Proofs: Forensic Views of the Body, NLM, Bldg. 38

6:00-6:30 PM Trick-or-treat Refreshments, Lister Hill Ctr. (LHC), Bldg. 38A

6:30-8:00 PM Feature film: The Bride of Frankenstein (Not Rated, 75 minutes), LHC Auditorium

Admission: FREE and open to all

Security: everyone 16 or older should bring a photo I.D.

Directions to the Library: Medical Center metro stop (Red Line); and South Drive entrance off Rockville Pike
[Note: detailed direction and security information is available online at <http://www.nlm.nih.gov/exhibition/visibleproofs/visit/> or call 301-402-8878]

FREE PARKING is available in the employee parking lots near the Library (38) and Lister Hill Center (38A) buildings at and after 5:00 PM on Friday, October 27, 2006. Please do not park at the metered visitor parking spaces in front of the Library.

The Bride of Frankenstein will be shown with captions. Sign Language Interpreters will be provided for the exhibition tour and the film introduction. Individuals with disabilities who need reasonable accommodation should contact Jiwon Kim at 301-496-5963 or the Federal Relay 1-800-877-8339.