

THE NORTHWEST FISHERIES SCIENCE CENTER AND THE CENTER FOR WATER AND WATERSHED STUDIES PRESENTS:

Weekly Monster Seminar JAM

LIVE, at the Northwest Fisheries Science Center Auditorium

Thursday, March 6th - 11:00 A.M.

Significance of Introgressive Hybridization for Evolution and Conservation: A Case Study from Catostomid Fishes

Dr. Thomas Dowling

Department of Biology
Arizona State University

Winter 2003
Monster
Seminar JAM
Schedule

Thursday, January 9, 11:00 AM	Derek Booth
Thursday, January 16, 11:00 AM	Penny Swanson
Thursday, January 23, 11:00 AM	Nat Scholz
Thursday, January 30, 11:00 AM	Seth Tuler
Thursday, February 6	No Seminar (CWWS Annual Review)
Thursday, February 13, 11:00 AM	Dave Montgomery
Thursday, February 20, 11:00 AM	Jiquan Chen
Thursday, February 27, 11:00 AM	David Allan
Thursday, March 6, 11:00 AM	Thomas Dowling
Thursday, March 13, 11:00 AM	Robert Eaton
Thursday, March 20, 11:00 AM	Jordan Rosenfeld

The NWFSC is located at 2725 Montlake Blvd E (Seattle), which is right next to the Seattle Yacht Club, just south of the Montlake Bridge, on the west side of Montlake Blvd