

Timothy R. Volpert, JD

Timothy R. Volpert is a partner in the Portland office of Davis Wright Tremaine. His practice emphasizes employment law issues of interest to schools and appeals in state and federal courts. In 1995 Mr. Volpert successfully represented the Vernonia School District before the United States Supreme Court in the case of Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton which established the legality of drug testing student athletes.

Mr. Volpert obtained his B.A. in 1978 from Earlham College and his J.D. in 1981 from Willamette University College of Law. After serving as a law clerk for the Honorable W. Michael Gillette of the Oregon Court of Appeals Mr. Volpert began practicing law in Portland and has done so continuously for 23 years. He is a frequent speaker on issues pertaining to employment and education law and has appeared as a guest on ABC's "Nightline" and NPR's "Morning Edition."