(DE) GERMANY:

NOTE: From 1949 until 1991 Germany was divided into two states, the German Democratic Republic (GDR) and the Federal Republic of Germany (FRG). In 1991 the GDR was absorbed into the FRG and ceased to exist. Because degrees awarded under the GDR educational system may occasionally be reported by German SED respondents for some time to come, these obsolete awards are listed below together with Federal Republic awards which continue to be awarded.

Former GDR awards are distinguished from current German awards by means of an asterisk (*) preceeding the award title and are listed separately after current awards.
