

In my opinion the hours of service doesnt need to be changed in anyway whatsoever. If the lawmakers want to help the drivers be safe on our highways they should take action against the shippers and receivers. Loading/unloading times are getting out of hand for this just in time freight that we expect to haul. The lack of parking is also a big problem, How can we get any rest if there is nowhere to park?