SCOPE AND USE OF THE ARIZONA LEGISLATIVE BILL DRAFTING MANUAL

The Arizona Legislative Bill Drafting Manual is the manual of form and style to be used in the preparation of bills and other legislative proposals. It is based on generally accepted drafting principles and conventions. However, the samples used in this manual should not be copied without careful consideration of their appropriateness for a particular legislative proposal.

CHAPTER 1

THE DRAFTING PROCESS

- 1.2 Drafting Requirements
- 1.3 Confidential Nature of Records
- 1.4 Bill Request and Bill Introduction Deadlines

CHAPTER 1

THE DRAFTING PROCESS

1.1 BILL REQUESTS

Proposed legislation is drafted by the professional staff of the Arizona legislative council. All proposed legislation must first be submitted to the legislative council staff as a bill request. The legislative council is not allowed to create a file or draft legislation without the specific authorization of a legislator in the form of a bill request. However, a legislator is not obligated to introduce the legislation and may cancel the request or find another sponsor.

A legislator-elect who is not currently serving in the legislature may submit a bill request after that person's election is certified by the secretary of state. Others, including private citizens, must obtain authorization from a legislator to use the legislator's name before giving instructions to the legislative council. If another person makes a request on behalf of a sponsoring legislator, written authorization is necessary only if the sponsor has previously indicated this requirement to the legislative council.

The legislative council staff is available on a year-round basis to assist legislators, legislative staff and state agencies in the preparation of proposed legislation.

1.2 DRAFTING REQUIREMENTS

The bill drafting process begins with the drafter obtaining the objectives for a legislative proposal from either the legislator who is sponsoring the bill or from the legislator's authorized agent. The drafter then converts the sponsor's request into proper form, style and legal terminology and fits the proposal into the framework of existing statutory law. The drafter reviews pertinent provisions of the Arizona Constitution, the United States Constitution, court decisions, existing statutes, the Arizona Revised Statutes Internal Reference Manual, the Annual Report on Defects in the Arizona Revised Statutes and State Constitution, 1998 Proposition 105, the Table of Sections Affected, Sutherland, Statutes and Statutory Construction and other relevant sources and advises the legislator of any known problems or conflicts.

The legislative council staff delivers a bill in draft form to the sponsor for review. The final review and decision-making process as to the contents of a bill rest with the legislator. The legislative council prepares the bill for introduction only when it is specifically requested to do so by the sponsor or the sponsor's authorized agent. The final introduction set, according to current procedure, contains a signature sheet required by House and Senate rules and the prescribed number of copies of the bill, memorial or resolution. Note: The drafter may make further revisions only when the sponsor returns this introduction set to the legislative council.

1.3 CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF RECORDS

Rule 20 of the rules of the legislative council requires that records and files of the council office be maintained on a confidential basis. Employees of the council may not discuss or disclose the existence or substance of a request of any person on file in the office with anyone other than the council staff, the person making the request or the sponsor's authorized agent unless the request for a bill or research stipulates that the request and results need not be held confidential and may be disclosed to others.

1.4 BILL REQUEST AND BILL INTRODUCTION DEADLINES

Current limitations regarding bill requests and bill introduction are found in Appendix B.

CHAPTER 2

A BILL AND ITS PARTS

2.1 APPROPRIATE USE OF A BILL

A bill is the appropriate vehicle for proposing a change in statutory law and session law and is the most numerous of legislative measures. Its proper use encompasses every conceivable subject and is limited only by state and federal constitutional standards. Typical bills are those that:

- Establish governmental agencies and programs.
- Prescribe the powers and duties of state agencies and of individual officers and employees.
- Define crimes and classify punishments for actions that are prohibited as public offenses.
- Appropriate monies for capital outlay and operating expenditures.
- Determine licensing and regulatory standards for professions and occupations.
- Prescribe qualifications, terms of office and compensation of public officers.
- Provide for the imposition, collection and distribution of tax monies.

2.2 STATUTORY LAW AND SESSION LAW

All enactments of a legislative session are termed "session law" and are published periodically during the session and compiled in a bound session law volume after the session adjourns. An enactment may amend or repeal codified law, enact new codified law, enact laws of an explanatory or temporary nature or include a combination of these actions.

Statutory law is a law that is of an indefinite duration or application. For this reason it is sometimes referred to as "permanent" law. Statutory law is codified in the Arizona Revised Statutes in an appropriate title, chapter and article.

Enacted provisions that have only a temporary application are not codified in Arizona Revised Statutes. Temporary laws could be used, for example, to establish a study committee or provide a temporary exemption from or suspension of statutory law. In the annotated West Group edition of the Arizona Revised Statutes, temporary laws are usually published in small type at the beginning of the article that relates to its subject for the purpose of making a historical record of provisions relating to the statutory law.

Note:

- The terms "temporary law" and "session law" are sometimes used interchangeably. However, as explained above, session law is actually a comprehensive compilation of all enactments, both permanent and temporary.
- Although a law may appear to be temporary by nature, there is no automatic termination or repeal unless the termination or repeal is enacted by the legislature. Likewise, the fact that a law is not codified in Arizona Revised Statutes does not mean that it has no continuing effect. The termination of a law must be stated by the law's terms or by a separate repeal. Otherwise the law is subject to any continuing application that can be derived from its terms.
- The fact that a law is temporary in nature and not codified in Arizona Revised Statutes does not mean that it is subordinate to statutory law. Any law that is enacted by the legislature has the same status as any other enacted law and may be enforced and applied according to its terms regardless of whether it has permanent or temporary effect.
- While temporary law may contain a cross-reference to statutory law, a statutory section may never refer to temporary law.

2.3 SAMPLE BILL

The following sample uses a nonexistent statutory section to illustrate the bill format used by the legislative council to draft legislation:

(2.4) REFERENCE TITLE: charitable solicitations; limitation;

Section 50-129, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed.

Sec. 4. Repeal

Sec. 5. Appropriation; department of charitable solicitations; hearing officers

The sum of $45,653 is appropriated from the state general fund in fiscal year 20__ - 20__ to the department of charitable solicitations to hire hearing officers as required by this act.

Note: The text of a bill appears beginning on the first page that follows the bill title.

2.4 REFERENCE TITLE

The reference title, commonly referred to as the short title, appears in the upper right-hand corner of each bill, resolution and memorial (not to be confused with the short title discussed in § 4.33). It is used to give a brief idea of the nature of the bill and to aid in indexing, but it is not part of the substantive law of the bill. The reference title is limited to five or fewer words. Words and phrases used in the reference title are separated by a semicolon. Only proper nouns are capitalized. Do not begin a reference title with a number.

Note: Use identical reference titles only if identical bills are drafted and add a period to the end of one of the reference titles to distinguish that bill from the other.

- Pursuant to council rule 22, the legislative council has determined that the reference title must be an accurate and inclusive description of the contents of the measure and shall not reflect political, promotional or advocacy considerations. Legislative council staff shall make the final determination of the contents of the reference title of each measure that is introduced. (Adopted 11/7/1996.)

2.5 INTRODUCING BODY AND LEGISLATIVE SESSION DESIGNATION

The words in the upper left portion designate the legislative body, session of the legislature and year in which the bill is presented. This information is automatically formatted by bill drafting computer formatting.

2.6 BILL NUMBER AND SPONSOR

The letters "S.B. ____" or "H.B. ____" and the phrase "Introduced by ____" indicate the legislative body in which the bill will be introduced and the name or names of the sponsor or cosponsors. On introduction, the blanks are filled in by House or Senate staff who assign a number to the bill and enter the name or names of the sponsor or cosponsors.

2.7 BILL TITLE

Constitutional Requirements

A title is a constitutional requirement of every bill and has a significant legal effect. The Arizona supreme court has ruled that a title need not be a complete description or index of the substantive law in the bill, but it must not be deceptive or misleading. While the title need not be a synopsis of the bill's contents, it must state the subject of the legislation with sufficient clarity to enable persons reading the title to know what to expect in the body of the act. See Hoyle v. Superior Court, 161 Ariz. 224, 778 P.2d 259 (1989); White v. Kaibab Road Improvement District, 113 Ariz. 209, 550 P.2d 80 (1976).

The courts will not invalidate a bill merely because a better title might have been devised if the title fairly states the subject of the legislation to give notice. See In re Lewkowicz, 70 Ariz. 325, 220 P.2d 229 (1950).

Order of Title

The bill title is completely capitalized and begins with the phrase "AN ACT". This is followed immediately by:

- A listing of all changes to the A.R.S. (i.e., amendments, repeals and additions to statutory sections). The order of the list usually follows the order that these amendments, repeals and additions appear in the bill itself, but the drafter may group statutory changes according to treatment (i.e., all amended sections would be listed in the bill title together as would all repealed sections and all added sections). Note: Delayed repeals of statutory sections are included in the listing of statutory changes.
- A listing of amendments to or repeals of previously enacted temporary laws. This includes delayed repeals of previously enacted temporary laws. Note: New temporary law is not listed in the bill title unless the temporary law is the only provision in the bill.
- "BLENDING MULTIPLE ENACTMENTS", if applicable. This phrase is used only if the bill combines a statute having multiple versions and makes no substantive changes to the previously enacted language.
- "MAKING AN APPROPRIATION" if the bill contains an appropriation. Note: If a bill has as its sole purpose the appropriation of monies, it should state that the bill is making an appropriation, name the agency receiving the appropriation and briefly state the purpose of the appropriation. For example, "MAKING AN APPROPRIATION TO THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW FOR THE PRESERVATION OF RECORDS." Note also: If a bill contains multiple appropriations the bill title must reflect this fact by stating "MAKING APPROPRIATIONS".
- "RELATING TO ...". This should be a single phrase containing a general statement of the single subject of the bill (art. IV, part 2, § 13, Constitution of Arizona). Since this is a statement of a subject, do not use a verb. (Use "RELATING TO SCHOOL BOARD ELECTIONS" rather than "RELATING TO ELECTION OF SCHOOL BOARDS".) There is no limit to the length of the "relating to" clause except that it should be a single, briefly comprehensive statement. As a last resort, the article heading where the statutory changes are located may suggest an appropriate "relating to" clause. If the bill contains only temporary law, the clause may begin with "RELATING TO", "PROVIDING FOR", "ESTABLISHING" or any other appropriate phrase.
- "PROVIDING FOR CONDITIONAL ENACTMENT" if the bill contains any conditional enactments. A discussion of conditional enactments is found in § 4.5.

Each phrase in the bill title is separated by a semicolon. The bill title ends with a period.

Title Format

If a bill amends, repeals or adds statutory text, the title must contain the following appropriate phrases:

- AMENDING SECTION(S) _____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES
- AMENDING TITLE ____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, BY ADDING CHAPTER ____
- AMENDING TITLE ____, CHAPTER ____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, BY ADDING ARTICLE ____
- AMENDING TITLE ____, CHAPTER ____, ARTICLE ____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, BY ADDING SECTION _____
- REPEALING SECTION(S) _____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES
- PROVIDING FOR THE DELAYED REPEAL OF SECTION _____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES
- REPEALING TITLE ____, CHAPTER ____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES
- REPEALING TITLE ____, CHAPTER ____, ARTICLE ____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES

If a bill amends or repeals previously enacted temporary law the title must contain the following appropriate phrases, using the session law citation:

- AMENDING LAWS ____, CHAPTER ____, SECTION ____
- REPEALING LAWS ____, CHAPTER ____, SECTION ____

If a specific version of a statute is amended or repealed cite that version as follows:

- AMENDING SECTION _____, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY LAWS 1996, CHAPTER 386, SECTION 4

Note: Refer to a special session as, for example, "LAWS 1996, NINTH SPECIAL SESSION, CHAPTER 5, SECTION 17".

Individually list all sections amended or repealed in a bill. Do not use "through" in a bill title.

2.8 ENACTING CLAUSE

The enacting clause is placed immediately after the title, and the text is prescribed by the state constitution. Since it is the formal expression of legislative enactment a bill without an enacting clause is invalid.

Article IV, part 2, § 24, Constitution of Arizona, provides:

The enacting clause of every bill enacted by the legislature shall be as follows: "Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona," or when the initiative is used: "Be it enacted by the People of the State of Arizona".

2.9 BILL SECTION NUMBERING AND SECTION HEADINGS

All bills are divided into sections even if there is only one section. The first bill section is numbered as "Section 1." Subsequent bill sections are numbered with the abbreviation "Sec. __."

2.10 THE BODY OF THE BILL

The body of a bill contains the substance of the enactment. It is where statutory law and temporary law are amended, added or repealed.

Order

The body of the bill may contain any of the following in this order:

- Changes to the A.R.S. in an order that corresponds to the numerical sequence of the statutes. Note: The drafter may also group a numerically related series of repeals to statutory law in one bill section.
- Delayed repeal of statutes and previously enacted temporary law. (See § 4.8.)
- Treatment of temporary law.
- An intent clause, if necessary. (See § 4.19.)
- A short title. (See § 4.32.)
- An appropriation or appropriations. (See § 4.2.)
- A section or sections relating to the effective date of the bill or specific sections of the bill. (See § 4.11.)
- A conditional enactment or repeal. (See § 4.5.)
- A requirements for enactment; three-fourths vote section (Prop. 105). (See § 3.2.)
- An emergency clause or a requirements for enactment; two-thirds vote section (Prop. 108). (See §§ 4.11 and 4.16.)

Section headings

Sections of statutory law have section headings that consist of a statutory section number and a descriptive section heading that is underscored. Except in the Uniform Commercial Code (title 47), section headings of the A.R.S. do not constitute part of the law and may be changed without showing the added material in uppercase or the deleted material as stricken material. (See § 1-212, A.R.S.) However, it has been held that if an ambiguity exists the section heading may be used to aid in the interpretation of the statute. State v. Barnett, 142 Ariz. 592, 691 P.2d 683 (1984). It is important that the drafter revise the section heading to reflect any changes in statutory text.

Sections of temporary law have section headings that consist of the bill section number and a descriptive section heading that is underscored.

Sections of appropriations have section headings that describe the purpose of the appropriation.

Amending statutory or temporary law

When amending an existing statutory or temporary law, the drafter must follow the constitutional provision relating to legislation. Article IV, part 2, § 14, Constitution of Arizona, provides:

No act or section thereof shall be revised or amended by mere reference to the title of such act, but the act or section as amended shall be set forth and published at full length.

This requires that a bill contain the entire section of law if any change is made to that law even if the change appears in only one subsection or paragraph.

Note: It is essential that the correct version of a statute be amended. When preparing a bill the drafter must check the pocket parts of the A.R.S. and the Table of Sections Affected to see that the latest version of the statute is used. Checking the Table of Sections Affected is particularly important during a legislative session to see if the section has been amended in an act with an emergency clause or a "prop. 108" clause. Because such an act is effective on the signature of the governor, the drafter must use the version of the section as amended in the emergency act in any later legislation.

Legislative council rule 24 requires that, when amending existing text, new language appear in UPPERCASE. Stricken language appears in ~~lowercase with a line through it~~. If new language is replacing stricken language, it appears after the stricken language. (See Appendix B.)

- The following illustrates how amendments to statutory law are introduced into the body of a bill:

Section 1. Section 32-1908, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

32-1908. Scope of chapter

A. The provisions of this chapter regarding the sale...

- The following illustrates how amendments to temporary law are introduced into the body of a bill:

Sec. 2. Laws 1994, chapter 213, section 3 is amended to read:

Sec. 3. Study committee; membership; duties

A. A study committee is...

Adding new statutory law or temporary law sections

If a bill adds a new statutory section the text of the entire section is shown in UPPERCASE. The section heading appears in lowercase. If a bill adds a new temporary law section the text of the entire section is shown in lowercase.

- The following illustrates how a new statutory section is introduced into the body of a bill:

Sec. 4. Title 32, chapter 14, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended by adding section 32-1430, to read:

32-1430. Scope of practice

A. A PHYSICIAN WHO PRACTICES MEDICINE IN THIS STATE SHALL...

- New statutory sections that are part of a new statutory article are introduced as follows:

Sec. 9. Title 32, chapter 4, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended by adding article 5, to read:

ARTICLE 5. FEES

32-3601. Definitions

IN THIS ARTICLE...

- New statutory sections that are part of a new statutory chapter are introduced as follows:

Sec. 4. Title 32, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended by adding chapter 35, to read:

CHAPTER 35
HOME HEALTH CARE WORKERS
ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS
32-3601. Definitions
IN THIS CHAPTER...

- New temporary law is introduced as follows:

Sec. 14. Committee on care; membership; duties
A. The committee on care...

Repeals

The language of a repealed statute or temporary law is not set out in the body of the bill. If all of the sections in an article are repealed and are not replaced by new sections the article itself should be repealed instead of the individual sections.

The repeal of a statute does not revive any predecessor statute. The repeal also does not affect any right accrued at the time of the repeal. (See § 1-252, A.R.S.)

Note: With regard to the repeal of existing statutes, be aware of § 1-249, A.R.S., which provides:

No action or proceeding commenced before a repealing act takes effect, and no right accrued is affected by the repealing act, but proceedings therein shall conform to the new act so far as applicable.

Internal references

When amending or repealing statutory law, the drafter must determine whether these changes are inconsistent with existing law. This is necessary since a later valid act supersedes all previous acts that conflict with it regardless of whether there has been an express repeal. If the proposed measure would result in a substantive or technical conflict with statutory law, the drafter must amend or repeal existing law. The drafter can find a statute's cross-references in the Internal Reference Manual, which is updated each year by the Arizona legislative council.

Technical changes

When the drafter is making a substantive change to a law the drafter may also make a nonsubstantive (technical) change to that law. The drafter can find a list of the most significant technical problems in existing statutory law in Recommended Statute Improvements, which is a part of the Annual Report on Defects in the Arizona Revised Statutes and State Constitution and which is updated each year by the Arizona legislative council. The drafter is also free to make less significant technical changes that are not listed in that document.

Note:

- Optional technical changes should not overshadow the substantive change in a section unless the drafter includes a memo with the bill draft to explain where the technical changes are found. Otherwise, a simple substantive change may be lost among many technical changes.
- The drafter must amend a statute to make technical changes if they are necessary to conform the statute to changes made in another section of the same bill.

2.11 GERMANENESS

Article IV, part 2, § 13, Constitution of Arizona, requires that the subjects in any one bill be "germane" to a single subject and prescribes general requirements concerning the title of a bill in these words:

Every act shall embrace but one subject and matters properly connected therewith, which subject shall be expressed in the title; but if any subject shall be embraced in an act which shall not be expressed in the title, such act shall be void only as to so much thereof as shall not be embraced in the title.

This provision is generally liberally construed, but it is important to check that the bill does not comprise more than a single subject and any related matters. Generally courts have found that if there is any reasonable basis for grouping the various matters and if a deception would not be perpetrated by the combination an act will be sustained.

The drafter must be aware that liberal interpretation can be taken too far. In State v. Sutton, 115 Ariz. 417, 565 P.2d 1278 (1977), the court said that such provisions "will not be interpreted so foolishly liberally as to render the constitutional provision nugatory." A bill title that states, for example, "RELATING TO _____ AND _____" is an indication that the bill may not be germane.

The peculiar facts of each case will be the basis for any court determination. In In re Miller, 29 Ariz. 582, 244 P. 376 (1926), the court stated:

The term "subject"... is to be given a broad and extended meaning, so as to allow the Legislature full scope to include in one act all matters having a logical or natural connection.... To constitute duplicity of subject, an act must embrace two or more dissimilar and discordant subjects, that by no fair intendment can be considered as having a legitimate connection with or relation to each other.

The same case supplies reasons for the one subject limitation:

Its adoption was brought about by the legislative practice of including in the same bill wholly unrelated provisions, of enacting laws under false and misleading titles, and of incorporating in meritorious bills provisions not deserving of general favor and which, standing alone, could not command necessary support to pass them.

In each house of the legislature the committee on rules is charged with considering the constitutionality and proper form of bills and the reasonable germaneness of amendments. The Senate and the House of Representatives have adopted rules regarding the germaneness of amendments in addition to the constitutional requirements. These rules state in part:

A bill including any amendments shall be presumed to contain one subject if:

- 1. The resulting bill has one general purpose and all other matters contained therein are related to that purpose or necessary to effectuate the purpose.*
- 2. The resulting bill is a major revision of a program or agency and each of the provisions relates to the revision.*
- 3. The bill offers only technical or conforming changes to the statutes.*
- 4. The bill is an omnibus taxation or appropriation measure and each provision relates to the same general purpose of the bill.*
- 5. The bill is a result of a strike everything after the enacting clause amendment and substitutes material designed to accomplish only one purpose.*

CHAPTER 3

MEASURES OTHER THAN BILLS

- 3.1 Memorials and Resolutions
- 3.2 Initiatives and Referendums

CHAPTER 3

3.1 MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

Bills are the most common legislative measures that come before the legislature. Other common forms of legislation are memorials and resolutions. These are used to accomplish legislative purposes, described below, for which a bill would not be appropriate. Likewise, memorials and resolutions have their own particular purposes, and they should not be confused or used interchangeably. A memorial should not be used when a resolution is more appropriate, and vice versa.

Memorials

A memorial allows the legislature to petition, plea, beseech or pray that a recipient (1) acknowledge stated facts (contained in one or more clauses, introduced by the word "whereas") and (2) act in a manner consistent with the request. It implies that the "memorialist," i.e., the legislature, lacks authority to act directly on the subject. Accordingly, memorials are used to petition Congress, the President of the United States, other state or federal agencies and officers and other states to do things that the Arizona legislature has no jurisdiction to do itself. It is merely a request and has no official standing or effect.

A memorial is always a request or proposal. Do not use a memorial to express condolences or congratulations.

Memorials may be presented for the consideration of only one house (simple) or of both houses (concurrent). A memorial may not be "joint."

Resolutions

A resolution is a declaration or expression of legislative opinion, will, intent or "resolve" in matters within the legislature's legal purview. Three types of resolutions are used in this state:

- A simple resolution is processed only through the introducing body and may express an opinion, appoint a committee, express regret on the death of a former legislator or other prominent person, request the return of a bill from the other house of the legislature for a stated purpose, recognize meritorious service or commemorate a special event. A simple resolution is not signed by the governor.

- A joint resolution is processed through both houses and is signed by the governor. It is used to provide for temporary measures having the effect of law (e.g., a contract or other official action). Since the governor signs joint resolutions, they are not used for any purpose in amending either the Arizona or United States Constitutions. Constitutional amendments are the exclusive purview of the legislature and the people.

- A concurrent resolution is processed through both houses but is not signed by the governor. It may provide for the following:

- An expression of opinion, commemoration, congratulations or sentiment of both houses.
- Submittal of a referendum to the voters.
- Legislative action involving the process of amending the Arizona or United States Constitution.

Titles

Titles prepared for memorials and resolutions are different from the titles prepared for regular bills. A memorial or resolution title may take the following form:

A MEMORIAL
URGING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO....

A RESOLUTION
DESIGNATING OCTOBER 3, 2008 AS....

The drafter may refer to the guide on the following page to determine the proper vehicle to use for a particular purpose.

Is the measure merely a petition or request that someone else do something?

Yes . . . Memorial.

No, the measure is an official statement or action . . . Resolution.

Does the sponsor want the memorial to be passed by both houses of the legislature?

Is it a statement or action of a single house of the legislature?

No . . Simple memorial.

Single house . . Simple resolution.

Yes . . . Concurrent memorial.

Entire legislature or state . . . Concurrent or Joint resolution.

If a specific form is prescribed for the process (e.g., A.R.S. § 37-620.01), use it.

If the governor is excluded from the process (e.g., constitutional amendments & referendum measures) ...Concurrent resolution.

If the measure is in the nature of a legal document that could be enforceable against the state (e.g., an agreement or contract) . . . Joint resolution, signed by the governor.

If the measure is an expression of opinion, commemoration, congratulations or sentiment . . . Concurrent resolution.

3.2 INITIATIVES AND REFERENDUMS

Constitutional requirements

The powers of initiative and referendum are set forth in article IV, part 1, § 1, Constitution of Arizona, that states in part:

[T]he people reserve the power to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution and to enact or reject such laws and amendments at the polls, independently of the Legislature; and they also reserve, for use at their own option, the power to approve or reject at the polls any Act, or item, section, or part of any Act, of the Legislature.

Initiatives

Under the constitution ten percent of the qualified electors have the right to propose any legislative measure and fifteen percent of the qualified electors have the right to propose any amendment to the Constitution of Arizona. The number of qualified electors is equal to the total number of votes cast for all candidates for governor at the general election preceding the filing of the initiative petition. Article IV, part 1, §1(7), Constitution of Arizona.

A person who wants to distribute an initiative petition may obtain the required information as to form and style of the petition and attachments from the office of the secretary of state. Before distributing the petition, the sponsors must file notice of their intention to distribute the petition with the secretary of state.

An initiative petition that qualifies by having sufficient signatures as prescribed by the constitution is placed on the ballot and becomes law when approved by a majority of the votes cast and on proclamation of the governor.

Referendums

There are two types of referendums. The first occurs by petition of the voters and the second by action of the legislature.

A measure that is enacted by the legislature is not operative for a period of ninety days after the adjournment of the session (unless it is enacted under special circumstances that allow it to be effective immediately). During this ninety-day period five percent of the qualified electors may file a petition with the secretary of state to have the measure referred to the people for approval or rejection. The number of qualified electors required is calculated by determining the total number of votes cast for all candidates for governor at the general election preceding the filing of the referendum. The measure is approved by a majority of those voting.

Note: The following enactments are not subject to referendum by the people because they become effective immediately on the governor's signature:

1. An emergency measure that is passed by a "supermajority" vote of the legislature.
2. An act for the "support and maintenance" of the agencies of state government and state institutions.
3. An act increasing state revenues through new or increased taxes or assessments.

The legislature may order that an act be referred as a referendum to the people at the polls before it can become effective. Under article V, § 7, Constitution of Arizona, measures that are referred to the voters for approval are exempt from veto of the governor. Referendum measures are included among the sample concurrent resolutions. Examples of conditional enactment clauses for bills accompanying referendums are included in § 4.5 of this manual.

Amendments to the constitution may be proposed in either house of the legislature. If passed by a majority of the members of each house, they are submitted as a referendum to a vote of the people for approval. If the amendments are approved by the voters, they become part of the constitution. The vehicle for a proposed amendment to our state constitution is a concurrent resolution, samples of which are included in this manual.

Note: Concurrent resolutions containing measures to be referred by the legislature to the voters have two titles -- one for the resolution itself and one in the body of the resolution for the measure being referred.

Proposition 105; Requirements for enactment

In the 1998 general election the voters passed Proposition 105, which amended article IV, part 1, § 1, Constitution of Arizona, to prohibit the legislature from repealing "an initiative measure approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon . . ." and to allow the legislature to amend laws enacted or amended through an initiative or referendum only if "the amending legislation furthers the purposes of such measure and at least three-fourths of the members of each house of the legislature, by a roll call of ayes and nays, vote to amend such measure." Proposition 105 applies to all legislation enacted by initiative or referendum beginning with the 1998 general election.

The drafter must refer to the Proposition 105 Table of Sections Affected documents prepared and updated by the legislative council to determine if a statutory section is subject to the Proposition 105 requirements for enactment. To amend or repeal a statutory section that is subject to those requirements for enactment, the drafter must use the following lead-in language:

Sec. __. Subject to the requirements of article IV, part 1, section 1, Constitution of Arizona, section X-XXX, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

The bill must also include the following session law section placed at the end of the bill:

Sec. __. Requirements for enactment; three-fourths vote
Pursuant to article IV, part 1, section 1, Constitution of Arizona, section X-XXX, Arizona Revised Statutes, as amended by this act, is effective only on the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the members of each house of the legislature.

If the legislature is adding a new statutory section or renumbering a statutory section that is subject to the Proposition 105 requirements for enactment, the drafter must use similar lead-in language and include a similar requirements for enactment section.

Note:

- If the bill or amendment contains multiple statutory sections that are subject to Proposition 105, each of these sections should be included in the same requirements for enactment section.
- Proposition 105 requirements are not noted in the bill title.
- Unlike bills that must comply with the requirements of Proposition 108 (see § 4.16), if a bill that includes a section that must comply with the requirements of Proposition 105 also includes a section that is not affected by Proposition 105 requirements, those specific sections may be enacted into law if the bill receives only a simple majority in each house.

- It is possible for a bill or amendment that is affected by Proposition 105 requirements to also be affected by Proposition 108 requirements.
- If necessary, the drafter of an initiative (or referendum) measure should include a temporary law section that directs the legislative council staff to prepare legislation for the next session to conform the statutes to the act, that authorizes the executive director of legislative council to blend nonconflicting changes made by the legislature with the changes in the act and that allows the legislature to make technical and conforming changes to any section of the act, subject to article IV, part 1, § 1, Constitution of Arizona.

COMMON BILL PROVISIONS

The following are only examples and must be modified to fit the requirements of the specific legislation:

4.1 APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR; CONSENT OF SENATE

Section 38-211, A.R.S., specifies the method of nomination by the governor and confirmation by the Senate of state officers. Language to accomplish an appointment pursuant to this section is as follows:

THE GOVERNOR SHALL APPOINT THE DIRECTOR PURSUANT TO SECTION 38-211.

Note: Because § 38-211, A.R.S., provides the procedures for appointment as well as details regarding vacancies in office and time of assuming authority, the drafter should review that section to avoid including unnecessary specific provisions in the bill draft.

4.2 APPROPRIATIONS

Requirements

In general an appropriation of public monies should contain the following in the following order:

- An amount of monies.
- A source of the monies.
- A fiscal year of applicability.
- A recipient (either a fund or a state agency).
- A purpose.

The drafter can usually place these requirements in a single sentence.

Categories

There are four categories of appropriation bills:

- The general appropriation bill.
- Separate appropriation bills.
- Incidental appropriation bills.
- Supplemental appropriation bills.

The general appropriation bill contains numerous appropriations for the different departments of the state, state institutions, public schools and interest on the public debt.

Note: Effective date. The general appropriation bill is effective the day the governor signs it but, by its terms, is applicable for the next fiscal year.

Article IV, part 2, § 20, Constitution of Arizona, provides:

The general appropriation bill shall embrace nothing but appropriations for the different departments of the state, for state institutions, for public schools, and for interest on the public debt. (See also 78 Op. Att'y Gen. 78-224.)

If a bill other than the general appropriation bill combines unrelated appropriations the whole bill is invalid. See Litchfield Park School Dist. No. 79 v. Babbitt, 125 Ariz. 215, 608 P.2d 792 (App. 1980). See also article IV, part 2, § 20, Constitution of Arizona. This constitutional provision is aimed at the practice of "logrolling" in which enough legislative votes are secured to pass a bill by combining unrelated appropriations into that bill.

Separate appropriation bills contain only an appropriation and information incidental to that appropriation. They may be for new programs that were not anticipated but nonetheless need to be accomplished. A common example is an appropriation for a new program to conform to the prior year's enactment. Note: Effective date. Separate appropriations go into effect on the general effective date (ninety-one days after adjournment sine die) unless the bill contains an emergency clause or a requirements for enactment clause ("Prop. 108"). Note also that a separate appropriation for a government entity other than the state should be made to a state agency for distribution to the local government for purposes of accountability.

Incidental appropriation bills are those that include an appropriation section to fund an activity that is required by the statutory or temporary law sections in the same bill. Note: Effective date. Incidental appropriations have the same effective date as the entire bill.

Supplemental appropriation bills are for the "support and maintenance" of an existing agency for an ongoing and previously funded program. (Article IV, part 1, § 1(3), Constitution of Arizona; Garvey v. Trew, 64 Ariz. 342, 170 P.2d 845 (1946).) A supplemental appropriation is a specific appropriation and may not contain statutory or session law. Note: Effective date. Supplemental appropriations go into effect on the signature of the governor. Supplemental appropriations are noted as such in the bill title and section heading.

- The following is an example of a separate appropriation bill:

Section 1. Appropriation; insect control

The sum of $50,000 is appropriated from the state general fund in fiscal year 20__ - 20__ to the governor to defray the cost of controlling insects in agricultural areas.

- An example that illustrates funding supplied by a supplemental appropriation to an existing appropriation made by the general appropriation bill in the previous year is:

Section 1. Supplemental appropriation; registrar of contractors; general operating expenditures

In addition to the appropriation made by Laws 20__, chapter __, section __, the sum of $150,000 is appropriated from the state general fund in fiscal year 20__ - 20__ to the registrar of contractors for deposit in the contractors' license fund to meet general operating expenditures.

- The following is an example of an incidental appropriation:

Sec. 3. Appropriation

The sum of $50,000 is appropriated from the state general fund in fiscal year 20__ - 20__ to the Arizona state parks board for the purposes provided in this act.

- The following is an example of an appropriation that illustrates funding supplied from a specific source other than the state general fund:

Section 1. Appropriation; department of transportation; furnishings and equipment

The sum of $185,000 is appropriated from the state highway fund in fiscal year 20__ - 20__ to the department of transportation to purchase furnishings and equipment.

Lapsing of appropriation; exemption from lapsing

Section 35-190, A.R.S., provides, in part, that no obligation may be incurred or expenditure made from an appropriation after the end of the fiscal year for which the appropriation was made. This section also provides that all appropriations lapse at the expiration of one month after the end of the fiscal year.

However, appropriations for construction or other permanent improvements do not lapse until the purpose for which the appropriation is made has been accomplished or abandoned, unless the appropriation has been available during the entire fiscal year without an expenditure or an encumbrance. If one fiscal year may not be sufficient time for a construction program to begin, the drafter should include the following provision:

Sec. __. Lapsing of appropriation

Notwithstanding section 35-190, Arizona Revised Statutes, the appropriation made in section 1 of this act does not lapse until the purpose for which the appropriation is made is accomplished or abandoned unless the appropriation stands until June 30, 2009 without an expenditure or encumbrance. In addition, all monies remaining unencumbered or unexpended on June 30, 2009 revert to the state general fund.

If a sponsor of a bill does not want an appropriation (that is not for construction purposes) to lapse at the end of the fiscal year, the drafter should add the following exemption:

Sec. __. Exemption from lapsing

The appropriation made in section 1 of this act is exempt from the provisions of section 35-190, Arizona Revised Statutes, relating to lapsing of appropriations.

Since this appropriation would be perpetually exempt, it should involve a program for which the expenditures will eventually be made in order to preclude the need of an additional enactment to authorize a reversion of unspent monies. As an alternative the exemption might apply for a limited period as indicated above for capital outlay appropriations.

Insert the fiscal year of applicability to remove doubt as to the time during which the appropriated monies are available, as:

B. The appropriation made pursuant to this section is available for use in fiscal year 2008-2009.

Note: It is very important to consider including a lapsing exemption section if an appropriation is effective before the beginning of the next fiscal year. As an example, assume an appropriation is passed with an emergency clause and is signed by the governor on May 2. The monies are immediately appropriated. Without a lapsing exemption, any unexpended or unencumbered monies will revert less than two months later on June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

If an appropriation is for the following fiscal year that fact should be clearly set forth to avoid the possibility of the appropriation being applied to the current year and a lapse of the appropriation at the end of the current fiscal year and also for purposes of the state expenditure limitation. (See article IX, § 17, Constitution of Arizona.)

Reversion of appropriation

If the sponsor of a bill wants an appropriation to lapse on a date other than July 1, the drafter should use a reversion clause. An example of a section that authorizes the reversion of unexpended monies that were exempted from lapsing is as follows:

Sec. __. Reversion

All monies remaining unexpended and unencumbered on October 1, 2009 from the appropriation made by Laws 2008, chapter __, section __ revert to the state general fund.

Line-item veto of appropriation

Article V, § 7, Constitution of Arizona, provides that "if any bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriations of money, he may object to one or more of such items...". In the case of Rios v. Symington, 172 Ariz. 3, 833 P.2d 20 (1992), the Arizona supreme court held that the line-item veto power extends to certain new appropriations, reductions, increases, transfers or elimination of monies.

4.3 COMMITTEES

Placement

The drafter should draft a bill to establish a committee (sometimes also referred to as a commission) as temporary law if the committee is to disband after it completes its duties and as statutory law if the committee is permanent. (See § 4.34.)

Checklist

When establishing a committee the drafter should consider the following:

- Membership and qualifications. A committee should be composed of an odd number of members to limit the chances that a vote will end in a tie. Note: When prescribing qualifications, the drafter should not refer to a specific private entity from which a committee member is to be selected. (See § 4.29.) Note also: When prescribing membership by legislators say "not more than _____ of whom are members of the same political party".

Note also: Initial terms of statutory committees must be staggered. (See § 4.33.)

- Appointing authority. Who appoints the members? Again, the members should not be appointed by a specific private entity. (See § 4.30.)

- Officers. The language should specify who is to chair the committee or allow the committee to select a chairperson. The drafter may also provide for cochairpersons or for the rotation of chairpersons.

- Compensation and expenses. It is unusual for committee members to receive compensation, but a common provision makes members "eligible to receive reimbursement of expenses pursuant to title 38, chapter 4, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes". (See § 4.4.)

- Meetings. The drafter may wish to include language that prescribes the number or frequency of meetings. Some committees allow the chairperson and a majority of committee members to call meetings. Some committees also prescribe the location of meetings.

- Powers and duties. The drafter should describe, by a list if necessary, the committee's powers and duties. Note: In most situations the drafter must include language stating that the committee "shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations to the governor, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives on or before (insert month, day and year) and shall provide a copy of this report to the secretary of state and the director of the Arizona state library, archives and public records".

- Staffing. The drafter may include language to require a particular agency to provide the committee with administrative support and meeting room space.

- Duration. If the committee is temporary the drafter must include a delayed repeal section for the act or the relevant bill sections. This date should be September 30 of the year following the date the final report is due to allow the committee to complete unfinished work and to give the legislature an opportunity to extend the committee before the committee's enabling legislation is repealed.

- Appropriation. The drafter may include an incidental appropriation section at the end of the bill to fund the committee's operation.

Ex officio members; advisory members

If a committee member is specified as an ex officio member, that person serves by virtue of holding a particular office and may exercise the same powers as the other members, including voting, unless the law provides otherwise. See Barber Puremilk v. Alabama State Milk Cont. Bd., 156 So. 2d 351 (Ala. 1963).

Note: The drafter should avoid using the term "ex officio" members because it is confused with the term "advisory" members. If a sponsor intends that a particular committee member not have voting privileges, the drafter should include language that states this fact and that indicates that the advisory member is not counted for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Legislators as board members; restrictions

If legislators are made members of a committee that has executive powers, (i.e., the power to carry out legislative policy) the drafter should be certain that the appointment does not violate the separation of powers doctrine found in article III, Constitution of Arizona, or the prohibition of dual office holding found in article IV, part 2, § 5, Constitution of Arizona.

Note: In State ex rel. Woods v. Block, 189 Ariz. 269, 942 P.2d 428 (1997), the Arizona supreme court, citing a federal court ruling, stated that allowing members of a legislative body to serve, even as advisory members, on a board that performs an executive function may violate separation of powers.

4.4 COMPENSATION FOR STATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

Compensation

The general rules of compensation are stated in § 38-611, A.R.S. This section covers compensation for employees under the state personnel system as well as exempt positions and members of boards, commissions and committees.

The following language may be used to accomplish this:

THE DIRECTOR IS ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE COMPENSATION
PURSUANT TO SECTION 38-611.

Note: Do not use mandatory language such as "The director shall receive compensation of ...". This language has the unintended effect of being a continuing appropriation. McDonald v. Frohmiller, 63 Ariz. 479, 163 P.2d 671 (1945).

Reimbursement of expenses

If no compensation is authorized but reimbursement for travel and subsistence expenses is desired, the drafter should include language similar to the following:

MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE COMPENSATION BUT ARE ELIGIBLE FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES
PURSUANT TO TITLE 38, CHAPTER 4, ARTICLE 2.

4.5 CONDITIONAL ENACTMENTS OR REPEALS; REFERENDUM AS CONDITION OF ENACTMENT

Conditional enactments

A bill must contain a conditional enactment section if the bill is contingent on:

- Submission to the voters of a related proposed constitutional amendment.
- The passage of another related act.
- The occurrence of some other condition such as the enactment of similar legislation in another state or congressional authorization of funding or jurisdiction.

A bill that requires a constitutional change must include a conditional enactment section or otherwise the bill could be invalidated.

- An example of a clause providing for conditional enactment that is contingent on additional constitutional authority is:

Sec. __. Conditional enactment
This act (or specified statutory sections) does not become effective unless the Constitution of Arizona is amended by vote of the people at the next general election to. . .

Note: If additional constitutional authority is required, the preparation of a house or senate concurrent resolution is necessary unless the needed constitutional change is being sought by initiative.

- If a provision of a bill is made conditional on the results of an election, but not pursuant to the power of the referendum (article IV, part 1, § 1, Constitution of Arizona), the conditional enactment section should also include a provision stating that the bill is not intended to be voter protected under Proposition 105 (see page 24). An example of such a provision is:

B. The enactment of any provision of this act conditioned on the results of the election does not constitute a submission of any provision of this act to the voters under the power of the referendum.

A bill may not contain both a conditional enactment and a requirements for enactment ("Prop. 108") section or an emergency clause.

- An example of a clause providing for a conditional enactment contingent on passage of another act is:

Sec. __. Conditional enactment
This act does not become effective unless ____ Bill ____, forty-eighth legislature, second regular session, relating to _____, becomes law.

- The following illustrate conditional enactments contingent on other conditions:

Sec. __. Conditional enactment; notice

A. This act (or specified statutory sections) does not become effective unless (the governor enters into a contract with Nevada, California and Utah), (the United States Congress authorizes the state assumption of jurisdiction), (the legislature of each bordering state enacts authority) [or] (the United States department of health and human services grants the appropriate waivers) to (subject matter) by (insert a cutoff period to preclude ongoing conditional status).

B. The (appropriate state agency) shall notify in writing the director of the Arizona legislative council of the date on which the condition is met or if the condition is not met.

Note: It is very important for such a conditional enactment section to include a date by which the condition must be met to avoid an indefinite conditional status and a requirement that the director of the Arizona legislative council be notified in writing of the date on which the condition is met.

- If a bill is amending a statutory section that was previously enacted subject to a condition and the condition has not yet been met, the drafter should use language similar to the following to ensure that the amendments to the section are also subject to the same condition:

Sec. __. Conditional enactment

Section 41-2123, Arizona Revised Statutes, as amended by Laws 2005, chapter 104, section 2 and this act, is effective as prescribed in Laws 2005, chapter 104, section 7.

A conditional enactment should be noted at the end of the bill title with the words "; PROVIDING FOR CONDITIONAL ENACTMENT". (See §§ 2.7 and 2.10.)

Conditional repeal

- An example of a clause providing for a conditional repeal is:

Sec. __. Conditional repeal; notice

A. Section 36-4501, Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, is repealed as of the date the secretary of the United States department of health and human services notifies the Arizona health care cost containment system administration of the acceptance of its application of a waiver submitted pursuant to this act.

B. The administration shall notify in writing the director of the Arizona legislative council of this date.

Note: As in the above example, a conditional repeal section must specify the statutory section to which it applies rather than the bill section. Note also that conditional repeals of statutes and previously enacted session laws are noted in the bill title.

Note also: The drafter should not use conditional repeals of statutory sections unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Conditional repeals of statutory sections are problematic because of the uncertainty they cause relating to determining whether a condition has been met and the specific date of the repeal.

4.6 CONFORMING LEGISLATION

Sometimes due to time constraints or other factors it is too difficult to do all of the conforming and amending changes in a bill draft and still meet legislative deadlines. In such case the drafter may add the following session law section:

Sec. __. Conforming legislation
The legislative council staff shall prepare proposed legislation conforming the Arizona Revised Statutes to the provisions of this act for consideration in the _____ legislature, _____ regular session.

4.7 DEFINITIONS

The role of definitions

By rule of statutory construction words and terms that are not specifically defined are defined by their common accepted usage. See Mid Kansas Fed. Sav. and Loan Ass'n of Wichita v. Dynamic Development Corp., 167 Ariz. 122, 804 P.2d 1310 (1991). See also 2A Sutherland Statutory Construction § 46:1 (6th Ed). However, the drafter should define a word or term that might be unclear or unfamiliar to the reader or that has more than one meaning and the reader cannot determine that meaning from the context. Do not define a term that does not appear in the statutory text.

Note: Section 1-215, A.R.S., contains definitions that apply to all statutes and other laws of this state. If the drafter intends a definition other than one that appears in that section the drafter should write a definition that applies to the specific unit of the statutes.

Format

Place a definition section that applies to an entire title, chapter or article in a separate statutory section at the beginning of that title, chapter or article.

Alphabetize definitions in a word-by-word manner in which a space is alphabetized before any letters (see paragraphs 4 and 5 below). The introduction must indicate whether the definitions apply to the title, chapter or article and state that the definitions apply "unless the context otherwise requires". Each word defined is initially enclosed in quotation marks, but on subsequent uses within the definition section the word does not appear in quotation marks. A term that is described by what it does not mean is not enclosed in quotation marks. The following is an example of a statutory law definition section:

32-3801. Definitions
IN THIS ARTICLE, UNLESS THE CONTEXT OTHERWISE REQUIRES:
1. "BOARD" MEANS....
2. "CLINICAL LABORATORY" MEANS....
3. "LABORATORY TECHNICIAN" MEANS....
4. "LICENSE FEES" MEANS....
5. "LICENSEE" MEANS....
6. "LIFE THREATENING ILLNESSES" INCLUDES....

Note that in the example above defined terms that appear in the plural form are still followed by either the singular "includes" or "means".

Restrictive vs. extensive definitions

A definition that is restrictive is followed by the word "means". A definition that is extensive is followed by the word "includes". See 2A Sutherland Statutory Construction § 47:7 (6th Ed). Do not use the phrase "means and includes".

General definition sections vs. internal definitions

If a word or term appears only in one statutory section, it should be defined in that section rather than in a general definition section. A statutory section may have its own statutory definition subsection for words and terms that are used in that section. This subsection should appear at the end of the section. If a word or phrase is used only in a specific subsection, paragraph or subdivision, the word or phrase should be defined in that statutory unit unless there is an existing definition subsection. The definition is the last thing that appears in a particular statutory unit and is introduced by the words "FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS (SECTION) (SUBSECTION) (PARAGRAPH),...".

Citations to definitions

If a word is already defined in another statute, the drafter may cite that statute by cross-reference instead of repeating the definition. This has the advantage of promoting statutory uniformity, but it can also be inconvenient to the reader, especially if the definition is located in a different title of the statutes. Refer to a definition that is in another section by the words "_____ HAS THE SAME MEANING PRESCRIBED IN SECTION 00-0000" or by "A PERSON MAY USE A PROVIDER AS DEFINED IN SECTION 00-0000".

Note: A reference to a definition in another section should be to the section and not to a specific paragraph. Because definition sections are often renumbered as specific definitions are added and deleted, a reference to a specific paragraph could soon become inaccurate.

"Stuffed" definitions

A definition should not contain substantive law in addition to the definition since the substantive law would be "hidden" in a place the reader would not expect to find it. A definition that contains substantive law is known as a "stuffed" definition. See Dickerson, The Fundamentals of Complete Legal Drafting. The following example illustrates a stuffed definition:

5. "ANNUAL INSPECTION" MEANS AN INSPECTION CONDUCTED BY THE DEPARTMENT AT LEAST SIXTY DAYS BEFORE A FACILITY'S LICENSE EXPIRES AND AT WHICH TIME THE FACILITY SHALL BE IN FULL COMPLIANCE WITH THIS ARTICLE AND RULES ADOPTED PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE.

In the above example the language that refers to the facility's compliance requirements does not define the term "annual inspection". It is substantive law that should be placed in its own section or in a section that otherwise prescribes compliance requirements.

Section headings

The inclusion of a definition subsection should be noted in the section heading. Since the definition subsection is the last subsection of a section, definitions are noted last in the section heading. If only one term is defined the section heading should read "; definition".

Note: Do not note a definition that is introduced by the words "For the purposes of this (subsection) (paragraph) (subdivision) (item). . .".

Note also: Indicating that a word or phrase "does not mean" or "does not include" is not a definition and is not enclosed in quotation marks or noted in the section heading.

4.8 DELAYED REPEAL PROVISIONS

The following are examples of common delayed repeal provisions:

Delayed repeal of statutes

Sec. __. Delayed repeal
Section 42-101, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed from and after December 31, 2008.

Note: Delayed repeals of statutory laws and previously enacted temporary laws are included in the bill title.

Delayed repeal of temporary law

Sec. __. Delayed repeal
This act is repealed from and after December 31, 2009.

Note: If a bill contains several sections the drafter must specify the temporary law section by both bill section number and topic as in the following example:

Sec. __. Delayed repeal
Section 23 of this act, relating to the evaluation of child support guidelines, is repealed from and after December 31, 2008.

Note also: If a bill contains several statutory sections a delayed repeal section must specify the statutory section to which it applies rather than the bill section.

Delayed repeal; reversion

Sec. __. Delayed repeal; reversion
This act is repealed and the commission established by it terminates on June 30, 2009, at which time any unexpended or unencumbered monies standing to the credit of the commission revert to the state general fund.

4.9 DELEGATION OF LEGISLATIVE REGULATORY POWER

When drafting a bill giving regulatory powers to an agency, consider the words of the court in the case of State v. Marana Plantations, 75 Ariz. 111, 252 P.2d 87 (1953):

The line of demarcation between what is legitimate granting of power for administrative regulation and an illegitimate delegation of legislative power is often quite dim.... It may safely be said that a statute with no prescribed restraints nor criterion nor guide to its action offends the Constitution as a delegation of legislative power. The board must be corralled in some reasonable degree and must not be permitted to range at large and determine for itself the conditions under which a law should exist and pass the law it thinks appropriate.

4.10 DEPUTY OFFICERS OF STATE AND COUNTY AGENCIES; POWERS

Section 38-462, A.R.S., automatically confers powers to deputy officials that are given to their principals:

A. Unless otherwise provided, each deputy of a state or county officer possesses the powers and may perform the duties prescribed by law for the office of the principal.

B. When the official name of any principal officer is used in law conferring power, or imposing duties, liabilities or prohibitions, it includes the officer's deputies.

4.11 EFFECTIVE DATE AND TIME OF ENACTMENTS

General effective date

As stated in article IV, part 1, § 1 (3), Constitution of Arizona, the general effective date of enactments is the ninety-first day after the date on which the session of the legislature enacting them is adjourned sine die. For example, if the legislature adjourned sine die on May 15, the general effective date would be August 14 the instant after midnight (i.e., 12:01 a.m.). State v. Soloman, 117 Ariz. 228, 571 P.2d 1024 (1977). Exceptions to the general effective date are as follows:

- A bill that has a specific delayed effective date.
- A bill that is conditionally enacted. (See § 4.5.)
- An emergency measure that is passed by a "supermajority" vote of the legislature. (Article IV, part 1, § 1(3), Constitution of Arizona.)
- A supplemental appropriation. (See § 4.2.)
- An act increasing state revenues through new or increased taxes or assessments. (Article IX, § 22, Constitution of Arizona.) (See § 4.16.)

Note: If a law goes into effect during a legislative session because it contained an emergency clause or met "prop. 108" requirements, the drafter must conform bills and amendments that are still being considered during the same session to that now current law.

Conflicting provisions; effect

- An act that purports to take effect on a specified date before the general effective date but that is not a duly enacted emergency measure takes effect on the general effective date notwithstanding the specified date. Industrial Commission v. Frohmiller, 60 Ariz. 464, 140 P.2d 219 (1943).
- A duly enacted emergency measure, a "prop. 108" bill or a support and maintenance bill is immediately effective on approval by the governor, even though it contains a provision stating that it is to become effective on another date.

Note: If a bill is effective immediately on approval of the governor the drafter may make a specific statutory section effective on a later date by stating in the bill section lead in that "section 32-0000, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended effective from and after September 30, 2008, to read:".

Vetoed or unsigned bills; effect

- If the governor does not sign or veto a measure within five days (Sunday excepted) after receipt, the legislature being in session, the measure takes effect on the general effective date.
- An act that is vetoed by the governor and that thereafter is passed by each house by a two-thirds vote takes effect on the general effective date.

- A duly enacted emergency measure or a requirements for enactment measure that is vetoed by the governor within five days (Sunday excepted) after it was presented to the governor and that, after reconsideration, is passed by each house by a three-fourths vote takes effect on the date it is filed with the secretary of state.

- A measure that is not approved or vetoed by the governor or filed with the secretary of state within ten days (Sundays excepted) after the legislature's final adjournment, takes effect on the general effective date.

- If the governor does not sign or veto a duly enacted emergency measure or requirements for enactment measure within five days (Sunday excepted), the legislature being in session, the measure takes effect on the sixth day; if the governor does not file the measure with the secretary of state within ten days (Sundays excepted) after the final adjournment of the legislature, the measure takes effect on the eleventh day.

Time of day statutes take effect

Section 1-241, A.R.S., provides:

A. An act or statute which by its terms is to take effect on a specified day shall, unless otherwise provided in the act or statute, take effect at twelve o'clock noon on the day specified.

B. An act or statute, which by its terms is to take effect from and after a specified day, shall take effect at midnight of the day specified. (Emphasis added.)

For example, an act in statute that takes effect "from and after September 30" takes effect on October 1 at 12:00 a.m.

Emergency clauses

If the sponsor of a bill wants it to become immediately operative on the signature of the governor, the drafter should add an emergency clause, the wording of which is:

Sec. __. Emergency
This act is an emergency measure that is necessary to preserve the public peace, health or safety and is operative immediately as provided by law.

A bill containing an emergency clause must receive a two-thirds vote in each house of the legislature in order for the emergency clause to be effective. If the bill is adopted by less than a two-thirds vote, it is considered as enacted without the emergency clause and, therefore, becomes effective on the general effective date.

Note: An emergency measure cannot be given an effective date, applicable to the entire bill or sections of the bill, other than the date on which the governor signs the bill. An attempt to make an emergency bill effective at a date after the date of enactment, and particularly after the general effective date, will fail, and the act will become "operative" immediately on signature of the governor. Article IV, part 1, § 1 (3), Constitution of Arizona. Industrial Commission v. Frohmiller, 60 Ariz. 464, 140 P.2d 219 (1943). Nevertheless, specific provisions of the bill may be so worded as to become operative at subsequent times. (See Op. Att'y Gen. I82-026.) A typical way to accomplish this is by inserting a date in the statutory or temporary law text. For example, a section could state "BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, 2008, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL...." Note also: The drafter may also use lead-in language in specific bill sections as previously discussed.

Retroactivity of statutes

Section 1-244, A.R.S., requires that the retroactivity of a statute be "expressly declared". However, a statute does have retroactive effect if it is merely procedural and the statute does not affect or impair vested rights. Bouldin v. Turek, 125 Ariz. 77, 607 P.2d 954 (1979). To expressly declare that a statute is effective retroactively the drafter should add a section toward the end of the bill similar to the following:

Sec. __. Retroactivity
This act is effective retroactively to from and after June 30, 2008.

Note: If the retroactivity applies to amended sections instead of new sections, the language should be "applies retroactively".

Effective date for tax measures

In drafting bills that levy a tax or change the way a tax is computed, applied or administered the effective date should reflect accounting and administrative requirements and should be either January 1 (or from and after December 31) or the beginning of another appropriate taxing period. Frequently, income tax acts are given the general effective date but specifically apply retroactively to the entire tax year:

Sec. __. Retroactivity
This act applies retroactively to taxable years beginning from and after December 31, 2006.

Delayed effective date

The following is an example of a delayed effective date:

Sec. __. Effective date
Sections 23-527 and 23-528, Arizona Revised Statutes, as amended by this act, are effective from and after December 31, 2009.

Note: If a bill is effective on the governor's signature (because of an emergency clause or a requirements for enactment clause) the drafter can make a specific section of that bill effective on a later date only by using section introductory language such as "Sec. 2. Section 32-1001, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended effective from and after September 30, 2008, to read:".

Bill title

Effective dates, including delayed effective dates, emergency clauses and requirements for enactment are not noted in the bill title.

4.12 USE OF "THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS SECTION"

If, when drafting a new statute, it is necessary to refer to the effective date of the new section, use the phrase "THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS SECTION".

If, when amending existing statutory text, it is necessary to refer to the effective date of the new amendment, use the phrase "THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS AMENDMENT TO THIS SECTION" rather than "THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS SECTION" which refers to the date the statute was originally enacted.

Note: In new or existing statutory text, do not use the phrase "THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS ACT".

4.13 FINGERPRINTING REQUIREMENTS

The following language allows state agencies access to state and federal criminal record information for noncriminal justice purposes such as licensing, certification and employment:

EACH APPLICANT FOR (state the category of regulation or the type of employment) SHALL SUBMIT A FULL SET OF FINGERPRINTS TO (state the name of the office or agency) FOR THE PURPOSE OF OBTAINING A STATE AND FEDERAL CRIMINAL RECORDS CHECK PURSUANT TO SECTION 41-1750 AND PUBLIC LAW 92-544. THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY MAY EXCHANGE THIS FINGERPRINT DATA WITH THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION.

4.14 FUNDS AND THE RECEIPT AND DEPOSIT OF MONIES

Examples of common clauses used for the receipt and disposition of monies and the establishment of funds, or funds for special purposes, are as follows:

Establishing a state fund

THE (NAME) FUND IS ESTABLISHED CONSISTING OF (SOURCE OF FUNDING). THE (NAME OF AGENCY) SHALL ADMINISTER THE FUND. MONIES IN THE FUND ARE [SUBJECT TO LEGISLATIVE APPROPRIATION] [CONTINUOUSLY APPROPRIATED].

Note: The language establishing a fund must contain a statement regarding the availability of the fund monies to the administering agency. The language should either state that the monies in the fund are "subject to legislative appropriation" or that they are "continuously appropriated".

Common sources of funding are fees collected pursuant to a specific statutory citation, legislative appropriations, civil penalties imposed pursuant to a specific statutory citation, federal monies, and private grants, gifts, contributions and devises.

Also, on specific request of the sponsor, the following clause may be added:

ON NOTICE FROM THE (NAME OF AGENCY) , THE STATE TREASURER SHALL INVEST AND DIVEST MONIES IN THE FUND AS PROVIDED BY SECTION 35-313, AND MONIES EARNED FROM INVESTMENT SHALL BE CREDITED TO THE FUND.

Acceptance of federal monies and private gifts

THE DIRECTOR MAY ACCEPT AND SPEND FEDERAL MONIES AND PRIVATE GRANTS, GIFTS, CONTRIBUTIONS AND DEVISES TO ASSIST IN CARRYING OUT THE PURPOSES OF THIS (TITLE, CHAPTER, ARTICLE, SECTION). THESE MONIES DO NOT REVERT TO THE STATE GENERAL FUND AT THE END OF A FISCAL YEAR.

Disposition of fees; "90/10 boards"

A. THE ALLOPATHIC BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS FUND IS ESTABLISHED CONSISTING OF [FEES COLLECTED PURSUANT TO SECTION 00-0000]. THE BOARD SHALL ADMINISTER THE FUND. THE BOARD SHALL DEPOSIT, PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 35-146 AND 35-147, NINETY PER CENT OF ALL MONIES COLLECTED UNDER THIS CHAPTER IN THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS FUND AND THE REMAINING TEN PER CENT IN THE STATE GENERAL FUND.

B. MONIES DEPOSITED IN THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS FUND ARE SUBJECT TO SECTION 35-143.01.

Note: These special funds are subject to annual legislative appropriation pursuant to § 35-143.01, A.R.S. Even though these monies are administered by the board, expenditures from the fund cannot exceed the authorized appropriation. Note also: Pursuant to § 35-143.01, A.R.S., monies in special funds are automatically exempt from lapsing to the state general fund. Therefore, a nonlapsing clause is unnecessary.

Note also that the reference as in the above example to §§ 35-146 and 35-147, A.R.S., is not included if the monies are:

- From a federal funding source that is otherwise required to remain separate from state treasury monies. (See § 35-142, subsections G and H, A.R.S.)
- Taxes received by the state treasurer from a county. (See § 35-145, A.R.S.)
- Private monies and contributions. (See § 35-149, A.R.S.)
- Received by statutorily created authorities.

Note also that an agency may not charge or collect a fee unless the fee is for a specific activity expressly authorized by statute. (See § 41-1008, A.R.S.)

Nonlapsing clauses for non-90/10 board funds

Funds that are subject to legislative appropriation or continuously appropriated can be made nonlapsing by stating:

MONIES IN THE FUND ARE EXEMPT FROM THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 35-190 RELATING TO LAPSING OF APPROPRIATIONS[, EXCEPT THAT ALL MONIES IN THE FUND EXCEEDING _____ DOLLARS REVERT TO THE STATE GENERAL FUND].

The drafter should note this clause by adding "; exemption" at the end of the section heading.

Revolving funds

Revolving funds are established for specific administrative purposes. They are rarely used. Procedures for establishing an administrative revolving fund are contained in § 35-193, A.R.S. Note: The term "revolving" does not make a fund continuously appropriated and does not exempt the fund balance from lapsing.

Transfer of fund monies

The following illustrates the transfer of fund monies:

Sec. __. Transfer of fund monies
On the effective date of this act, all monies in the data processing fund are transferred to the automation fund.

Proper citation of a fund

To cite a fund that is established in another statutory section the drafter should refer to the "(EXACT NAME OF FUND) ESTABLISHED BY SECTION ____". If the other statute only provides authority for an entity to establish the fund, refer to the "(EXACT NAME OF FUND) ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SECTION ____". Do not use "FUND ESTABLISHED IN SECTION ____".

4.15 HEADING CHANGE

A bill may redesignate or repeal a statutory title, chapter or article heading as in the following examples:

Sec. __. Heading change
The article heading of title 42, chapter 1, article 2.1, Arizona Revised Statutes, is changed from "DIVISION OF APPRAISAL AND ASSESSMENT STANDARDS" to "CLASSIFICATIONS OF PROPERTY".

Sec. __. Heading repeal
The article heading of former title 36, chapter 15, article 1, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed.

A heading repeal is included in the bill title. A change in a title, chapter or article heading is included in the bill title as follows:

. . . CHANGING THE DESIGNATION OF TITLE 24, CHAPTER 2, ARTICLE 10, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, TO "GUIDE DOGS";

4.16 INCREASES IN STATE REVENUES; SUPERMAJORITY VOTE REQUIRED (PROP. 108)

Article IX, § 22, Constitution of Arizona, requires that if an act provides for a net increase in state revenues through a new tax, tax increase, change in a tax exemption, new or increased fee or assessment, elimination of an exemption to a fee or assessment or a change in state tax revenue allocations among state and local governments, it must receive a two-thirds vote of the members of each house of the legislature and is effective immediately on the governor's signature. These bills are often called "prop. 108" bills in reference to the 1992 ballot proposition that enacted this constitutional provision.

Bill drafters must make the initial determination whether the legislation is or might be subject to article IX, § 22. If so, the drafter must add the following section at the end of the bill:

Sec. _____. Requirements for enactment; two-thirds vote
Pursuant to article IX, section 22, Constitution of Arizona, this act is effective only on the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of each house of the legislature and is effective immediately on the signature of the governor or, if the governor vetoes this act, on the subsequent affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the members of each house of the legislature.

Note: Bills that require a two-thirds vote go into effect on the day the governor signs the bill into law. Therefore, if the bill also contains effective date sections or a conditional enactment, these sections have no effect.

Note also: The inclusion of a requirements for enactment section is not noted in the bill title.

4.17 INTERSTATE COMPACTS

An interstate compact is an agreement between two or more states on interstate policy or procedure. To ensure enforceability, compacts are usually enacted into the laws of the compacting states.

As a general rule, an interstate compact should be enacted as identical text by each state except as required to accommodate the unique needs and internal operation of the compact in each state. Even though a draft compact may not conform to Arizona bill drafting rules, every attempt should be made to preserve the uniform expression of the provisions. Changes to correct spelling and other manifest clerical and technical errors and minor form and style conformity issues may be acceptable, but the drafter should keep in mind that text variance from state to state tends to undermine the unity and utility of the interstate agreement.

The entire compact is given a single A.R.S. section number such as:

17-502. Wildlife violator compact

FOLLOWS:

(insert text of compact, including numbering and formatting)

If an existing state officer or department is to function for purposes of an interstate compact, that authority should be established in a separate A.R.S. section following the text of the compact:

30-722. Administration

THE RADIATION REGULATORY AGENCY IS DESIGNATED AS THE AGENCY RESPONSIBLE FOR PERFORMING ANY ADMINISTRATIVE AND ENFORCEMENT DUTIES ASSIGNED TO THIS STATE BY THE SOUTHWESTERN
LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE DISPOSAL COMPACT.

4.18 JUDICIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

Administrative review

Except as provided in § 41-1092.02, A.R.S. uniform administrative hearing procedures apply to all appealable agency actions and contested cases. These procedures are found in title 41, chapter 6, article 10 and include hearing requirements and requirements for notice, service and review of administrative decisions.

If the drafter does not want these procedures to apply to administrative decisions of a particular state agency or to particular decisions made by a state agency, the drafter should add the exemption to § 41-1092.02, A.R.S.

Note: For clarity, if a state agency is subject to title 41, chapter 6, article 10, the drafter should cite title 41, chapter 6, article 10.

Note also that if a state agency is exempt from title 41, chapter 6, article 10, the drafter should cite the administrative procedures that do apply. (For example, title 41, chapter 6, article 6, A.R.S.)

Judicial review

Final administrative decisions of state agencies are subject to judicial review pursuant to title 12, chapter 7, article 6, A.R.S. Section 41-1092.08, subsection H, A.R.S., provides certain exceptions to judicial review for agencies that are subject to uniform administrative hearing procedures. (See title 41, chapter 6, article 10, A.R.S.)

The drafter may use the following language to provide for judicial review of administrative decisions:

If an agency is subject to title 41, chapter 6, article 10, A.R.S.:

EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 41-1092.08, SUBSECTION H, A DECISION OF THE DEPARTMENT IS SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW PURSUANT TO TITLE 12, CHAPTER 7, ARTICLE 6.

If an agency is not subject to title 41, chapter 6, article 10, A.R.S.:

A DECISION OF THE DEPARTMENT IS SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW PURSUANT TO TITLE 12, CHAPTER 7, ARTICLE 6.

4.19 LEGISLATIVE INTENT; FINDINGS SECTIONS

General rule

Intent sections (also called "purpose" or "legislative findings" sections) should not be used in a bill. There are several reasons for this general rule:

- Redundancy. Because each draft should include all provisions that are necessary to carry out legislative intent in the substantive text of the draft, a statement of intent, purpose or findings that mirrors the substantive text is redundant and thus unnecessary.
- Conflict. A statement of intent, purpose or findings that is initially drafted to be in harmony with substantive provisions of a bill may become irrelevant to or in direct conflict with the provisions as subsequently amended. If the statement is not, at the time of the amendment, also amended or repealed, the existence of the statement may confuse the status of the law.
- Misuse of undefined terms. A statement of intent, purpose or findings that purports to state the goal of the proposed legislation may do so by using undefined terms that differ from the terms used in substantive provisions of the bill. The undefined terms may be used later by a court to interpret the act's substantive language either more broadly or more narrowly than was intended. See Friends of Mammoth v. Board of Super. of Mono City, 104 Cal. Rptr. 761, 502 P.2d 1049 (1979), in which the court construed the undefined term "project" by using a broad legislative intent statement, achieving a result that appears to be significantly at odds with the act's substantive language.
- Unforeseen effects. A statement of intent, purpose or findings may include provisions that directly or indirectly grant rights, prohibit actions or are otherwise substantive in nature, having unforeseen effects on other, seemingly unrelated laws.

- Judicial and administrative misuse of argumentative language. A statement of intent, purpose or findings may contain language intended to promote the merits of a bill. If the language is construed by a court in the context of rights or privileges accorded in the substantive provisions of the act, the court's interpretation may yield a result that may not have been intended. See Protective Placement of D.E.R., 155 Wis. 2d 240 (1990), in which the court interpreted a phrase within a legislative intent statement that included sweeping language about protecting individuals to mean that a developmentally disabled individual is entitled to be protectively placed in an environment that requires funding by the county over and above federal, state and county matching monies.

Exceptions

An intent clause may be useful only under the following circumstances:

- Recodification. If a bill only recodifies existing law without making any substantive changes, a statement of legislative intent may clarify this fact.
- Constitutionality. If there is reasonable probability that a provision of a bill may be declared unconstitutional and that it may help to sustain the provision if the courts are aware of the asserted constitutional basis for the provision or if the courts are aware of certain facts or policy, a statement of legislative intent may indicate compliance with constitutional requirements that is not otherwise apparent. Also, a statement of legislative purpose or intent may counter an allegation of unreasonableness or arbitrariness by indicating a rational basis for action by the legislature. See 1A Sutherland Statutory Construction §§ 20:3 to 20:5 (6th Ed.).

Required use

- Section 41-2955, A.R.S., requires that the enabling legislation for each new agency contain a purpose section stating the objectives of the programs. A purpose clause is also required for the rescheduling of each agency for a new ten year cycle. The purpose clause is meant to assist the auditor general to determine if an agency is meeting its legislative mandate.

The following is an example of a purpose section used in the continuation of an agency:

Sec. __. Purpose

Pursuant to section 41-2955, subsection B, Arizona Revised Statutes, the legislature continues the board of technical registration to promote the public safety and welfare by regulating architects, assayers, engineers, geologists, home inspectors, landscape architects and land surveyors.

Note: For new agencies the citation is to § 41-2955, subsection E.

- Section 41-1107, A.R.S., requires that "all legislation that diminishes a previous grant of authority to a political subdivision of this state shall contain an intent clause that explains the reason for the diminution of authority."

- Section 43-223, A.R.S., requires that the enabling legislation for any new individual or corporate income tax credit contain a purpose clause that explains the rationale and objective of the tax credit.

Note: If an intent or legislative findings section is used, it should not include argumentative material or provisions granting rights, prohibiting actions or otherwise creating substantive law and should pertain only to the particular law in question. This section should appear as nonstatutory text at or near the end of a bill. (See § 2.10.)

4.20 LIBERAL INTERPRETATION SECTIONS

A basic rule of statutory construction is that statutes are liberally construed to accomplish legislative intent and to avoid making the statute constitutionally invalid. Thus, the drafter need not include a "liberal interpretation section" in preparing a bill. A statement of this rule is included in § 1-211, A.R.S.

4.21 LICENSURE, CERTIFICATION AND REGISTRATION

Consistent and limited meanings apply to the three separate categories of authorization that distinguish the regulation of occupations.

Licensing is a process by which an agency of government grants permission to a person to engage in a given occupation on finding that the applicant has attained the minimal degree of competency required to ensure that the public health, safety and welfare will be reasonably protected. Licensing makes it illegal for anyone who does not hold a valid license to engage in the occupation covered by the statute.

Certification is a form of regulation that grants recognition to persons who have met predetermined qualifications. Only those who meet the qualifications may legally use the designated title. However, noncertified persons may offer similar services to the public if they do not describe themselves as being "certified". Certification is especially appropriate if the public needs assistance in identifying competent practitioners, but the public risks are not severe enough to warrant licensure.

Registration is the least restrictive alternative form of regulation. Registration requires that a person file that person's name and address with a designated agency. There may also be a registration requirement in combination with minimum practice standards determined by the regulatory agency. The former type of regulation would simply provide a list of registrants while the latter would subject registrants to minimum standards.

4.22 NONSEVERABILITY AND SEVERABILITY CLAUSES

Nonseverability

On occasion the legislature wants an act either to stand or fall as one unit. To avoid a court interpretation that might allow an act to continue in force after a portion is invalidated the drafter should insert a nonseverability clause at or near the end of the bill similar to the following:

Sec. __. Nonseverability
If any portion of this act is finally adjudicated invalid, the entire act is void.

Note: Section 1-252, A.R.S., does not apply if an act becomes invalid under a nonseverability clause. All former laws repealed by the invalid act are revived. An invalid statute that purports to repeal a prior statute is ineffective to do so. See Selective Life Ins. Co. v. Equitable Life Assur. Soc. of U.S., 101 Ariz. 594, 422 P.2d 710 (1967).

Severability

A severability clause is unnecessary for legal purposes because the courts have repeatedly ruled that regardless of the presence or absence of a severability clause they will sever invalid portions from an otherwise valid act whenever possible. See Cohen v. State, 121 Ariz. 6, 588 P.2d 299 (1978). However, severability provisions are occasionally used even though they add no legal effect to the bill. If requested, the drafter should use the following:

Sec. __. Severability
If a provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

4.23 "NOTWITHSTANDING" CLAUSES

To state an exception to existing law, the drafter may introduce language with "NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER LAW.", "NOTWITHSTANDING ANY LAW TO THE CONTRARY.", "NOTWITHSTANDING ANY STATUTE TO THE CONTRARY," or "NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER STATUTE.". Do not say "Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary".

Note: Whenever possible the drafter should find those statutes that conflict with the new provision and refer to them specifically or conform them with the new provision. An accumulation of "notwithstanding" clauses can result in a series of overlapping laws superseding each other. In at least one state (Illinois) the courts have held that the text of the section that contains the contradictory provision must also be amended in the same bill.

Note: To avoid confusion, do not use an "except as provided" clause that refers back to the "notwithstanding clause".

4.24 OPEN MEETINGS

Section 38-431.01, A.R.S., provides that meetings of a public body must be open to the public. "Public body" is defined in § 38-431, A.R.S. If any doubt exists whether an agency is a public body, the bill should specify whether the agency is subject to the open meetings law.

4.25 PENALTIES; CIVIL AND CRIMINAL

The need for a penalty provision depends on the nature of the bill. Existing statutes should be checked carefully to determine whether a penalty already exists for the particular offense or action.

Penalties may be civil or criminal, or both. A civil penalty may be imposed by a public officer or agency, it may give an injured person a cause of action against the offender or it may suspend or revoke a license or permit to do business. If the criminal provision of a bill relates to a single section, it is customary to insert the criminal code penalty classification within that section as the last subsection.

Except in the case of strict liability crimes (regulatory offenses not requiring a particular mental state for guilt), all criminal offenses should require one of the four mental states defined in § 13-105, A.R.S.

Civil and criminal penalty provisions

- The following are two examples of civil penalty provisions:

AFTER A HEARING, THE BOARD MAY IMPOSE A CIVIL PENALTY OF NOT MORE THAN _____ DOLLARS AGAINST A LICENSEE WHO KNOWINGLY VIOLATES THIS CHAPTER. THE BOARD SHALL DEPOSIT, PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 35-146 AND 35-147, PENALTIES COLLECTED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION IN THE _____ FUND.

THE BOARD MAY REVOKE OR SUSPEND THE LICENSE OF A DENTIST WHO PERMITS A DENTAL HYGIENIST WHO IS OPERATING UNDER THE DENTIST'S SUPERVISION TO PERFORM AN OPERATION OTHER THAN AS PERMITTED UNDER THIS ARTICLE.

Note: Add ": civil penalty" to the section heading unless the civil penalty is just one of several disciplinary measures or penalties.

- The following are two examples of criminal penalty provisions:

A. A PERSON COMMITS TRESPASS ON PUBLIC LAND BY INJURING ANY WOOD OR TIMBER GROWING ON STATE LAND OR BY CARRYING AWAY ANY SOIL ON OR UNDER THE SURFACE OF THAT LAND.

B. TRESPASSING ON PUBLIC LAND IS A CLASS 3 MISDEMEANOR.

A PERSON WHO VIOLATES THIS ARTICLE IS GUILTY OF A CLASS 2 MISDEMEANOR.

Note: Add ": classification" to the section heading. Note also: Use the singular "classification" even if there is more than one criminal offense classification.

Note: State a criminal penalty as a classified offense (e.g., "class 3 felony") instead of as a specific penalty ("imprisonment for 2 to 7 years and a fine of up to $150,000").

Fines versus penalties

For drafting purposes it is important to note the distinction between penalties and fines if the legislative intent is to impose monetary sanctions as a result of prohibited activity. The Arizona supreme court has held that "penalty" and "fine" are not the same in law. Frazier v. Terrill, 65 Ariz. 131, 175 P.2d 438 (1946). The term "fine" must always be used in the context of criminal activity.

Criminal offenses; penalties

Criminal offenses are divided into six felony classifications, three misdemeanor classifications and petty offenses. Except for class 1 felonies, there is a presumptive term of imprisonment for each felony. This term may be increased or decreased depending on the nature of the offense, the defendant's criminal history and the existence of any mitigating or aggravating circumstances. Fines may also be imposed. Fines for enterprises are set out in § 13-804, A.R.S. Prison terms and maximum fines for individuals are prescribed in §§ 13-701 and 13-801, A.R.S.

All lesser offenses are termed "petty offenses", with no imprisonment authorized and a maximum fine of $300. Any offense defined outside the criminal code that lacks either designation as a felony or misdemeanor or specification of the classification or the penalty is a petty offense. (See § 13-602, A.R.S.)

4.26 POPULATION

If a bill applies different standards to different categories of locations measured by population, the drafter should use language that refers to "a (county) (city) with a population of (less than) (more than) _____ (million) (thousand) persons".

Note: The word "population" is defined in § 1-215, A.R.S., as meaning "the population according to the most recent United States decennial census". This definition applies to all of the statutes and laws of this state. Note also that at times a bill should use language that refers to both the most recent United States decennial census and the most recent special census. This is usually necessary when a bill distributes tax revenues or apportions monies. (See §§ 28-6532 and 42-5029, A.R.S.) The population for each county according to the United States 2000 census is as follows:

Apache: 69,423; Cochise: 117,755; Coconino: 116,320; Gila: 51,335;
Graham: 33,489; Greenlee: 8,547; La Paz: 19,715; Maricopa: 3,072,149;
Mohave: 155,032; Navajo: 97,470; Pima: 843,746; Pinal: 179,727; Santa Cruz: 38,381; Yavapai: 167,517; Yuma: 160,026

4.27 PREEMPTION

The following is an example of language the drafter should use if the drafter is asked to provide for state preemption. Note that "state preemption" is included in the section heading:

3-243. Seed labeling regulation: state preemption
THE REGULATION AND USE OF SEEDS ARE OF STATEWIDE CONCERN. THE REGULATION OF SEEDS PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE AND THEIR USE IS NOT SUBJECT TO FURTHER REGULATION BY A COUNTY, CITY, TOWN OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THIS STATE.

4.28 PROCUREMENT CODE; EXEMPTION

Spending public money for goods and services is governed by the procurement code. The applicability of the code and certain exemptions to it are found in title 41, chapter 23, A.R.S.

An exemption from the procurement code is usually for a limited duration and is thus typically in temporary law. The following language illustrates this exemption:

Sec. __. Exemption from the procurement code
For the purposes of this act, the department of economic security is exempt from the procurement code requirements of title 41, chapter 23, Arizona Revised Statutes, for one year after the effective date of this act.

Note: Section 35-729, A.R.S., is an example of a permanent exemption in statutory law.

4.29 QUORUM; JOINT AUTHORITY OF BOARD OR COMMISSION MEMBERS

Section 1-216, A.R.S., provides:

A. Words purporting to give a joint authority to three or more public officers or other persons shall be construed as giving the authority to a majority of the officers or persons unless it is otherwise expressly declared in the law giving the authority.

B. A majority of a board or commission shall constitute a quorum.

This statute incorporates the general law that both a majority of the persons given authority to act and a quorum of those persons (not a majority of a quorum of those persons) are essential for valid administrative, legislative or other action. It is not necessary to restate this rule when establishing a new public body. However, the number necessary to act or the number necessary to constitute a quorum, or both, may be set by the legislature at something other than a majority.

4.30 REFERENCES TO NONSTATUTORY ENTITIES

The drafter should not make statutory reference to specific entities that are not established by this state's laws. As an alternative the drafter should make general references such as "a national association of retired persons" instead of "the national association of retired persons". This not only limits the possibility of an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority but avoids inaccurate citations to entities that may change over time without the legislature's knowledge or approval.

4.31 RULES

Authority to make rules

The following language authorizes a state agency to make rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act:

THE (NAME OF AGENCY) MAY ADOPT RULES PURSUANT TO TITLE 41, CHAPTER 6 TO CARRY OUT THIS (CHAPTER) (ARTICLE) (SECTION).

Exemption from rules

An exemption from the rule making requirements of title 41 is drafted as temporary law since it is for a limited duration. The following language illustrates this exemption:

Sec. __. Exemption from rule making

For the purposes of this act, the department of health services is exempt from the rule making requirements of title

41, chapter 6, Arizona Revised Statutes, for one year after the effective date of this act.

Note: The above language extends a blanket exemption. The drafter may modify the exemption by adding language to require the agency to publish otherwise exempted rules or to provide the public with an opportunity to comment on the proposed rules.

Note also that the drafter should amend § 41-1005, A.R.S., to enact permanent exemptions from the administrative procedure act.

Retention of rules

In transferring administrative functions from one agency to another, the drafter should consider including language to retain current rules, such as:

Sec. __. Retention of rules

All rules adopted by the department of health services pursuant to section 36-1300, as repealed by this act, remain in full force until amended by the department of economic security.

(See also § 4.39.)

4.32 SAVING CLAUSES

A saving clause preserves rights and duties that have already matured and proceedings that have already begun. Since a repeal could otherwise destroy rights or obligations, the saving clause must be tailored to the needs of the particular case.

It is usually unnecessary to include a saving clause because of the general applicability of §§ 1-249 and 1-252, A.R.S.:

1-249. Repealing act; effect on pending action or accrued right

No action or proceeding commenced before a repealing act takes effect, and no right accrued is affected by the repealing act, but proceedings therein shall conform to the new act so far as applicable.

1-252. Repeal of repealing statute; effect

The repeal or abrogation of a statute, law or rule does not revive the former statute, law or rule theretofore repealed or abrogated, nor does it affect any right then already existing or accrued at the time of such repeal, nor any action or proceeding theretofore taken, except such as may be provided in the subsequent repealing statute, nor shall it affect any private statute not expressly repealed thereby.

Nevertheless, the absence of a saving clause in at least one instance has required remedial action by a special session of the legislature (Laws 1922, first special session, chapters 26 and 26-A). In every instance it is important to consider whose direct and collateral rights and duties, including the state's rights, may be affected by the bill.

The following are examples of saving clauses affecting civil and criminal legislation:

Sec. __. Saving clause

This act does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred and proceedings that were begun before the effective date of this act.

Sec. __. Saving clause

This act does not affect any devise made by a will executed before the effective date of this act.

Sec. __. Saving clause

This act does not apply to any offense committed before the effective date of this act. Any such offense is punishable as provided by the statute in force at the time the offense was committed.

"Grandfather" clauses

Another type of saving clause is frequently referred to as a "grandfather" clause because it permits those persons already practicing in a profession or business to continue in that capacity even though they may not be able to meet the new law's specifications or qualifications. An example of the "grandfather" clause is:

Sec. __. Current licensees

The board of barber examiners shall issue a license to practice as a barber to any person who holds a valid license to practice barbering in this state on the effective date of this act and who on the expiration of this license pays the required fee and files a medical certificate.

4.33 SHORT TITLE

The use of a designated short title in Arizona bill drafting is rare. It is occasionally used in bills based on uniform or model acts or in reference to federal law. The short title is usually placed near the end of a bill and is not assigned a section number in the A.R.S. since it is not substantive law. The initial letter of the first word and initial letters of all important words of a short title are capitalized. An example of a short title is:

Sec. __. Short title

Title 12, chapter 16, article 1, Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, may be cited as the "Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act".

Note: The drafter should modify a model act to conform it with this state's bill drafting conventions and cite it, for example, as the "Revised Arizona Probate Code" instead of the "Uniform Probate Code".

4.34 STATUTORY BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES AND COUNCILS

Placement

If a public body is to fulfill an ongoing duty of an unlimited duration, the drafter should place the language that creates it in statutory law. Typical of these kind of entities are the boards that regulate professions and occupations in title 32, A.R.S.

Sunset

The drafter must include a "sunset" provision in the bill unless the board, commission or committee is part of an agency that is already on a sunset schedule. (See § 4.36.)

Checklist

When creating a board the drafter should consult relevant provisions of the checklist found in § 4.3. Note: Unlike temporary committee members, board members typically do receive compensation "in the amount of _____ dollars per day for each day of actual service in the business of the board and all expenses necessarily incurred in attending board meetings" or "as prescribed by section 38-611".

Appointment of board, commission, committee or council member by legislature

Drafters should be careful in establishing a board, commission, committee or council that performs an executive function where the legislature appoints members. If the legislature appoints a majority of the members, a possible violation of the separation of powers doctrine may occur. See State ex rel. Woods v. Block, 189 Ariz. 269, 942 P.2d 428 (1997).

Initial terms of members; terms of additional members

Initial terms of appointed members or of additional members should be staggered. The provision prescribing their term of office appears near the end of a bill in temporary law in the following style:

Sec. __. Initial terms of members of (name of board, commission, committee or council)

A. Notwithstanding section ____ (insert number of section establishing terms of members), Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, the (initial) terms of (additional) members of ____ are:

1. One term ending January ____, 2009.
2. Two terms ending January ____, 2010.

B. The _____ (insert governor or appropriate official) shall make all subsequent appointments as prescribed by statute.

Note: If a person is appointed pursuant to § 38-211, A.R.S., add "on the third Monday in" before "January".

If it is uncertain when a committee will form, or if there are multiple appointing authorities, the law itself may allow the initial members to draw lots to determine among themselves the initial staggered terms:

THE INITIAL MEMBERS SHALL ASSIGN THEMSELVES BY LOT TO TERMS OF TWO, FOUR AND SIX YEARS IN OFFICE. ALL SUBSEQUENT MEMBERS SERVE SIX YEAR TERMS OF OFFICE. THE CHAIRPERSON SHALL NOTIFY THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE ON APPOINTMENTS OF THESE TERMS.

New terms for previously appointed committee members

If prescribing new terms for appointive members, provide for the transition in session law, taking into account the expiration dates of terms of present members, the number of members and whether the new terms are longer or shorter or an odd or even number of years. The following is an example in which an eight member board is retained, but the term of office is changed from eight years to four years:

Sec. __. Terms of board members

A. Notwithstanding section 15-1621, Arizona Revised Statutes, as amended by this act, a person who is serving as a member of the Arizona board of regents on the effective date of this act is eligible to continue to serve until expiration of the current term of office.

B. On the expiration of the term in January, 2008 of two members of the Arizona board of regents, the governor shall appoint two members pursuant to section 38-211, Arizona Revised Statutes, for a term beginning January 19, 2008 and ending January 15, 2012.

C. On the expiration of the term in January, 2009 of two members of the Arizona board of regents, the governor shall appoint two members pursuant to section 38-211, Arizona Revised Statutes, for a term beginning January 17, 2009 and ending January 20, 2013. Thereafter, the governor shall appoint two members pursuant to section 38-211, Arizona Revised Statutes, for terms beginning on the third Monday of January of the year of the expiration of the term and ending on the third Monday of January four years thereafter.

Election of officers previously appointed

If prescribing the election of officers previously serving by appointment, take into account the effective date of the act (or constitutional amendment), general election dates, the beginning and expiration dates of terms of present members, the number of members and whether the new terms are longer or shorter or for an odd or even number of years.

Vacancies

If specific terms of office are not set forth, § 38-295, A.R.S., provides that:

A. Every officer whose term is not fixed by law shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointing power.

B. Every officer shall continue to discharge the duties of the office, although the term has expired, until a successor has qualified. The discharge of the duties of office for appointments requiring senate confirmation shall be governed by section 38-211.

C. Vacancies occurring in an office, or in the membership of a board or commission, shall be filled only for the unexpired term of the officer or member.

Article V, § 8, Constitution of Arizona, provides that when any office becomes vacant and no method is provided by the constitution or by statute for filling the vacancy the governor may appoint someone to fill the vacancy.

Procedures to be used when a vacancy occurs in the legislature are set out in title 41, chapter 7, article 7, A.R.S.

Retention of members

Often in bills providing for the reorganization of state functions it is appropriate to clarify the effect on appointed officials. The following examples illustrate how to continue certain terms:

Sec. __. Retention of members

All persons serving as members of a board, council or commission on the effective date of this act whose board, council or commission is retained as a part of the department of economic security may continue to serve until expiration of their normal terms.

Sec. __. Terms of state officers

Notwithstanding any other statute, all terms of state officers appointed pursuant to section 38-211, Arizona Revised Statutes, that are in effect on the effective date of this act expire on the third Monday in January next following the year in which the term would otherwise expire.

Sec. __. Retention of members

Notwithstanding section 32-1502, Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, all persons serving as members of the naturopathic physicians board of medical examiners on the effective date of this act may continue to serve until the expiration of their normal terms. The governor shall make all subsequent appointments as prescribed by statute.

Abolishing an office; restrictions

If a bill has the effect of abolishing an office, the drafter should be aware of § 1-251, A.R.S., which provides:

A person who at the time an act takes effect holds office under a law repealed by such act continues to hold the office according to the tenure of the law repealed, unless the duties of the office are expressly transferred to some other office.

This provision cannot be avoided by abolishing an office and then establishing a new office with similar duties. An existing officeholder's term will not be terminated unless the new office to which the officer's duties are transferred has substantially new, different or additional functions or powers. Ahearn v. Bailey, 104 Ariz. 250, 451 P.2d 30 (1969). Moreover, the legislature cannot abolish, prescribe additional qualifications for or otherwise circumvent constitutionally prescribed powers and duties of offices established by the state constitution.

4.35 SUNRISE LEGISLATION

Regulation of health professions

If a bill would regulate a health profession that is now unregulated by this state or would increase the scope of practice of a board-regulated health profession, the drafter should be aware of title 32, chapter 31, A.R.S. That chapter prescribes the requirements that applicants for either initial regulation or an increased scope of practice must meet.

Mandated health coverage

If a bill would mandate certain health coverage as a component of individual or group health insurance policies, the drafter should be aware of the reporting requirements of title 20, chapter 1, article 3, A.R.S.

4.36 SUNSET LEGISLATION

Under state law each new and existing agency has no more than a ten-year life span, at the end of which the agency is subject to a sunset review. Title 41, chapter 27, A.R.S., sets out the sunset conditions and procedures, and article 2 of that chapter establishes the sunset schedule for the various agencies.

Each agency is assigned a sunset statute, for example:

41-3014.12. Board of cosmetology; termination July 1, 2014

A. The board of cosmetology terminates on July 1, 2014.

B. Title 32, chapter 5 is repealed on January 1, 2015.

This sample sunset statute illustrates several unique features that should be addressed in each bill that establishes a new agency or changes an agency's sunset termination date:

- The section number corresponds to the year of the sunset termination. In the sample statute, § 41-3014.12 corresponds with the year 2014. All agencies that terminate in 2014 were assigned a statute section in the 41-3014.__ series.
- The agency terminates "on July 1" of the appropriate year.
- The enabling statutes for the agency are repealed six months later "on January 1" of the following year under the assumption that even though the agency is officially terminated, it may still require continuing statutory existence while it concludes its affairs.

To change an agency's sunset date the drafter must repeal the existing sunset statute and enact a new statute with a section number corresponding to the new termination year. The following illustrates how to extend an agency for ten years:

Section 1. Repeal

Section 41-3008.04, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed.

Sec. 2. Title 41, chapter 27, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended by adding section 41-3018.04, to read:

41-3018.04. Board of respiratory care examiners;

termination July 1, 2018

A. THE BOARD OF RESPIRATORY CARE EXAMINERS TERMINATES ON JULY 1, 2018.

B. TITLE 32, CHAPTER 35 IS REPEALED ON JANUARY 1, 2019.

Sec. 3. Purpose

Pursuant to section 41-2955, subsection B, Arizona Revised Statutes, the legislature continues the board of respiratory care examiners to regulate the practice of respiratory care for the public health, safety and welfare.

Sec. 4. Retroactivity

Sections 1 and 2 of this act are effective retroactively to July 1, 2008.

Note: For purposes of drafting sunset legislation:

Always number a ten-year sunset continuation section so that it ends in the same number as the number assigned to the current sunset section (.04 in the above example).

Always number a ten-year sunset section for a new agency so that it ends as .01 regardless of any other bill that may also add that same section number. After the legislative session is over, the legislative council will renumber any duplicate section numbers.

For a sunset continuation or a sunset section for a new agency that is scheduled for review in any other year, always number the sunset section so that it ends in the next available number for the year in which the sunset is scheduled. After the legislative session is over, the legislative council will renumber any duplicate section numbers.

Note: Always check the statutory reference and any applicable recommended statute improvement note to make sure a name change has not occurred since the last sunset legislation.

Since sunset legislation usually becomes effective on the general effective date, it is usually necessary to include a retroactivity provision relating back to July 1, the date the agency terminates. Without it there would be a hiatus between July 1 and the general effective date during which the existence and authority of the agency could be called into question.

Section 41-2955, A.R.S., requires legislation that establishes a new agency or continues an existing agency to contain a statement of policy, purpose or objectives of the agency. (See § 4.19.)

New program termination

The drafter must also be aware that § 41-3102, A.R.S., requires that "[a]ny new program that is established by the legislature shall include in its enabling legislation a specific expiration date for the program that is not more than ten years after the effective date of the program's enabling legislation." Section 41-3101, A.R.S., defines "program" as "functions and activities of a state agency or within a state agency that are preplanned to fulfill a distinct mission".

The drafter will need to carefully determine on a case-by-case basis if this section applies to a particular bill. If the bill includes a sunset section it is not necessary to also include the requirements of § 41-3102, A.R.S.

If the drafter or the sponsor believes that a bill contains a new program, the drafter should include the following language:

THE PROGRAM ESTABLISHED BY THIS (SUBSECTION, PARAGRAPH, SECTION, ARTICLE, CHAPTER) ENDS ON JULY 1, 20__ PURSUANT TO SECTION 41-3102.

Note: To avoid confusion, the drafter should not use the word "program" if the legislation does not in fact establish a new program.

Note also that the drafter must add "; program termination" to the appropriate section heading.

Review of new income tax credits

The drafter should also be aware that § 43-223, A.R.S., requires that "[a]ny new individual or corporate income tax credit that is enacted by the legislature shall include in its enabling legislation...a specific review year for the joint legislative income tax credit review committee to review the credit." The drafter should amend § 43-222, A.R.S., to include a reference to the statutory section establishing the tax credit and the year the tax credit is to be reviewed. The specific review year must be the fifth full calendar year following the date the credit is enacted.

4.37 TAX MEASURES; REQUIRED STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES

Article IX, §§ 3 and 9, Constitution of Arizona, require that laws that impose, continue or revive a tax must distinctly state the tax and the objects for which it shall be applied.

The Arizona supreme court has held that this requirement relates only to measures imposing a property tax and not to measures imposing an excise tax. See Hunt v. Callaghan, 32 Ariz. 235, 257 P. 648 (1927).

4.38 TRANSFER OF COST OF PROGRAM FROM POLITICAL SUBDIVISION TO STATE; REDUCTION OF EXPENDITURES AND ADJUSTMENT OF TAX REVENUES

If a bill provides for the transfer of the cost of a program to the state and fails to require that tax revenues of the political subdivision be commensurately reduced, the new state obligation would be subject to the seven percent spending limitation imposed by article IX, § 17, Constitution of Arizona. In addition, article IX, § 17, Constitution of Arizona, allows the state to adjust the seven percent limit during the first fiscal year of the transfer. To enable the economic estimates commission to make the adjustment, in the case of a legislative transfer the effective date prescribed by the bill should be July 1, the beginning date of the fiscal year following the fiscal year beginning July 1 in which the bill is proposed for enactment.

The drafter should include provisions similar to the following temporary law sections in an act transferring program costs from a political subdivision to the state. Please note that the following is only an example. Each situation involving a transfer will be unique:

Sec. __. Reduction of expenditures and adjustment of tax revenues

A. To adjust for the transfer of the cost of the () program to the state, the (political subdivision) shall commensurately decrease tax revenues under article IX, section 17, Constitution of Arizona.

B. Not later than October 1, 20__, the economic estimates commission shall adjust the state appropriation percentage limitation in the manner prescribed by article IX, section 17, Constitution of Arizona, and report this adjustment to the legislature.

Sec. __. Effective date

Sections __, __ and __ of this act are effective on July 1, 20__.

4.39 TRANSFER OF PERSONNEL, EQUIPMENT AND MONIES; TRANSFER AND SUCCESSION OF POWERS

Transfer of personnel, equipment and monies

The following are examples of provisions for the transfer of personnel, equipment and monies between agencies or from an old agency to a new or successor agency:

Sec. __. Succession

A. As provided by this act, the (new department) succeeds to the authority, powers, duties and responsibilities of (old agency #1) and (old agency #2).

B. This act does not alter the effect of any actions that were taken or impair the valid obligations of the (old agencies) in existence before January 1, 20__.

C. Administrative rules and orders that were adopted by the (old agencies) continue in effect until superseded by administrative action by the (new department).

D. All administrative matters, contracts and judicial and quasi-judicial actions, whether completed, pending or in process, of the (old agencies) on January 1, 20__ are transferred to and retain the same status with the (new department).

E. All certificates, licenses, registrations, permits and other indicia of qualification and authority that were issued by the (old agencies) retain their validity for the duration of their terms of validity as provided by law.

F. All equipment, records, furnishings and other property, all data and investigative findings and all appropriated monies that remain unexpended and unencumbered on January 1, 20__ of the (old agencies) are transferred to the (new department).

G. All personnel who are under the state personnel system and employed by the (old agencies) are transferred to comparable positions and pay classifications in the respective administrative units of the (new department) on January 1, 20__.

Transfer and succession of powers

If a new agency is to replace an existing agency, the drafter should include temporary law to cover the succession and transfer of functions:

Sec. __. Transfer of powers

The department of economic security succeeds to the powers and duties of the following:

1. The employment security commission of Arizona and its Arizona state employment service, unemployment compensation and administrative service divisions.
2. The state department of public welfare.
3. The division of vocational rehabilitation.
4. The veterans service commission.
5. The state office of economic opportunity.
6. The apprenticeship council.
7. The state office of manpower planning.
8. The state department of mental retardation.

In transferring functions from one agency to another, the drafter should consider including language to ratify or confirm prior actions, obligations and rules of the old agency such as:

Sec. __. Transfer of powers; effect

A. All matters, including contracts, orders and judicial or quasi-judicial actions, whether completed or pending, of the (old agency) are transferred, on the effective date of this act, and maintain the same status with the (new agency).

B. Rules adopted by the (old agency) are effective until superseded by rules adopted by the (new agency).

C. All personnel, property and records, all data and investigative findings and all appropriated monies remaining unspent and unencumbered of the (old agency) are transferred to the (new agency) and may be used for the purposes of this act.

4.40 TRANSFERRING AND RENUMBERING STATUTORY SECTIONS

Note: The drafter should not renumber statutory sections unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Renumbering may obscure a measure, make subsequent changes or amendments more difficult or impair the tracing of legislative history.

Renumbering also may result in ambiguity and increases the likelihood of drafting errors. It is also expensive because internal references, index entries, annotations, administrative rules and explanatory materials, such as bulletins published by state agencies, must all be changed to conform to the renumbering.

A section of codified law is renumbered if it is moved to a different placement in the same statutory article (or in title 13, in the same chapter). A section of codified law is transferred and renumbered if it is moved to a different title, chapter or article. A section of a bill may renumber or transfer and renumber a statutory section, article or chapter as in these examples:

Sec. __. Renumber
Section 41-1846, Arizona Revised Statutes, is renumbered as section 41-1842.

Sec. __. Transfer and renumber
Section 13-292, Arizona Revised Statutes, is transferred and renumbered for placement in title 13, chapter 23, Arizona
Revised Statutes, as section 13-2309.

Sec. __. Transfer and renumber
A. Sections 28-4301, 28-4302, 28-4306, 28-4307 and 28-4308, Arizona Revised Statutes, are transferred and renumbered for placement in title 32, chapter 43, article 1,
Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, as sections
32-4301 and 32-4306 through 32-4309, respectively.

B. Title 28, chapter 10, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes, is transferred for placement in title 32, chapter 43, Arizona Revised Statutes, as added by this act, as article 2. Sections 28-4332 through 28-4336, Arizona Revised Statutes, are transferred and renumbered for placement in title 32, chapter 43, article 2, Arizona Revised Statutes, as sections 32-4331 through 32-4335, respectively.

If multiple statutory sections are transferred and renumbered in one of the initial sections of a bill but are amended later in the same act, the disposition text should read as follows:

Sec. __. Section 13-2309, Arizona Revised Statutes, as transferred and renumbered by this act, is amended to read:

Also an amendment of a section may be combined with the transfer and renumbering of a section as follows:

Sec. __. Section 13-541.01, Arizona Revised Statutes, is transferred and renumbered for placement in title 13, chapter 24, Arizona Revised Statutes, as section 13-2409 and, as so renumbered, is amended to read:

The following bill title is an example of language suggested for use when transferring and renumbering multiple A.R.S. sections, transferring divisions of the A.R.S. (e.g., articles and chapters), renumbering the sections within a transferred division and amending a renumbered section:

TRANSFERRING AND RENUMBERING SECTIONS 28-4301, 28-4302, 28-4306, 28-4307 AND 28-4308, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, FOR PLACEMENT IN TITLE 32, CHAPTER 43, ARTICLE 1, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, AS ADDED BY THIS ACT, AS SECTIONS 32-4301 AND 32-4306 THROUGH 32-4309, RESPECTIVELY; TRANSFERRING TITLE 28, CHAPTER 10, ARTICLE 2, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, FOR PLACEMENT IN TITLE 32, CHAPTER 43, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, AS ADDED BY THIS ACT, AS ARTICLE 2; TRANSFERRING AND RENUMBERING SECTIONS 28-4332 THROUGH 28-4336, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, FOR PLACEMENT IN TITLE 32, CHAPTER 43, ARTICLE 2, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, AS SECTIONS 32-4331 THROUGH 32-4335, RESPECTIVELY; AMENDING SECTION 32-4331, ARIZONA REVISED STATUTES, AS TRANSFERRED AND RENUMBERED BY THIS ACT. . . .

4.41 UNIFORM AND MODEL ACTS

The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL) is an interstate organization of attorneys who draft and propose "uniform" acts intended to be adopted by all states for the purpose of consistency of laws from state to state. The most notable example of a uniform law is the Uniform Commercial Code (A.R.S. title 47). Consistent with the goal of uniformity, "uniform" laws should be drafted with as few changes as possible.

"Model" acts may be occasionally submitted for drafting. A model act should be considered to be a guide for proposed legislation. Unlike "uniform" acts, model acts may originate from any number of sources and are prepared with varying degrees of skill and quality. The text of a model act may be changed as necessary to conform to the drafting rules, forms and styles of this manual.

4.42 VACANCY SAVINGS

Section 35-174, A.R.S., provides that vacancy savings must revert to the state general fund at the end of each fiscal year. Vacancy savings are monies saved or generated in personal services and employee related expenditures by not filling vacant or newly authorized positions, filling a position at a step or grade lower than authorized or a downward reclassification of an authorized position. An example of creating an exemption to the vacancy savings law as well as authorizing additional positions is as follows:

Sec. ____ Authorization for additional positions;
vacancy savings exemption

Notwithstanding section 35-174, Arizona Revised Statutes, relating to vacancy savings, the department of administration is authorized to fill two additional positions in order to comply with the requirements of section 41-1304.05, Arizona Revised Statutes.

CHAPTER 5

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS AS TO FORM AND STYLE

5.1 GENERAL DRAFTING RULES

The goal of good bill drafting is to make legislation as short, simple and readable as possible while not sacrificing clarity or precision. The instructions enumerated in this chapter are designed to achieve this goal. The following are some of the most basic drafting rules that are discussed in this chapter:

- Use the singular.
- Use only necessary and understandable words. (See §§ 5.12 and 5.13.)
- Do not use unnecessary legalese or redundant legal phrases. (See §§ 5.12 and 5.13.)
- Do not use slang, acronyms or abbreviations.
- Keep sentences as brief as possible by limiting them to a single thought.
- Keep new statutory sections as short as possible.
- Use section divisions to break down lengthy statutes into understandable units. (See § 5.2.)
- Use a list to describe multiple duties or actions. (See § 5.17.)
- Use "shall" only to impose a duty to act. (See § 5.31.)
- Use "may" to grant discretion or authority to act. (See § 5.31.)
- Use the present tense. (See § 5.14.)
- Use the active voice. (See § 5.15.)
- Avoid using pronouns. (See § 5.16.)
- When amending existing law use the most current version. (See § 4.11 first "Note".)

5.2 CLASSIFICATION, ARRANGEMENT AND NUMBERING OF THE STATUTES

The Arizona Revised Statutes consist of the compiled laws of the state of Arizona and are divided, according to subject matter, into forty-nine titles. The designations given the titles were selected to indicate the broad principal subject matter allocated to each title so that an examination of the list of titles will show the approximate location of a particular law.

Title and chapter headings take the following form:

TITLE 16
ELECTIONS AND ELECTORS
CHAPTER 1
REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS

ARTICLE 1. REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

A compound or hyphenated section numbering system is used. The digits to the left of the hyphen represent the number of the title in which the section appears. The digits to the right of the hyphen indicate the section number. Usually, the first section in each title is appropriately numbered 101: e.g., the first section in title 1 is 1-101; the first section in title 46 is numbered § 46-101. If additional section numbers must be added between existing sections, decimal hundredth sections may be used such as 46-101.01, 46-101.02, etc.

Section divisions have the following designations:

- A. Subsection (capital letter followed by a period)
- 1. Paragraph (Arabic numeral followed by a period)
- (a) Subdivision (lower case letter in parentheses)
- (i) Item (lower case Roman numeral in parentheses)

Divisions beyond items are not used in the A.R.S.

An outline consisting of the heading of each chapter and article within the title is printed at the beginning of each title in the published A.R.S. At the beginning of each chapter a chapter analysis is printed consisting of each article heading, section heading and section number appearing in the chapter.

When adding a new chapter in the A.R.S. it is preferable to have the first section end with the number "01" or "51", such as 32-301 and 41-2351. The first section in a new article should end with the number "1", such as 32-331 or 36-851.

When determining what number should be used to begin a new chapter or article, the drafter must remember that the legislative process is not static. If possible, the drafter should leave sufficient free numbers to allow expansion of the current law. Title 41, chapter 19, A.R.S., contains only five sections; therefore, chapter 20 of that title begins with § 41-2351. If title 41, chapter 19 had contained forty sections, chapter 20 would have begun with § 41-2401 to leave room for expansion of chapter 19.

Note: Do not divide a statutory section unit unless there are at least two smaller units involved.

5.3 CAPITALIZATION

In bill drafting only the following terms are capitalized:

- Proper nouns (proper names). Note: Do not capitalize derivatives of proper names with acquired independent meaning, as in "arabic numbers" or "roman numerals".
- Arizona Revised Statutes.
- Congress (when referring to the Congress of the United States).
- Constitution (when preceded by "Arizona" or "United States", or followed by "of Arizona" or "of the United States").

In memorials and resolutions all titles of officers and entities, as well as names of agencies, are capitalized.

Note: If the drafter is adding a word or words to the beginning of an existing sentence do not strike the word that had appeared first in the original sentence to show the initial letter of the word in lowercase. And if a draft strikes a word or words from the beginning of a sentence do not strike the word that is now the first word in the sentence to capitalize that word. In both instances the drafter only has to show the proper capitalization.

5.4 AGE

The drafter should use the following language to prescribe age categories:

"A person who is under eighteen years of age...."

"A person who is at least eighteen years of age...."

5.5 FEDERAL STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

Delegation issues

The legislature may not delegate its power to make laws. See Lake Havasu City v. Mohave County, 138 Ariz. 552, 675 P.2d 1371 (1984). Therefore, the drafter should not use language that makes a statute appear dependent on federal law for its administration or enforcement. The drafter may use the following techniques to avoid an unlawful delegation:

- If the intent of the bill is to conform state law to current federal law, the drafter should simply incorporate the pertinent federal language into the bill.
- If it is impracticable to restate or repeat the federal law, the drafter should require the appropriate state agency to adopt rules based on the federal law and to revise them as necessary to keep them current.

Use of "as amended"

The use of the phrase "as amended" can cause problems in drafting statutes. The general rule is that a legislature may not confer on the United States or other government authorities the power to determine what rule is in force in this state or condition changes in its rule based on changes in rules enacted by the United States or elsewhere.

If the legislature adopts by reference a measure to which amendments have previously been made, the use of "as amended" indicates that the legislature intended to include the amendments previously made and not subsequent amendments. However, the legislature may not constitutionally delegate its authority by using "as amended" to include future amendments by the authorities of another state or the United States to the measure that the other state or the United States adopts. See Scappaticci v. Southwest Savings and Loan Ass'n, 135 Ariz. 456, 662 P.2d 131 (1983); Sutherland, Stat. Const. § 51.08 (5th Ed).

Citation of a federal act

Citation of federal acts should be avoided for the reasons stated above and because federal law is subject to frequent and often substantial changes. A federal citation may be correct when first added to the Arizona Revised Statutes, but if the act or United States Code section cited is repealed or substantially modified, the reference in the Arizona Revised Statutes may no longer be correct. If a drafter believes that a citation to a federal act is necessary, the drafter should carefully consider the most appropriate citation to the federal act or portion of the federal act. If a drafter intends the reference to cover the entire federal act, the most appropriate reference may include only the federal act name and the public law citation. It is important to keep in mind that many public laws contain material unrelated to the United States Code section or contain only amendments that do not include all of the text that the drafter intends to cite. If only a portion of the federal act applies, the drafter should use the most specific reference for that provision of law. If that provision of law is codified, a cite to the specific United States Code section would be most appropriate. If the provision is not codified, a reference to the section of the act should be used. The most appropriate citation to a federal act may vary. Note: It is the drafter's responsibility to include the most appropriate reference that is consistent with the sponsor's intent.

The following is an example of a complete citation to a federal act:

"BOARD" MEANS THE UNITED STATES METRIC BOARD EXISTING UNDER THE METRIC CONVERSION ACT OF 1975 (P.L. 94-168; 89 STAT. 1007; 15 UNITED STATES CODE SECTION 250a).

Note the following:

- If citing consecutive sections or subsections, give inclusive numbers. Do not use "et seq."
- If a federal act has no popular name, it should be cited by date of enactment: "Act of _____, 19 _____" followed by the statutory references.
- Cite to the official United States Code, not to the unofficial United States Code Annotated (e.g., 15 United States Code section 260a not 15 United States Code Annotated section 260a).
- The abbreviation "P.L." should be used in citations to federal acts, but generally "Public Law" should be used in the text of Arizona Revised Statutes.

Citation of a federal regulation

An example of a citation to the Code of Federal Regulations is:

EPA Effluent Limitations Guidelines, 40 Code of Federal Regulations section 405.53 (1980).

If the number cited contains a decimal it is a citation to a CFR section, and if the citation contains only a whole number it is a citation to a CFR part.

Citation to the federal poverty guidelines

The term "federal poverty guidelines" is defined in § 1-215, A.R.S., as meaning the "guidelines as updated annually in the federal register by the United States department of health and human services". This definition applies to all of the statutes and laws of this state.

Note: The guidelines are sometimes referred to as the "federal poverty level", but this term is ambiguous and the drafter should not use it.

5.6 CITING THE ARIZONA CONSTITUTION

A reference to the Arizona Constitution in the statutes should be as follows, using Roman numerals for the article designation and Arabic numerals for the remainder of the citation.

. . . article IV, part 1, section 2, Constitution of Arizona.

It is preferable in dividing section units within the Constitution of Arizona to conform as closely as possible to the division units within A.R.S. (subsections, paragraphs, subdivisions and items) for ready comprehension rather than use unidentified paragraph units and designations for which there is no agreed upon citation form.

5.7 CITING INTERNAL REFERENCES TO THE A.R.S.

Note: Do not cite session law in statutory text.

In referring to a section of the statutes within the body of the bill, the word "section" is written out, as "section 35-173".

- In citing a complete article, use the following style:

. . . title 12, chapter 6, article 2 [or] article 2 of this chapter [or] chapter 3, article 1 of this title.

- If making a reference within a section to another division, use the following style:

. . . as provided in subsection A.

. . . as provided in subsection A, paragraph 1.

. . . as provided in subsection A, paragraph 1, subdivision (a).

. . . as provided in subsection A, paragraph 1, subdivision (a), item (i).

- If a reference is made to a division of another section of the statutes, the designation would be "as provided in section 42-101, subsection A". Also, internal references within a section that refer to any other section of the A.R.S. should be denoted as such by the addition of the phrase "of this section".

- "Of this section" is not required in the following example:

A. ON THE DEATH OF A TAXPAYER, THE AMOUNT OF GAIN RELATED TO AN OUTSTANDING RECEIVABLE THAT HAS NOT PREVIOUSLY BEEN INCLUDED IN INCOME SHALL BE INCLUDED IN INCOME.

B. SUBSECTION A DOES NOT APPLY IF A BOND IS FILED WITH THE DEPARTMENT IN AN AMOUNT THAT THE DEPARTMENT CONSIDERS TO BE NECESSARY.

- "Of this section" is required in the following example:

A. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION B OF THIS SECTION, A PERSONAL EXEMPTION IS ALLOWED IN THE AMOUNT OF ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

B. THE DEPARTMENT SHALL ANNUALLY REVISE THE DOLLAR AMOUNTS SPECIFIED IN SUBSECTION A OF THIS SECTION TO REFLECT CHANGES MANDATED BY SECTION 43-252.

- Use "OF THIS SECTION" if there is a reference to another A.R.S. section number (i.e., "section 23-4301").
- Do not use "OF THIS SECTION" if the other reference is not an A.R.S. section (i.e., a reference to another title, chapter or article of A.R.S. or to the U.S. Code or Federal Regulations).
- Use "OF THIS SUBSECTION" if there is more than one subsection within that section that has paragraphs under it.

Note: If the drafter is adding language to or striking language in an A.R.S. section, the drafter should also review the entire statutory section to determine if "OF THIS SECTION" needs to be added to or stricken from the existing text.

5.8 NUMBERS, DATES AND TIMES

In permanent law numerals and simple fractions are written out, as, "One hundred four thousand dollars fifty cents" (no comma) and "two-thirds". Exceptions to this rule are as follows:

- Statutory citations, "section 15-101, paragraph 2".
- Legal descriptions of real property.
- Dates, "January 1, 2008" or "fiscal year 2008-2009".
- Times, "4:00 p.m.".
- Criminal classes, "class 1 felony".
- Complex numbers, "... multiplied by .0324 ...".

- Appropriations, "$5,014,200.50".
- Amounts under one cent, "$0.00001 cent per gallon".
- Road or highway designations, "Interstate Highway 40".

Note: Do not use the word "and" when writing a number, as "fifty-five dollars and fifty cents", and do not follow the spelled out number with the figures in parentheses, as "five (5) dollars".

Note also: Do not use "between" when specifying a low and high range. "Between fifty and one hundred" means "more than fifty and less than one hundred". If the drafter intends "fifty through one hundred" use "fifty or more but not more than one hundred". If the drafter does not wish to include "one hundred" use "fifty or more but less than one hundred."

When writing dates and times:

5.10 PUNCTUATION

A properly drafted bill requires little punctuation. Short simple sentences avoid the need for excessive punctuation, facilitate amendment and reduce the possibility of misinterpretation.

The following rules are designed to promote uniformity in punctuation:

Colons

- Do not use a colon in the text of a section except to introduce a series. For a series of indented subsections, paragraphs, subdivisions or items following a colon, use a period at the end of each.

Commas

Commas should be used sparingly but are appropriate in the following instances:

- To separate the items in a series, as in "the governor, the director, the attorney general and the secretary of state" Note: The comma is omitted before the conjunction "and" or "or" within a series of words, phrases or clauses.
- To set off dates, as in "Beginning July 1, 2008, the director shall"
- Before a conjunction if both clauses are a complete sentence.
- Before "except that" if what follows is a complete sentence.
- To set off clauses that describe a subject already identified but not clauses that identify the subject ("The director who is appointed pursuant to section 36-2903 shall . . .").

Note: Never separate the subject of the sentence from its verb by only one comma.

Quotation marks

Unless the entire sentence is quoted, place a period or comma outside the last quotation mark. For example: FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS SUBSECTION, "STOP", "STOPPED" OR "STOPPING" MEANS

5.11 SPELLING

Use of dictionary

The drafter should follow Webster's New International Dictionary (unabridged) or Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary eleventh edition in the spelling, compounding and dividing of words, except if otherwise provided in this manual.

Use of hyphens

Use hyphens sparingly. Do not hyphenate foreign phrases when used as adjectives, e.g., "prima facie evidence". Other words that are not hyphenated include "semiannual", "per cent", "audiovisual", "statewide", "cochairperson", "copayment", "eight point type", "nonprofit" and "toll free".

Use a hyphen with a proper noun as in "non-Indian". Also, "vice-president" and "vice-chairperson" are hyphenated.

5.12 USE OF SYNONYMS

In drafting legislative measures use short, simple words. Do not use synonyms. Use the same word, if the same meaning is intended. Statute drafting requires uniformity as a price for precision in communicating. The creative writing style of varying terminology to provide more reader appeal is not appropriate for drafting.

5.13 WORDS AND PHRASES TO AVOID

Do not use the following words and phrases:

- When referring in a bill to another statutory section do not say "the provisions of section 36-2903 do not apply". Say "section 36-2903 does not apply", unless the reference is to a specific provision of a statutory section.

5.14 USE OF THE PRESENT TENSE

In drafting use the present tense since a statute speaks as of the time that it is read. "A person who drives recklessly" not "A person who shall drive recklessly".

Section 1-214, A.R.S., stipulates that words in the present tense include the future as well as the present.

Do not use "shall" to convey future meaning. Since statutes are generally prospective in application those unfamiliar with drafting often incorrectly deem it necessary to use future tense in writing proposed statutory text. However, a statute speaks as of the time it is being read, not merely as of the time it was enacted. In addition, present tense is more readily understood and presents more forceful admonitions. Declarative sentences are preferable to unnecessary mandatory or imperative sentences.

Do not use:

It shall be unlawful

If a member shall resign

The term "person" shall mean

The equipment shall remain the property of the lessor

No person shall be entitled

This section shall not be construed to

Who shall serve

Use instead:

It is unlawful

If a member resigns

"Person" means

The equipment remains the property of the lessor

No person is entitled

This section does not

Who serves

Note: See § 5.31 for the proper use of "shall".

5.15 USE OF THE ACTIVE VOICE

Use the active voice in drafting. The active voice is more direct and less subject to misinterpretation than the passive voice. It may not always be clear on whom a duty is imposed or a power or privilege conferred when the passive voice is used. The verb form is passive if it consists of a form of the verb "to be" and the past participle of another. To avoid the passive voice do not use the words "shall be". As examples consider:

- The notices shall be mailed by the secretary. (passive)
- The secretary shall mail the notices. (active)

5.16 USE OF THE MASCULINE PRONOUN

New legislation should be drafted in "gender-neutral" terms and should avoid using the masculine pronoun. However, in some cases this might result in confusion, awkward sentence structure or improper grammar, and in those cases the drafter may use a gender specific pronoun. A drafter may also amend existing statutory text to use gender-neutral terms at the drafter's option. In any case, the use of gender-neutral terminology should be consistent with the following principles:

- Section 1-214, A.R.S., subsections C and D provide:

C. Words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter.

D. Words of the feminine gender include the masculine and the neuter.

This provides all the legal authority necessary for the statutes to apply to males and females alike (unless, of course, there is some biological basis for exclusivity as, for example, statutes relating to pregnancy or paternity litigation). Gender-neutral drafting efforts should not carry or produce an implication that gender specific text is biased, exclusive or otherwise defective.

- Gender neutrality should not call attention to itself through the use of contrived terms or awkward sentence structure. Select replacement terminology with care. "Police officer" may be a satisfactory replacement for "policeman", but "military officer" is not the equivalent of "serviceman".

- When amending existing statutory text, the drafter may make incidental changes to enact gender-neutral terms.

- Unless specifically asked by a legislator do not prepare amendments to bills solely to make gender changes in existing or proposed new law and do not include page and line instructions to replace a gender-specific term with a gender-neutral term.

The following example illustrates the proper way to avoid a personal pronoun:

A person shall not claim to be qualified to provide hearing services if that person is not certified by the board. If the department denies an application for certification, the applicant or the applicant's designee may personally appear before the board chairman to object to the board's ruling.

Note: Do not say "the applicant or their designee".

5.17 LISTS; FORMAT

The drafter should use a list to set out related elements such as definitions, powers, duties, restrictions, examples and conditions.

To properly use a list the drafter shall:

1. Introduce the listed items by lead-in language that ends in a colon.
2. List each distinct item in a separately numbered paragraph if the lead in is in a section or subsection. If necessary, a listed paragraph may contain additional sentences that apply only to that paragraph.
3. Capitalize the first word of each sentence.
4. End each sentence with a period.
5. Use sentences that, when read with the lead in, form a complete thought and that respond, in substance and in form, to that lead in.
6. If necessary, further break down a list:
 - (a) Into two or more subdivisions.
 - (b) Into two or more items. Items:
 - (i) Are designated by lower case roman numerals in parentheses.
 - (ii) May not be broken down into smaller units.

Note:

- If necessary, the lead-in phrase should indicate whether the enumerated elements are cumulative ("...ALL OF THE FOLLOWING APPLY") or alternative ("...ANY OF THE FOLLOWING APPLIES").
- All items in the list should belong to the same class. In other words, the list must have a common theme.

5.18 USE OF MODIFIERS

To avoid ambiguity the drafter must be careful to modify only the words the drafter intends to modify. For example, "an unmarried student, parent or pregnant woman" is ambiguous since it is not clear what "unmarried" modifies. Similarly, "a licensee may hunt moose, deer or ducks that are not on the endangered species list" is ambiguous.

In the first example, the drafter should write either "a parent, a pregnant woman or an unmarried student" or "an unmarried person who is a student, a parent or a pregnant woman", depending on the legislation's intent.

In the second example, if the drafter intends the modifier to apply to all of these animals, the drafter should use the following format:

A licensee may hunt any of the following if the animal is not on the endangered species list:

1. Moose.
2. Deer.
3. Ducks.

Note: If the drafter intends to modify only one of these terms, the drafter should state "a licensee may hunt ducks that are not on the endangered species list, moose and deer".

5.19 USE OF "AMOUNT" AND "NUMBER"

"Amount" is used to refer to something as a mass (a certain amount of money).
"Number" is used to refer to individual items (a large number of plants).

5.20 USE OF "FEWER" AND "LESS"

"Less" is used to refer to something that is considered as a mass.

"Fewer" is used to refer to individual items.

"Less" applies to quantity, size and measurement.

"Fewer" applies to number and counting.

Since "fewer" applies to number, in making numerical comparisons, use "fewer", not "less": "IF THERE ARE FEWER APPLICANTS IN THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR THAN IN THE PRECEDING FISCAL YEAR . . ."

Frequently the ideas of quantity and number are indistinguishable, and either "less" or "fewer" is acceptable: "IF THE EMPLOYEE WORKS LESS (or) FEWER THAN ONE HUNDRED DAYS IN A YEAR . . ." and "HOSPITALS THAT EMPLOY LESS (or) FEWER THAN THIRTY NURSES".

Sometimes an apparently numerical expression is obviously a unitary measure and therefore requires "less". One million dollars is understood to be a sum of money, not a number of units. Likewise, a population of one million is used as a quantity, not as one more person added to 999,999. Thus it is appropriate to write "LESS THAN ONE MILLION DOLLARS" and "A POPULATION OF LESS THAN ONE MILLION PERSONS".

5.21 USE OF "BIENNIALLY" AND "BIANNUALLY"

"Biennially" means once every two years. "Biannually" means twice a year.

Note: Use "once every two years", not "biennially", and "semiannually" or "twice a year", not "biannually".

5.22 USE OF "BIMONTHLY" AND "SEMIMONTHLY"

"Bimonthly" means once every two months. "Semimonthly" means twice a month.

5.23 USE OF "CONSECUTIVE" AND "SUCCESSIVE"

The words "consecutive" and "successive" each mean following one after the other. However, "consecutive" stresses immediacy in following and implies that no interruption or interval occurs (four consecutive days). "Successive" may apply to things of the same kind or class that follow each other regardless of the length of interval between the events (four successive paydays).

5.24 USE OF "CONTINUAL" AND "CONTINUOUS"

"Continual" refers to an action that occurs repeatedly over a period of time. "Continuous" refers to an action that is in uninterrupted flow.

5.25 USE OF "ASSURE", "ENSURE" AND "INSURE"

"Assure" means to make certain or to try to increase another's confidence. "Ensure" means to make certain or guarantee. "Insure" means to indemnify or procure insurance for something.

5.26 USE OF "EXCEPT" AND "PROVIDED"

Exceptions are a method of limiting the application of an act. Exceptions and provisos are legally differentiated for purposes and pleadings and proof. The more readily understandable and grammatically simple "except" is preferred in drafting because of the occasional casual use of "provided" as a conjunction. The preferred approach, however, is the use of a direct statement such as:

"This article does not apply to. . ." (to state an exception).

"The eligibility of a member of the board terminates if that member fails to maintain a current license to practice. . ." (to state a condition subsequent that is often stated as a proviso).

5.27 USE OF "FARTHER" AND "FURTHER"

"Farther" indicates distance. "Further" indicates time, quantity or degree.

5.28 USE OF "FUNDS" AND "MONIES"

"Funds" is roughly synonymous with "accounts". Use "funds" if referring to assets that are set apart for a specific objective or on deposit on which checks or drafts can be drawn. Use "monies" if referring to cash or sums of money. For example, the legislature appropriates monies from the state general fund to state agencies.

5.29 USE OF "IF", "WHERE" AND "WHEN"

Use "if", not "where" or "when", to introduce a hypothetical situation unless the place or time is relevant.

5.30 USE OF "INCLUDES"

The word "includes" or "including" is defined in § 1-215, A.R.S., as meaning "not limited to and is not a term of exclusion". This definition applies to all the statutes and laws of this state.

Therefore, the words "include", "includes" and "including", when used by themselves to introduce a list of examples, are words of "inclusion", not of limitation or exclusion. It is therefore unnecessary, and occasionally confusing and erroneous, to use the phrase "includes, but is not limited to". Since "includes" is not exhaustive, the words "but is not limited to" are redundant, add nothing and invite misinterpretation.

Note: Drafters should be aware of the following circumstances that may affect the use of "include":

- When the phrase "may include" is used to introduce a list of administrative powers or other authorized activities, using the word "may" turns the phrase into substantive statutory authority, not merely a list of examples. Since agencies have only those powers specifically authorized by law, the following list thereby becomes exclusive.
- The legislature may want to make absolutely certain that hostile administrators will not limit the application of the provision to only the listed items.

Neither of these instances justifies redundancy by using the phrase "but is not limited to". Instead, it is preferable to draft the last entry in the list that follows essentially to say "et cetera" with a phrase such as "provide other similar services to clients" or "perform other tasks of a similar nature" that clearly states an open-ended administrative authorization.

5.31 USE OF "SHALL", "MUST" AND "MAY"

Shall

"Shall" is properly used to indicate that something is mandatory. Use "shall" to prescribe a rule of conduct, rather than to declare a legal result. Don't say "the equipment shall remain the property of the United States". Instead use: "The equipment remains ...". Avoid using "shall" to confer a right as with "the director shall receive compensation". Instead use "the director's compensation is" or "the director is eligible to receive compensation".

Note: Shall not literally imposes a duty not to act. (See §§ 5.14 and 5.15 for examples of the improper use of "shall".)

Must

The drafter also may use "must" to indicate the imperative ("The report must include" rather than "The report shall include") and to describe a condition precedent or a qualification ("An applicant must be at least eighteen years of age").

May

"May" is permissive and confers a privilege or power. Normally the use of "may" implies discretion or permission.

Use "may" when giving the officer or agency the option of acting or not acting.

Note: May not imposes a prohibition.

Incorrect use with a negative subject

Avoid the negative subject with affirmative "shall" as in "No person shall". Literally, this means that no one is required to act. It negates the obligation but not the permission to act. However, "no person may" negates the permission also and is in reality the stronger proscription. Strict rules of drafting suggest the desirability of reversing subject and verb. The legal subject should be stated affirmatively and preferably in the single case, as "a person shall not".

Consequences of inconsistent or inaccurate use

The inconsistent or inaccurate use of "shall" and "may" has occasionally allowed judicial selection rather than legislative direction to determine the applicable verb form in laws. Additionally, even if "may" is used, the courts have imposed an affirmative duty if the object of the statute shows such a legislative intent. Pioneer Mutual Benefit Assn. v. Corp. Commission, 59 Ariz. 112, 123 P.2d 828 (1942). A prime drafting concern is to preserve the distinction between mandatory and permissive directives.

5.32 USE OF "SUCH"

Do not use the word "such" as a demonstrative adjective to point to someone or something previously referred to. The use of "such" in this way is awkward and contrived and often causes confusion. Use words such as "that", "the", "these", "those", "them" and "it". For example, say "and that person may apply...". Do not say "and such person may apply ...". "Such" may be used with "as" to list examples ("items such as office supplies").

5.33 USE OF "THAT" OR "WHICH"

When "that" is properly used, the meaning of the sentence is not complete without the "that" clause. The clause is not set off by commas.

When "which" is properly used, it introduces a nonrestrictive clause that gives additional, supplemental or descriptive, but nonessential, information about the word modified. And since the meaning of the sentence is complete without the "which" clause, commas are used to enclose the clause.

Note: The use of "which" is uncommon in good bill drafting because nonessential information is usually inappropriate for statutory language.

Therefore, it is correct to say "a fence that conforms to this section is exempt from section 36-101." It is incorrect to say "a fence which conforms to this section ...".

5.34 USE OF "THEREFORE" AND "THEREFOR"

"Therefore" indicates a conclusion. "Therefor" indicates in place of, in return for or because of.

5.35 USE OF "THROUGH"

The word "through" means "to and including" when used in reference to a series of three or more statute sections, subsections, paragraphs, subdivisions or items; e.g., "sections 13-111 through 13-114". If a series of section numbers contains a ".01" in between, "through" should not be used.

5.36 USE OF "CERTIFIED MAIL" AND "REGISTERED MAIL"

"Certified" and "registered" mail are frequently confused. Both provide the sender with a receipt to document the mailing. However, with registered mail a postal worker must write a receipt each time the item is passed from one worker to another. As a result, registered mail is more expensive than certified mail. Since the risk of nondelivery with certified and registered mail is slight, the drafter should use the term "certified mail" to require the documentation of a mailing.

Certified mail, return receipt requested

Adding the words "return receipt requested" requires the postal service (for an extra fee) to also notify the sender of the item's delivery. The postal service always records that certified mail was delivered and, if asked, will document delivery, although for a higher fee than if a return receipt was originally requested.

If it appears that there will probably be infrequent need for proving delivery, it might be less expensive over time for an agency to rely on backup proof of delivery, rather than to require a return receipt at every mailing.

5.37 USE OF "PERSON" AND "INDIVIDUAL"

Use "person" if you want to apply a law to human and nonhuman entities. Use "person" if you want a law to apply only to humans and it is clear from the context that the law cannot apply to nonhuman entities. For example, use "person" if the law relates to marriage. Use "individual" only if you want to limit the law to humans and this application is otherwise not apparent from the context.

CHAPTER 6

AMENDMENTS

6.1 AMENDMENTS IN GENERAL

Amendments vary as to form and style depending on whether they are house or senate amendments, committee amendments, floor amendments, conference committee amendments or amendments to amendments. Appendix A contains a sample format for each kind of amendment. But in general, all amendments must:

- Be line numbered on the left margin.
- Reference a printed bill, a House engrossed bill, a Senate engrossed bill, a committee amendment or a proposed amendment.
- Enclose all references to text changes in quotation marks.
- End with the words

Amend title to conform [from the left margin]

- In the lower left hand corner of the (last) page, state the time and date of the amendment preparation as follows:

3/03/06

10:53 a.m.

drafter's initials in caps or lowercase

6.2 BLANK AMENDMENTS

A legislator may request that a drafter prepare an amendment before the legislator knows what bill will be amended. The drafter can do so by preparing an amendment in blank. The drafter is usually asked to prepare a strike everything amendment in the blank format. But if the legislator anticipates adding language to an existing bill, introduce the new language as follows:

After line __, insert:

6.3 BLANK AMOUNTS

If the drafter has used a blank space in a bill draft to designate an as yet to be determined amount (for example, "The sum of $_____ is appropriated...") use the following instruction to fill in the blank:

Page 2, line 3, strike "$_____" insert "$2,000".

6.4 CAPITALIZATION

If the drafter is adding a word or words to the beginning of a sentence it is unnecessary to include an instruction to lower case the word that had appeared first in the original sentence. If an amendment removes words it is unnecessary to include an instruction to capitalize the now first word in the sentence.

6.5 CONFORMING TITLE

End all amendments with "Amend title to conform".

6.6 HYPHENATED WORDS

If an amendment changes part of a hyphenated word, strike the entire word. For example, to replace the word "twenty-five" with "twenty-eight" the amendment must direct that the entire word "twenty-five" be stricken.

6.7 IDENTICAL CHANGES ON A SINGLE BILL PAGE OR LINE

- List identical changes on a single bill page in one instruction if there are no intervening amendments. For example:

Page 3, lines 4, 7, 8 and 11, strike "director"
Line 12, after the first "the" insert "DEPUTY"
Lines 14, 19 and 32, strike "director"

- To make identical changes on a single line, state:

Page 1, line 37, in both places strike "and" insert "OR"

6.8 INSERTING NEW LANGUAGE

- Show new language to be added to statutory or existing session law in UPSTYLE letters. Show new language to be added to proposed session law in downstyle.

- To insert new language at a point between two lines, state:

Page 1, between lines 3 and 4, insert:
"C. THE DIRECTOR SHALL..."

- To insert new language at a point that follows the last line on a page, state:

Page 4, after line 40, insert:

"Sec. 3. Repeal

Section 36-5928, Arizona Revised Statutes, is repealed."

- If adding another statutory unit changes the numbering or lettering of subsequent statutory units, state "Renumber to conform" or "Reletter to conform" on the next line.

- If the amendment is inserting material, the drafter may use a colon after the word "insert" only if the amendment is adding a complete section, subsection, paragraph, subdivision or item. Otherwise, state:

Page 10, line 3, strike "such" insert "THE"

6.9 PAGE DESIGNATION

Designate the page of the bill or the amendment being amended only once with the first amendment to that page. For example:

Page 1, line 6, strike "both"

Line 12, strike "and"

Line 14, strike "director"

However, if the amendment to a particular page carries over to the next page of the amendment the drafter should repeat the page designation once on that next page.

6.10 PUNCTUATION

Amendments must include changes to punctuation. For example:

Line 20, after "RECEIVE" strike the comma

Line 34, after "section" insert a period strike remainder of line

Line 40, after "October 3" insert a comma

Line 42, after "months" insert ", NOR MORE THAN ONE YEAR"

6.11 RESTORING STRICKEN LANGUAGE

To restore language that is shown as stricken in a bill the amendment must state, for example:

Page 2, line 5, strike "~~department~~" insert "department"

Note: To restore a complete unit of text that is stricken in the bill, state:

Page 3, strike lines 12 through 15, insert: (Insert previously stricken text)

"B. On the director's written request, the attorney general shall conduct an investigation into alleged cases of fraud. The attorney general shall complete this investigation not later than thirty days after receiving this request."

6.12 SECTION HEADINGS

To amend a section heading, include the underline when striking or adding language. Do not show new material in upstyle. For example:

6.13 STRIKE EVERYTHING AMENDMENTS

- To strike an entire bill, always use the following language:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

- To strike a resolution, state:

Strike everything after the resolving clause and insert:

Note: If there is language preceding the resolving clause, the drafter should strike the language before and after the resolving clause using the appropriate page and line numbers.

- To strike a memorial, state:

Strike everything after the representing clause and insert:

6.14 STRIKING AND INSERTING BILL LANGUAGE

Strike all material in one block before inserting new material. For example:

Strike pages 4 through 10, insert:
(Insert language in indented format.)

Note: If the amendment is making extensive changes to a subsection, paragraph, subdivision, item or line that already has stricken and new material in it, the drafter should strike the entire unit or sentence and insert it in the desired form. This will make the amendment easier to follow and avoid any mistakes in the engrossing process.

6.15 STRIKING LANGUAGE FROM A BILL

- To strike an entire bill section (e.g., "Sec. 2. Section 36-2995, A.R.S., is amended to read...") or another complete unit (i.e., a subsection, paragraph, subdivision or item) state:

Page 3, strike lines 7 through 21 (Do not use "to" and "inclusive" and do not insert any text)

- To strike an entire page or pages:

Strike pages 2 through 8

- If striking this language changes the numbering of subsequent bill sections or paragraphs or items within a bill section, on the following line state:

Renumber to conform

- If striking the language changes the lettering of subsections or subdivisions, on the following line state:

Reletter to conform

Note: This instruction will not correct internal references within subsections, paragraphs, subdivisions or items or within other bill sections in the text. The drafter must use the amendment to specifically make internal reference conforming changes.

- To strike a word or words from a line, state:

If "department" appears more than once in the same line, specify which "department" by stating either:

- To strike three lines, state:

Page 9, strike lines 4, 5 and 6

- To strike more than three lines, state:

- To strike more than one word or a series of words from a line use a semicolon to separate the instructions as follows:

Line 14, strike "one" insert "TWO"; strike "monies"

- If the stricken language continues on part of the next line of the bill, state:

Lines 8 and 9, strike "of the monies"

Note, however, that if there are additional changes to the second line the instruction must state:

Line 8, strike "of the"

Line 9, strike "monies"; after "property" insert "fund"

- If the stricken language continues on consecutive lines from one page to the next, state:

Page 13, line 44, after the period strike remainder of line

- To remove language from a bill that is a portion of existing law within a section, state:

Page 2, line 1, strike "violation of this section"

- To strike language that is shown as new statutory material in the bill, state:

- If numerous changes are made to a line, strike the whole line of text from the bill and reinsert the line with the desired changes.

A RESOLUTION

DECLARING APRIL 2008 AS PARKINSON'S DISEASE AWARENESS MONTH.

1 Whereas, more individuals suffer from Parkinson's disease than 2 multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy and Lou Gehrig's disease combined;
3 and
4 Whereas, according to the National Parkinson Foundation, the 5 American Parkinson Disease Association and the National Institute of 6 Health, there are approximately 1.5 million people in the United States
7 diagnosed with Parkinson's disease; and 8 Whereas, the symptoms of Parkinson's disease • stillness, tremor, 9 rigidity, slowness, poor movement and difficulty with balance and 10 speaking – are often mistaken for other conditions especially in the 11 younger adult or in the older adult as a normal part of the aging process;
12 and
13 Whereas, anti-parkinsonian drugs can control some of the symptoms of 14 Parkinson's disease for only a short period of time and can cause in many 15 cases disabling side effects; and 16 Whereas, surgical procedures likewise offer only temporary lessening 17 of certain symptoms and are not a substitute for drugs; and 18 Whereas, April 2008 has been proclaimed as worldwide Parkinson's
19 awareness month for all to recognize the need for more research and help
20 in dealing with the devastating effects of Parkinson's disease; and 21 Whereas, increased education and research are needed to help find 22 more effective treatments and ultimately a cure for Parkinson's disease.
23 Therefore
24 Be it resolved by the (introducing body) of the State of Arizona:
25 That the Members of the (introducing body) proclaim the month of 26 April 2008 as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.
